

IF YOU CAN'T BUY IT IN COTTAGE GROVE SIXTEEN BEST REASONS Why It Will Pay You to Trade in Eugene, Ore.

The Peter Pan

Outstanding among the eating places of Eugene is the Peter Pan. Although much younger than many of the places that were established many years ago, it has found a solid place among those discriminating ones who like the best of service from a top notch cuisine at a moderate price, supplemented with quick and courteous service. Of course there is also the fountain where may be secured any drink that may be had anywhere, also a line of fresh bon bons and candies. The Peter Pan makes an appeal to those from points outside of the city who are in town for a meal, or a day or a week and is always ready to give preferred service to those who have a train or stage to make or are in a hurry to leave for home.

16 Best Reasons for Trading in Eugene

The buyer who sits at home and orders from a catalog or from some store in a distant city, or who goes to a distant city for a professional service, is deliberately sending money earned in the county out of the county to some place where it will be used to pay wages to others and may never come back to the county in which it is earned. There is little or no need for Lane county money going out of Lane county, for in Eugene will be found practically everything that can not be found in the smaller communities, not because there aren't those elsewhere who would be willing and ready to provide the merchandise or service, but it takes volume to make it possible to render a big city service, and Eugene is attempting to at all times keep a jump or two ahead of what would be expected from a city its size.

Residents of the county look to Eugene for much and Eugene will try in its friendly and neighborly way to live up to what is expected of it.
