Sheet Holders. The Sentinel.

No sprinter ever succeeded without ALL three. There have been great starters; runners who moved with perfect rhythm; and no waste energy; and men who finished with irresistible force. But the CHAMPION has had ALL THREE.

Charley Paddock

says a champion must have all three start-stride-finish

Finish

Charley Paddock breaking the tape with his famous "jump finish" that has brought him 37 out of a possible 40 world's sprint records and an unequalled mark of 9.5 seconds for 100 yards, made May 15, this year.

These same essentials in perfect co-ordination—quick start, the full stride of power, and force sustained to the very end [finish]—are necessary to good gasoline. Associated through its distinctive range of boiling points insures this kind of a performance: no sputter when you step on the starter, no miss when you give her the gas, and always a smooth supply of adequate power from start to finish. That's why Associated is Champion. Associated is always associated with "more miles to the gallon."
