CULP CREEK.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

July 22.—James Sears and John Coffman, two well known mining men, whose headquarters are at Cottage Grove, passed through Culp Creek today enroute to their properties in Bohemia.

It is announced that several well known mining engineers are now in the Bohemia district carefully surveying the district in general and several of the more extensively developed properties in particular.

The gathering of the wild blackberry crop, enormous in this section this year, is now rapidly drawing to a close. Many berries now are beginning to dry on the vines. Hundreds of gallons were picked during the last three weeks in the Culp Creek canyon besides many gallons of the black cap variety. If the season is favorable in regard to early frosts, an abundance of berries is always to be found the first and second years after a logging burn.

Curt Wyatt, well known mining man and interested in the Bohemia mining district, passed through Cottage Grove enroute to properties in the old camp today. He was accompanied by several mining men from abroad.

The eight-tube radio set of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Patton picked up the Dempsey-Sharkey fight in a satisfactory manner yesterday afternoon and through the courtesy of the Patton's Culp Creek fans, strong for Dempsey, were able to "holler" in chorus with Cottage

W. W. Jackson, Lorane Merchant, Dies Saturday

William White Jackson, who had been a resident of this section for 21 years, died Saturday night at his home in Lorane. He had been ill for several months. He had been a merchant in Lorane for 20 years.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Mills chapel, Pastor Edwin O. Colbeck of the Baptist church officiating. Interment was in the A. F. & A. M. I. O. O. F. cemetery. Mr. Jackson was born May 12, 1858, in Green Springs, O. He spent the early part of his life there and came to Oregon 21 years ago.

Surviving relatives are the widow, Mrs. Della E. Jackson, four children, William Glen Jackson, Fort Collins, Colo.; Mrs. B. C. Addison, Lorane; Mrs. Harvey Carrin and Mrs. Herbert Doty, Eugene; one brother, Scott Jackson, Lorane, and six grandchildren.

The record heat of the season was recorded Saturday when the mercury climbed to 99 degrees. The record Friday was 89 degrees, Thursday 86 and Wednesday 84. Swimming holes of the city have enjoyed a heavy patronage.

Grove and Eugene boosters for the man that came back.

Potter and Owen returned from a trip to the Musick mine via the Sharp's creek route today, having taken in a heavy load of supplies for the forest service. They report the road very rough and a hard trip up the six mile grade.

Ray Suter is moving his family to Culp Creek from their former residence in the Hugh Proudfoot bungalow a few miles above here on Row river.

Fishing in Row river and the few tributaries remaining open is not up to the usual standard, all reports state. Early this spring the waters were too high and just now the only excuse offered is that the weather is too hot.

Mrs. L. G. Cornwell of Roseburg is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, awaiting the return of Mr. Cornwell, who is in Portland on business. They are former residents of Culp Creek.

The Anderson & Middleton cleanup of logs along the right of way above Rujada extending into the forest reserve was finished today. Pick-up work of reloading logs that have been lost while in transit over the main line to the mills at Cottage Grove was under way this afternoon and was completed to the A. G. Suter place a few miles above here. This work will be finished tomorrow, at which time it is understood that the lid will be clamped down tight until after the fire season.

SHOWING IS MADE BY CORPS AT CONVENTION

The Cottage Grove drum corps finished in sixth place in the competition at the annual American Legion convention held last week at LaGrande. There were twelve entries and Cottage Grove finished ahead of corps from Medford and Coos bay cities. Delegates from west of the mountain were strong for the local candidate, Duncan R. Cameron, for state chaplain, but he was voted out by the eastern Oregon vote. The delegates, who arrived home Saturday night, reported a splendid convention.
