EAGLES INDOOR CIRCUS IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The carnival circus held Thursday, Friday and Saturday by Cottage Grove Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, drew large crowds each evening. Proceeds from the affair have not yet been figured. Cortello's circus revue was the main feature and six acts were given. A special matinee, to which all school children were admitted free, was held Saturday afternoon.

Cortello's animal circus, the flying Zeradas, Dainty Jenny in a non jaw act and Cortello's acrobatic clown were outstanding numbers of the program.

Various booths were maintained and a dance was held each evening. Door prizes were given each evening.

RED CROSS SEAL SALE IS NOW UNDER WAY

The Cottage Grove public health group will have charge of the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals and the business district was canvassed today. A house-to-house canvass will be made after the campaign gets under way. Children will be asked to buy in the schools. The executive committee of the health group, which is organizing the sale, plans to sell seals at booths in the principal stores of the city the last two Saturdays in December. Last year, over $96 was raised by the seal sale and this year the committee hopes to raise $150.

Thanksgiving Service Held.

Inclement weather prevented a large attendance at the community service held Thanksgiving forenoon at the Presbyterian church. Pastor Kenneth J. Husby of the Christian church had as his sermon theme the story of the ten lepers, only one of whom returned to thank the Master after being cleansed. A quartet of the Presbyterian choir gave a special number and a Thanksgiving anthem was sung by the whole choir. Pastor John A. Linn of the Methodist church was in charge of the service and other ministers of the city assisted. The offering will be used to defray expenses of the week-day bible study school.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Hall of Bohemia Camp No. 260, W. O. W.

Whereas, it has seemed best to the supreme ruler of the universe to remove from this clearing to the great one beyond, our Esteemed Neighbor Roy R. McKays,

And this Camp feels the loss of one who has been taken from our midst,

Therefore, be it resolved, that this Camp extend to the family of the departed Neighbor their heartfelt sympathy, and feel that the Great Commander above will lighten their burden of grief. And be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved family of our esteemed deceased Neighbor, a copy be published in our city paper and a copy be spread on the minutes of this Camp, and the charter be draped for a period of 30 days.
