SKAGGS-SAFEWAY STORES

DISTRIBUTION WITHOUT WASTE

"We Recommend This"

To many, the different brands or grades of the same article of food are often confusing. When the customer must depend entirely upon her own judgment, the selection of the brand best suited to her purpose is frequently a matter of chance. Since it is too much to expect that she shall be "grocery educated" she can just as easily choose wrong as right. The modern housewife has learned to depend upon the Safeway Man to guide her in making her selections. She knows that a knowledge of the usefulness and comparative value of every item in the store is part of his training and she appreciates and accepts his recommendations and advice. By so doing she saves both time and money and is sure that her purchases are the best the market affords for her purpose. The services of the Safeway Man make your shopping easier, quicker and safer.
