Conference Camp Meet Plans Nearly Complete

About 300 are expected to attend the seventh annual Methodist conference camp meeting to be held here July 21 to 31. Plans are about complete for the conference and only a few minor details concerning the grounds remain to be arranged.
A strong program has been arranged, according to Pastor John A. Linn, and Dr. Ira J. Hargott of Kansas City, Mo., will be the main speaker. He has spoken at other conferences here and was well liked. Miss D. Willia Caffray, evangelist of Chicago, also will be one of the main speakers.
Special services for young people are being arranged. Miss V. Dorothy Johnson of Portland, who assisted at several meetings here previously, will be in charge of the young people's and children's services.

Man Buried 24 Hours Is Rescued Without Injury

MARSHFIELD, July 7.—(U.P.)—After being buried alive for nearly 24 hours, Ben Bennetson, 38, employe of the Hauser Construction company, was removed injured this morning after a crew with two steam shovels had labored since early yesterday in the rescue. Bennetson was working as tunnel man in a rock quarry when a slide of rock and dirt covered him. He owes his life to the fact that he remained in a coyote hole and that there was enough air in the tunnel to maintain life for one person.

Miss Pearl Baker Dies.
Miss Pearl Baker, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident Sunday near Saginaw, died Wednesday morning in a Eugene hospital. The body was brought to Cottage Grove by Karl Mills and funeral services will be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon in the Free Methodist church, Pastor Miles Picher officiating. Interment will be in the A. F. & A. M. I. O. O. F. cemetery.
Miss Baker was born October 28, 1910, in Belko, Okla. She was aged 16 years, 8 months, 8 days. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, who live four miles west of Drain.

Distribution Without Waste

Anticipating Your Canning Needs

Long before the season for canning fruits and vegetables is on in earnest the Safeway Man has planned and provided, in enormous quantities, the things you are going to want. First comes fruit jars. With the purchasing power of more than a thousand retail outlets he buys several carloads of jars, besides caps and rubbers in enormous quantities. Then sugar, bought by the shipload. Finally, fresh fruits and vegetables—the finest he can find—bought in huge lots by an expert on the ground in the West's principal growing centers. The result of this extensive planning and preparation is that our stores will supply your canning requirements this season at savings which are possible only with the West's largest food concern.
