"Of course!" I said. Nothing draws youth like a challenge to its courage. Nor did I understand, at that moment, all that my decision implied.

"Then sit down and write the story—straight off—just as it happened—no editorial." I was finishing my task when Marcus laid before me the proof of his leader, remarking with what seemed to me like forced joviality: "Think this'll make us enough trouble?"

I read; and I realized that Marcus had outdone himself. His literary faults and merits alike were, as a dual thing, those of the old-time mining camp editor. He overladen his thought with words and figures of speech; he wrote in stock phrases. But this editorial was simple, explicit, and forceful and as straight to the point as a pistol shot. It recited, with the Curtis affair as a text, the present state of Cottonwood camp—holdups, robberies, brace faro games and all. "Where are our schools?" it inquired. "Where is our fire protection? Does any sensible man doubt that a single fire in the heart of town would sweep Cottonwood off the map? Where is our provision for public health? The brick alley of Main street smells as loud as our municipal morals. Where, above everything, is our protection against crime? Do the NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS. Sealed proposals will be received at Cottage Grove, Oregon, by the city of Cottage Grove, Lane county, Oregon, architect, 605-608 Miner recorder, Homer Galloway, at Cottage Grove, Oregon, until 7 o'clock p. m., August 27, 1926, for the furnishing of all labor and materials for the erection and construction of a two-story and basement city hall building, conformable with the plans and specifications of the said building, prepared by John H. Zickler, architect, 605-608 Miner recorder, Eugene, Oregon.

Plans and specifications may be obtained at the recorder's office in Cottage Grove, Oregon, or from the office of the architect at Eugene, Oregon. A deposit of $10 will be required when the plans are furnished, which will be returned to the bidder when the plans are returned.

A certified check for 3% of the amount of the proposal, made payable to the city recorder, Homer Galloway, must accompany each bid.

Bids will be received for the building complete including the general contract, plumbing contract, heating contract and electric wiring contract. Separate bids will be received for the general contract complete except the plumbing, heating and the electric wiring contracts and separate bids will be received for the plumbing contract, heating contract and electric wiring contract.

The city of Cottage Grove, Oregon, reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

HOMER GALLOWAY, City Recorder.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office, Roseburg, Ore., July 22, 1926.

Notice is hereby given that Felix Miller, Box 198 Rt. C, Eugene, Ore., who, on May 5, 1921, made Homestead entry, serial No. 013731 for the 8 1/4 of SE 1/4 of section 9, township 19 south, range 5 west, Willamette meridian, has filed notice of intention to make final three-year proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before E. O. Immel, U. S. Commissioner, at his office at Eugene, Ore., on the 1st day of September, 1926. Claimant names as witnesses: Jesse Hooker, George Powell, Mace Simonson, Norman Hemenway, all of Eugene, Ore. Motor Route "C." HAMIL A. CANADAY, Register. jy 26ag23c(2)

present authorities really want to suppress our epidemic of holdups and highway robberies! Have we here the greatest camp in the Rocky mountains—"The editorial trailed off into the glories and possibilities of Cottonwood, and ended with a demand for a municipal government—"to replace the existing regime of weak, inefficient bluff."

I looked up from my reading, and my eyes must have told Marcus what I thought.

"It's the Rubicon," I guess," said Marcus; "may get me killed in the next 24 hours." And here, as though the weight had been lifted from his spirits, he became his normal, dramatic self.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION IN FORECLOSURE. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale in foreclosure issued out of the circuit court of Lane county, state of Oregon, on the 2nd day of August, 1926, in a suit wherein Herbert W. Lombard, plaintiff, recovered judgment against the defendants, W. G. Johnson, James H. Potts and William Turpin in the sum of $95.08, $35.00 attorney's fees and costs and disbursements $38.00, which judgment was entered and docketed in the clerk's office in said court in said county on the 2nd day of August, 1926, and said execution to me directed and commanded me in the name of the said court to satisfy said judgment, interest, attorney's fee, costs of suit and accruing costs, to sell the following described real property:

The southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section seventeen, township twenty-one, south of range two, west of the Willamette meridian, all in Lane county, state of Oregon. Now, therefore, in the name of the state of Oregon, in compliance with said execution and order of sale and in order to satisfy said judgment, interest, attorney's fee, costs of suit and accruing costs, I will on Saturday, the 11th day of September, 1926, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon of said day at the southwest front door of the county courthouse in Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, offer for sale and sell for cash at public auction, subject to redemption as provided by law, all of the right, title and interest of said defendant, herein named, claiming by, through or under them, or either of them, in and to said premises, ag95c(M) FRANK E. TAYLOR, Sheriff of Lane county, Oregon.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids will be received by the city of Cottage Grove, Oregon, at the office of the city recorder in Cottage Grove until 7:30 o'clock p. m. on the 23rd day of August, 1926, for the construction of a lateral sewer beginning at a point on the trunk line sewer on Tenth street opposite the northwest corner of lot 7, block 4, Georgetown second addition to Cottage Grove, Oregon, thence east to the northeast corner of lot 3, block 4, P. K. Larrison's addition to the city of Cottage Grove, Lane county, Oregon, as provided in ordinance 665 passed by the council and approved by the mayor on the 9th day of July, 1926, and ordinance No. 672 passed by the council and approved by the mayor on August 1, 1926.

Unit bids are required on proposal sheets, furnished by the city engineer and must be accompanied by a certified check payable to the city of Cottage Grove for ten (10%) per cent of the bid as guarantee that the contractor will furnish an approved bond equal to the full amount of the contract within ten days after the awarding of the contract. Plans and specifications may be seen at the city recorder's office. Bids will be opened and considered by the common council at 8 o'clock p. m. the 23rd day of August, 1926, and the contract let to the lowest responsible bidder. The council, however, reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Done by order of the council of the city of Cottage Grove, Oregon. Dated this 10th day of August, 1926.
