

ARCADE Theatre WEEKLY PROGRAM

Thursday, Nov. 25
"LOVE'S BLINDNESS"
 with Pauline Stark and Antonio Moreno.
 Can marriage for money bring happiness? Here is one answer you will never guess till you see this picture. A thrilling picture.
 Comedy
 "Felix Dopes It Out" and International News.

Friday, November 26
"UPSTAGE"
 with Norma Shearer and Oscar Shaw.
 She had pep to burn, and ten dollars in cash and then she hit Broadway hard. Here is a picture with something different. She will win your heart.
 Comedy
 "The Hug Bug."

Saturday, Nov. 27
"THE DESERT'S TOLL"
 with Frances McDonald.
 A thousand and one thrills in this riding, rarin' action romance. The great hunt for gold in the desert. A rapid fire story with an ending you will never guess.
 Comedy
 "A Dippy Tar."

Sunday-Monday Nov. 28-29
"THE DUCHESS OF BUFFALO" with Constance Talmadge.
 Darkest Russia got brighter than a Florida real estate booklet when Connie put on her dance. Russian barbers broke down in the shaving epidemic. They went wild over her. Her name was on every man's lips—but not for kisses. A whirlwind comedy.
 Comedy
 "Which Is Which."

Tuesday, Nov. 30
"EXIT SMILING"
 with Jack Pickford and Beatrice Lillie.
 An entirely new type of comedy—a drama set in an ocean of laughs. This picture would make the Doo-Doo bird blish. The funniest since the Smith Brothers bought safety razors.
 Comedy
 "Beauty A La Mud."

Wednesday, Dec. 1
"MIDNIGHT LOVERS"
 with Anna Q. Nilsson and Lewis Stone.
 You'll be in a heaven of thrills with the midnight lovers. A great airplane and war story blended together to make a picture full of thrills that holds you tense from start to finish.
 Comedy
 "Soapsuds Lady."

SOCIETY

Thirty-six members and two visitors were present at a meeting of Grove circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held Monday evening. Initiatory work for five candidates was put on. Plans were made for a pic social to be given soon in connection with the Woodmen of the World. The proceeds will be used to buy furnishings for W. O. W. Hall. Creswell circle has been invited to attend. The invitation of Creswell circle for January 8 was accepted by the local lodge. Creswell will hold a memorial service for a deceased member and will install new officers. A feature of Monday's meeting was a fish pond in which those present fished for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills entertained Monday night with a 7 o'clock dinner in celebration of their fifteenth wedding anniversary. Covers were laid for eight couples and the host and hostess. An attractive bowl of marigolds was the table centerpiece and chrysanthemums were room decorations. A social evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Clyde Leonard was hostess last Thursday afternoon to the Ad Libitum club. Mrs. Tom Lafoon, a member who had been absent through illness for some time, was welcomed back. A short business session was held, following which a social afternoon was enjoyed. A delicious two-course luncheon was served.

The LaComus club was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Lebow. The afternoon was spent socially and with needlework. Chrysanthemums in bronze shades were decorations. A dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. H. W. Titus was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the M. P. G. club at her home in Eugene. Mrs. A. L. Williamson of Eugene was a special guest. A social afternoon was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. Chrysanthemums were room decorations.

Mrs. Charles S. Hall was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the Elmaras club. The afternoon was spent with needlework and chrysanthemums were room decorations. A dainty two-course luncheon was served.

The annual thank offering meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Short. Mrs. H. A. Miller was in charge of the program.
