Who for the Legislature

Every two years the people of Lane county vote to elect members to the State Legislature. Not always, but too frequently, Lane County has been represented by men who did not have the ability, nor the inclination, to serve the County to its best interests.

This coming Friday, May 21, the Republicans must select the men whom they are to elect in November. Everyone wants to select those men who can serve us best and the only question that must be answered is—"Who are these men?"

We feel that the men who can serve us most wisely and ably are:

L. E. Bean, for joint Senator of Lane and Linn Counties,

Jack Magladry, Senator, Lane County

E. O. Potter,

Emmett Howard,

Lynn S. McCready, for members of the House.

These men are experienced, able and trustworthy. They do not represent any particular faction or class but can represent equally all of the interests of the county. They have been successful in their own business and four of them have had successful legislative experience. They have been tried and have not been found wanting.

Lane county has many interests which need attention and protection in the legislature. It is wise to send men there with the ability and desire to protect our interests. We know the men named above will do this and urge you to support them with your vote Friday and get your friends to do the same. Their election will insure for Lane county, safe and able representation in the legislature.

hurry down to the beach with help. In either case, the fellow would be of little assistance in the rescue. It was up to him to make the effort.

Dick waited until she came to the surface, which seemed a long time to him. Her long fall had carried her far beneath the surface.

When her head showed finally for an instant, bobbing on the crest of a wave, he took the plunge, making a clean dive straight for her. The inevitable sinking and quick struggle to recover his breath on the surface followed. Then clearing his eyes of the salt water, he caught a glimpse of her as she was going under the second time. Dick was an expert swimmer, and understood the art of handling a drowning person. He made a surface dive, and caught her by the back of the hair, twisting it around in his fingers until he had a firm hold, and then throwing himself on his back he began towing her in.

"Which," He Reflected With a Scowl, "I'm Still Ignorant Of."

Fighting his way slowly through the waves, he managed finally to grasp the nearest rock, and with this as a lever he swung the struggling body of the terrified girl into churning water. After that it was easy to pick her up and carry her to a safe ledge a few feet above the highest roller.

Gasping a little from his own exertion, he rested a moment before paying attention to Marie. He doubted if she had swallowed much water, and her moans and cries were due more to hysteria than to any alarming symptoms. At the worst she would suffer only a little physical discomfort.

A middle-aged lady booked rooms at a hotel by mail. When she arrived she was met by the manager. "I hope you haven't given me No. 13," she said with a gushing smile. "No, madam," he replied, "You're suite 16."

"Go along, you naughty thing," was her answer.

A Dozen Reasons for Re-Electing U. S. Senator Stanfield

1 Oregon is in great need of rapid development and must seek federal aid, which the state can obtain only through such men in Congress as Senator Stanfield, with his commanding position in the Senate as Chairman of the Public Lands Committee and high rank on the powerful Finance Committee.

2 By reason of his important Senate Committee positions, which a new man could not obtain in 12 years, Senator Stanfield has been an outstanding factor in obtaining Government appropriations for Oregon during the past five years amounting to $32,000,978.

3 Senator Stanfield is leading the fight in the Senate to establish Oregon's right to use the revenues from her natural resources to develop the State and thereby reduce materially the taxes now burdening our people. His Grazing Bill, now before the Senate for passage, is the entering wedge to restore this right.

4 The former Senator Stanfield was successful in urging the enactment of the Emergency Tax Relief Act of May 3, 1921. Through the Norris Bill he obtained $6,696,000 for Oregon from the War Finance Corporation for the relief of agricultural banks and personally supervised this aid for the Treasury Department.

5 During the past five years Senator Stanfield has aided Senator McNary in obtaining $9,631,000 for Oregon reclamation projects. "In the hearing on the attempted sale of the Orientals to the Dollar interests, Senator Stanfield is assisting me in every way he can," wired Senator McNary on May 4.

6 Senator Stanfield, as member of the Senate Finance Committee, was largely instrumental in procuring $7,386,000 for the improvement of rivers and harbors in Oregon, and is in position to assist materially in securing a 55-foot channel from Portland to the sea.

7 The lumber business, Oregon's chief industry, has been relieved of an annoying handicap through the repeal of the Capital Stock Tax, the Main credit for whose repeal is given by the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association to Senator Stanfield.

8 One of Senator Stanfield's leading achievements in his success in obtaining, and laying before the Senate, a favorable report from his Committee on Public Lands on his $5,000,000 O. & C. Tax Refund Bill, restoring the taxes lost to 18 Oregon counties and lowering thereby the taxes of every taxpayer in Oregon.

9 The Stanfield Home Loan Bill will benefit thousands of city dwellers desiring of building and owning a home. It provides for government supervised loans on residence property on amounts of $500 to $10,000 at a rate of interest estimated not to exceed 6 per cent and payable in monthly installments over 5 to 15 years.

10 Senator Stanfield is a consistent supporter of the Coolidge administration and is standing with the president in the latter's enforcement of the prohibition law and reduction of federal taxes.

11 As a staunch friend of the Direct Primary Law, Senator Stanfield has publicly stated his attitude in unmistakable language. He says: "Conventions called without authority of law will be open to the same objections as the old convention system."

12 Because he has proved himself during his entire term in the Senate to be a friend of labor, Senator Stanfield has been officially endorsed by representative labor organizations, including the Central Labor Council of Portland on May 10 and Sunset Lodge No. 130 of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on May 14. Also by the Bayonet Club, the political organization of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, for his steadfast support of legislation for veterans of all wars.

Keep Oregon to the Front in the Senate by Re-Electing Stanfield It Would Take a New Man 10 or 12 Years to Match His Committees.
