COMMISSIONER CROWE.

The eleventh hour attempt of certain interests in Eugene to bring out a candidate against Commissioner O. E. Crowe is not for the best interests of the county.Commissioner Crowe has made good. Without disparagement as to qualifications of the candidate whom Eugene would put forward for Mr. Crowe's place, the present commissioner has made good in as full a sense as the proposed independent candidate could hope to.
To defeat Crowe on the grounds of inefficiency would only invite criticism for his successor, who would find it impossible to do better.South Lane has been given a square deal by Commissioner Crowe.
Under him it has gotten its fair share of county money. South Lane does not care for a change, and it does not believe the Eugene interests behind the candidacy of Mr.
Coppernoll have fully stated the issue when they offer as an excuse the refusal of Commissioner Crowe to say how he is going to spend the O & C. land grant money when it arrives.Commissioner Crowe can be dependent on to use for reduction of taxes as much of this money as is not required for projects which will be designated as necessary by many of those who may be behind the effort to get the name of an independent upon the ballot.This eleventh hour effort is showing poor appreciation of honest effort by an honest county official who has worked conscientiously for his county at a wage which is less than that paid many in private positions who have but a small part of the responsibilities of a county commissioner.We grant that Commissioner Crowe has made errors. We should not care to support him if we thought he were the kind of man who couldn't make mistakes. Some few things we might have done differently, but on the whole he has been a satisfactory commissioner, and a much better one than we are likely to get by an eleventh hour effort to displace him.Chicago federal officers have prepared the indictment of 79 Chicagoans for conspiracy to violate the prohibition law. Shucks! Who would have supposed anyone in Chicago would do that!—Eugene

Do which?

A New York man claims his wife cost him a hundred thousand dollars.
That was only to get her. Just think of what the "keep" will be for that kind of a wife—but, then, they don't keep them in New York.After a woman has reared four or five children, she doesn't talk much about theories.SAVE with

SATURDAY NIGHT at the ArmoryA revolution is reported to be imminent in Ecuador, but it is no expected that the world's equilibrium will be perceptibly disturbed.The almighty dollar is God enough for many.When Lincoln and Douglas were contending for a vacancy in the United States senate, Douglas, on a certain occasion, in the course of his speech, complacently remarked:
"Twenty-five years ago, when we were young men, Mr. Lincoln and I resided in the same town. I taught school for a living. Mr.
Lincoln sold whisky for a living."He referred to Lincoln's clerkship in a store where there was a bar.
In his reply, Mr. Lincoln took up each point in its order and responded to it fully. When he came to the above charge, he deliberately repeated it, and added, "This is true, but" turning to Douglas, "I leave it to the Judge, himself, if he wasn't one of my very best customers!"NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLE-MENT.In the county court of the state of Oregon for Lane county.In the matter of the estate of Amanda Gibson, deceased.Notice is hereby given that C. W.
Partin, executor of the estate of Amanda Gibson, deceased, has filed in the county court of the state of Oregon, a petition praying for a decree of the court distributing the residue of the estate, approving said account and discharging this executor, and that October 26, 1926, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m.
of the said day at the county courtroom of said county and state has been, by said court, fixed as the time and place for the hearing of objections to said report and for the final distribution of the residue of the said estate.Signed C. W. PARTIN, Executor of the estate of Amanda Gibson, deceased.
