

SOCIETY

The Delphian society held its first meeting of the fall September 28 at the home of Mrs. C. C. Cruson. Mrs. S. L. Godard was program leader and "The Hellenes" was the subject. Mrs. Godard gave a report on "The Land of the Hellenes," Mrs. R. A.

Trask on "The Greek Colonies," Mrs. C. C. Cruson on "The Spartans and Spartan Ideals," Mrs. A. A. Richmond on "Early Athens," Mrs. Schofield Stewart on "The Tyrants" and Mrs. L. E. Liston on "A Farmer's Almanac and Poet Musicians." An historical review of early Babylonia was given by Mrs. D. D. Roberts. Mrs. Alice Miller became a member.

The O. L. H. club was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Miller. The afternoon was spent playing bridge. Names were drawn for the annual club Christmas tree, which will be held at the home of Mrs. George Morgan in Eugene during the holiday season. The hostess gave an attractive bouquet of gladioli to each guest and bouquets of gladioli and dahlias were attractive room and table decorations. A delicious two-course luncheon was served. The club will meet on October 18 with Mrs. C. E. Frost.

Mrs. O. W. Hays, Mrs. A. W. Kimo, Mrs. A. A. Richmond and Mrs. Oliver Jones entertained Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors for the Christian ladies aid society. The meeting marked the close of a contest between two teams of the society to see which could raise the larger amount of money. The side under Mrs. Belle Taylor won. The losing side under Mrs. Charles Stevens will entertain the winners at the November meeting. The following program was given: Vocal solo, Mrs. Harbert; piano duet, Mrs. Leslie Hull and Mrs. Braden; vocal solo, Pastor Clive Taylor. Plans were made for a bazaar to be held November 19. Part of the money raised in the contest will be used to pay for repairing the ladies' aid room at the church. About 40 members were present. Bouquets of dahlias were colorful room decorations. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Oliver Jones entertained Saturday afternoon, honoring her daughter Helen on her thirteenth birthday anniversary. Guests were Odessa Newcomb, Dorothy Baldwin, Erma Bennett, Della Tallo, Mildred Bennett, Evelyn Thornton, Harriet Ostrander, Edith Leonard, Flo Woodring, Margaret Leonard, Anita Haldeman, Florence Leonard, Velma Davis, Eunice Meranda, Marie Cooley, Catherine Nelson, Nedra Harwood, Muriel Jones and Mildred Andrus. The afternoon was spent with music and games. Gladioli were attractive room decorations. A dainty luncheon was served.

The Tuesday Evening Study club continued its study of Central America at its Tuesday evening meeting in the library. Mrs. J. H. Chambers gave an instructive talk on the flora and fauna of the country and Miss Mariette Hamant gave an historical sketch of the building of the Panama canal. The club voted a contribution to the Doernbecher children's hospital in Portland.

The Research club met Tuesday afternoon in the library with Mrs. D. D. Roberts as program leader. Jefferson was the subject and the following program was given: "Jefferson as a Statesman," Mrs. A. L. VanOsdel; "Jefferson as a Home Man," Mrs. Robert Quigley; "Dolly Madison," Mrs. Duncan P. Cameron, and "A Comparison of Jefferson and Hamilton," Mrs. W. J. White.

In celebration of their fourth wedding anniversary Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Veatch entertained Tuesday evening with a 7 o'clock dinner at the Hagen home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. Merville Veatch. The evening was spent playing bridge. Roses, ferns and asters were attractive decorations.

The Presbyterian missionary society held a silver tea Monday afternoon in the church parlors. The proceeds are to be used for foreign missions. A reading was given by Mrs. D. D. Roberts, a vocal solo by Mrs. E. W. Ames and instrumental solos by Madeline Beidler, Adeline Adams and Evelyn Smith. Fall flowers were attractive decorations.

The Degree of Honor held initiation and a social hour at its meeting Wednesday evening in W. O. W. hall. Five candidates were initiated. A unique supper was served after the meeting. Mrs. Ivan Barker was chairman of the entertainment committee. Halloween decorations were used.

Mrs. C. S. Roberts entertained Tuesday with a 1 o'clock luncheon for the Tuesday Bridge club, inviting as additional guests Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. C. A. Beidler and Mrs. Charles Adams. At bridge Mrs. Gavin C. Dyott held high score. Dahlias were colorful decorations.

The executive committee of the Tanglefoot club met Monday night and the first dance of the series will be held October 17. All dances will be held in I. O. O. E. hall. Mrs. Ivan Barker is president and Mrs. Glen Smith treasurer.

Mrs. Clara Burkholder will entertain this afternoon for the Social Twelve club. The group will welcome two new members, Mrs. C. F. Hoskins and Mrs. Catherine E. Scott.

The Joker club will be entertained Friday evening at the home of Miss Lula Carrin.

Plane Is Salvaged. Salvage from the wreck of the plane of Vernon Bookwalter, aviator in the Spokane air derby who was forced down in timber near Eugene two weeks ago, was taken to Portland Monday by the flier. Only a few pieces of the plane, including the wheels, were taken as the remainder was so badly smashed that it was worthless.

Church News

Baptist Services.—"Unbelief, Doubt and Mischief" will be the subject of Pastor Edwin O. Colbeck at the forenoon service. This will be a study of the superstition which surrounds christianity. At the evening service he will preach on "Daniel in the Den of Lions," the story of the man who made religion a business. Bible school will meet at 10 a. m. and R. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.

Methodist Services.—Pastor John A. Linn will have as his forenoon subject, "With or Without the Spirit of Christ," and the choir will sing a special anthem, "Great Is the Lord." At the evening service he will speak on "Where Is Thy God?" from the 42nd psalm. The choir will sing "Now the Day Is Ended." Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. and will continue the work started last Sunday at rally day. Epworth League will meet at 6:30 p. m.

Christian Services.—A splendid lineup of services has been arranged for Sunday. Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m., at which time tags will be distributed to tag members and parents for rally day on October 16. At the forenoon church service Miss Helen Ostrander will sing a solo and Pastor Clive Taylor will preach on "The Message for This Age." Communion will be observed. Old songs will be sung and a prize will be given the father with the largest family. The evening subject will be the first of a series of six popular evening services. At the forenoon service the subject will be "False Wealth and True." Special music is being arranged.

Battery "E" Starts Winter Work. Several recruits have been enlisted in Battery "E," 249th coast artillery, and no vacancies remain in the unit. Several places may be open later after discharges have been secured for those members who have moved out of the district. Ray McCargar and Billy McCargar have reenlisted and new recruits are Kenneth H. Ward, Glen Arne, Nelson L. Durham and Mr. Sullivan. Major Bolton Hamble, of the adjutant-general's office at Salem, paid an official visit to the battery Tuesday night. For the past two drill periods there has been good attendance and the unit is showing interest in winter work.

Corrective old gentleman: "My little man, you mustn't say, 'Ain't going.' You must say, 'I am not going.' He is not going.' 'We are not going.' 'They are not going.' Little Johnny—"Ain't nobody goin'!"
