JOHN C. VEATCH QUILTS FISH COMMISSION JOB

PORTLAND, Ore., March 18.—John C. Veatch, Portland, chairman of the Oregon state fish commission, has submitted his resignation from the commission to Governor I. L. Patterson.

Questioned concerning the move, when it became known tonight, Veatch said he resigned only to make it easier for the governor to remove him should the executive wish to do so.

"I feel that the governor should have an opportunity to appoint anyone he desires to the commission," Veatch said. He denied that the recent difficulties of the commission had anything to do with the resignation. Veatch was appointed by Governor Pierce. His term of office would have expired June 1 of this year.

Dismissal from the commission of Walter T. Eakin, Astoria, and J. S. Hayes, Bay City, has been predicted for some time. Those close to Governor Patterson have not intimated the governor would dismiss Veatch and the resignation was a surprise.

BIG FEET NECESSARY LANDING ORCHARD JOB

MEDFORD, Ore., March 22.—(U.P.)—Employment, with big feet as the prime requisite for crashing onto the payroll, is offered in the fruit orchards surrounding this southern Oregon city.

The flat-shaped foot qualification is necessary because of continued seasonal wet weather, which has caused orchard soil to become so soft that unless you wear a size 9 brogan, or better, you are useless.

Most any man who has a foundation the size of a couple of satchels can walk right out into an orchard and land a job as a pruner.

The employing orchardist will select a few sample wet spots for the applicant to step on. If he doesn't sink in the mire above his shoetops he'll swim right into a job.

UNITED STATES IS ON JOB PROTECTING ITS CITIZENS

The capture of Shanghai and the consequent disorder has added to the jeopardy under which American citizens in the danger zone are living. Great Britain and France are taking every precaution to protect their citizens.

Rancher Enters School Seventeenth Time

HOOD RIVER, Ore., March 22.—(U.P.)—If good things come hard, then the education being won by Alexander B. Brooke, local rancher, should be worth several gold mines.

Brooks has filed his enrollment card at the College of Puget Sound at Tacoma for the seventeenth time. He is preparing for a bachelor of arts degree, and all the time he can spare from his ranch is a month or two each year.

Hard labor in tending to his orchard is his lot for 10 months but in spring time when nature is taking her course with growing things, Brooke becomes a "collegiate." His ranch is next to Billy Sunday's, and his annual absence does no harm, judging from its well kept appearance.

On the campus Brooke is known as "Dad." He belongs to a fraternity and takes part in all student activities, never missing a dance.

He entered school in 1907 and has returned for a short time each year since then. He "calculates" to graduate before many more years.

DeAUTREMONT DOESN'T TALK HOLDUP CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 18.—After a second day of relentless grilling, postal inspectors were unable to break the silence of Hugh DeAutremont, so far as his alleged participation in the fatal Siskiyou train holdup is concerned.

Efforts to obtain a confession from DeAutremont or to get any information that may lead to the apprehension of his two brothers proved futile, as the prisoner held on Alcatraz island continued to stand on his constitutional rights and refuse to answer questions without the advice of his attorney.

Postal inspectors sought chiefly to gain information as to the whereabouts of Ray and Roy DeAutremont, accused with Hugh, of murder in connection with the train robbery in Oregon in 1923 during which four trainmen were killed.

Postal officials plan to continue their questioning and it may be several days, or weeks, before DeAutremont is released to Oregon authorities for trial.

TO be well, you must keep the blood stream free from impurities. If the kidneys lag, allowing body poisons to accumulate, a toxic condition is created. One is apt to feel dull, languid, tired and achy. A nagging backache is sometimes a symptom, with drowsy headaches and dizzy spells. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions.
