TOO MUCH AGITATION. (Eugene Register.) The editor of the Springfield News is the chairman of his city's industrial committee, and in this capacity he writes many letters to people who might be interested in locating industries in Springfield.

We learned that a large plant in the state was contemplating a move and forthwith wrote the manager a letter inviting him to put it on our free site. After thanking us for the courtesy shown he said that his plant was to be moved, but that it was going to be moved out of Oregon.

That, quite plainly, is the peevish answer of a peevish man, and as such should be discounted heavily. He is planning, he says, to move his plant. That may be taken as pretty dependable evidence that he has failed to make a success of his business, for successful institutions seldom pull up stakes and move away.

But by what is here said it is not meant that Oregon is blameless in the matter touched upon. We do too much agitating—altogether too much. It is the laws that we pass, for the people of Oregon are notably conservative when it comes to passing laws whose effect upon business would be disastrous.

Mrs. Homer Galloway entertained Monday evening with a theater party at the Arcade for the Social Twelve club. Mrs. C. F. Hoskins and Mrs. J. A. Merryman were additional guests.

Mrs. S. L. Mackin gave a report on the life, style and works of Mary Johnson at the Tuesday Evening Study club meeting held Tuesday night in the city library.

Introducing Mr. Gush, the Great Salesman

I'd like to have you meet Mr. Gush. Mr. Gush is a salesman.

At any rate, that is what Mr. Gush tells people, and that is what he wrote at the top of his income-tax return.

Just know that Mrs. Gush thinks her husband is a big business man. She's heard him confess as much so many times.

Mr. Gush has a fine address. As he says, so many salesmen aren't good talkers. He might easily have gone in for after-dinner speaking, but has just that effect on you.

No one can ever say that Mr. Gush refused the quatlet. He is always ready to do battle with the biggest customer in his territory.

Mr. Gush has found it difficult to get an attractive arrangement; you know what the rest of us call a good job. Speaking before the Happy Hour club the other day, he announced, "The greatest trouble I have is in letting my boss keep up with me."

A willful group of men have just followed for an open season on pest such babies as Mr. Gush.

Just jealous," says Mr. Gush, dropping his dime into the pocket with the other one where it can make more noise.—Boston Globe.

Proud Metropolis Got Title From Royalty

The infant settlement of New Amsterdam was still in its swaddling clothes when across the sea, in the palace of the English king, Baby Stuart posed to Anthony Van Dyke for the prim little portrait that has become so widely known and beloved.

This child, who in his turn succeeded to the English throne as James II, was at nine years old, created duke of York and Albany. Upon reaching manhood he precipitated himself into various wars, all of which he came through with a reputation for brilliant personal courage.

In 1664 Charles granted New Netherlands to the duke of York, and an English force under Col. Richard Nicolls took possession of the city, naming it New York in his honor.

Attire Hard to Adjust The original dress of the Scottish highlander was the Celtic felle-breacan, or belted plaid, this being a piece of tartan cloth two yards broad and four long, drawn around the waist in carefully adjusted folds, and firmly buckled with a belt.

A Soft Answer They had been married just long enough for the novelty to have worn off, and the girl was beginning to find her feet, as her mother would undoubtedly have put it.

Birth of the Ego It is easy to see that great economic advantage accrued to the individual, and hence to the race, through the acquisition of self-consciousness. It enabled each man to economize enormously his expenditure of energy by concentrating upon definite desirable accomplishments.

Ridiculous Sentences Imprisonment for 250 years at hard labor—believed to be the longest sentence on record in the Balkans—and 10 other sentences of 250 years each have been given a leader of a band of Albanian brigands and some of his followers for the murder in 1915 of 14 Serbian soldiers in a convert near Pristina.

Celebration Passed Up Fourth of July in Vicksburg, Miss., is much the same as any other day. It is the only city in the United States which does not celebrate the Fourth, as it was on that day that the city fell to the Union troops during the Civil war.

REPAIR LORANE ROAD IS TO START AT ONCE

Plans for repair of the Cottage Grove-Lorane road which is now in poor condition were made Monday following an inspection trip over the route by E. A. Collier, state market road engineer, Martin H. Anderson, county commissioner, and P. M. Morse, county engineer. It is planned to tear up the surface to the base and place two to three inches of new gravel on the surface. The rock used on this road, which was quarried at a nearby place, is of poor grade, the county engineer stated.

STATE WILL MAINTAIN ALL OF M'KENZIE ROAD

The state highway commission has agreed to take over the maintenance of 18 miles of the McKenzie highway that is now maintained by Lane county, and the county will pay $100 a mile each year for the work. This arrangement will continue until such a time as the entire highway is rebuilt to comply with state standards. The state has maintained the section out of Springfield during the past year or so, although it is not up to standard specifications, especially as to width.
