A "Different" Attitude

The attitude of the Safeway Man toward his work is "different." It is reflected in the manner in which he serves you—the genuine interest he takes in seeing that everything is exactly as you like it. There are several reasons for this. First, he is just naturally that kind of a fellow—has to be to qualify as a Safeway Man. Again—if he has reached the position of manager—he shares liberally in the profits of his store. He gets almost a third of the net earnings—plus a salary. Also, he probably owns stock in the company—actually is "one of the owners of the business." This feeling of being vitally concerned in the progress of the business is shown in his efforts to serve you pleasantly, efficiently, and economically.

We realize it is a task, but people if ever low prices were an inducement, this merchandise should move in a hurry. Every article on sale is at a drastic price reduction.
