SAGINAW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

March 19.—Mrs. Ward Hudson of Cheyenne, Wyo., arrived Wednesday to attend the funeral of her father, James Matthews, who died Monday. Mrs. Hudson will stay several days with her sister, Mrs. Sylvia Robinson, before returning to Wyoming.

The Logan Bear family were dinner guests Sunday at the E. H. Koch home.

Charles Cotter has purchased a new Ford roadster.

Mrs. Robinson is again teaching school after several weeks' absence because of the illness of her mother and daughter. Her husband acted as substitute during her absence.

The Saginaw spur, which was damaged by the recent high water, is being repaired by a S. P. crew. Mr. Monroe plans to locate permanently in Lane county.

The Grant Monroe family recently moved into one of the A. E. Johnston houses. They arrived several days ago from Montana. Mr. Monroe plans to locate permanently in Lane county.

E. P. Rose of Coal, Cal., has been pruning trees for a week for Bart Johnston. Mr. Rose is an expert in tree surgery and uses an entirely new method. While here he addressed the agriculture class of the Cottage Grove high school and gave a demonstration of practical tree surgery.

Harry Cotter went to Portland last week on business.

The M. Randall family of Portland have been visiting for several days with Mrs. Randall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Knight.

A committee has been appointed by the Sunday school superintendent to make plans for an Easter program to be held at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Beach of Lynx Hollow spent Sunday afternoon at the Logan Bear home.

Gladys Kirkendall will be unable to attend school for the remainder of the year, according to her physician's orders.

Prune Prices Look Better.

It is estimated that there are now but about 7500 tons of prunes in the hands of growers in Washington and Oregon and the outlook is for better prices. On account of the low price of small prunes last year much of the crop was not harvested and the stocks are pretty well exhausted.

The Sign That Worked.

He was a burglar.

After effecting an entrance into the bank he found his way, easily enough, to the strong room. When the light of the lantern fell on the door he saw this sign written in rather conspicuous red letters:

"Save your dynamite. This safe is not locked. Turn the knob and it will open."

For a moment he ruminated. "Anyhow," he reflected, "there's no harm in trying to see whether it really is unlocked."

He gasped the knob and turned it.

Instantly the office was flooded with light, an alarm bell rang loudly, an electric shock rendered him helpless, while a panel in the wall opened and out rushed a bulldog which seized him firmly.

An hour later, when the cell door closed on him, he sighed:

"I know what's wrong with me. I'm too trusting. I have too much faith in human nature.—Everybody's."

Save Yourself Inconvenience By Anticipating Your Needs in Printing

You are likely to say that you are too busy to check up on your printing once in a while, that you are too busy with business. The printer has the same trouble and, while he will exert every effort to get out immediately the rush order (which could just as well have been ordered several days before), sometimes to do so is a physical impossibility. Of course it is a favor to the printer to have copy in his hands several days before a job of printing is needed, but it is at the same time good business for the person wanting the printing, for he has given the printer time to get him out a good job and time enough so that it can be delivered before the last sheet of the letter head, statement, or whatever it happens to be, has been used. The printer and the buyer of printing can profitably work together in the manner suggested.
