SOCIETY

The Sunday school class composed of young married couples from the Christian church taught by Bert Burrows were entertained with a Hallowe'en party Friday night at the church. Mrs. O. W. Hays, Mrs. Roy Hands and Mrs. R. R. Harbert were the committee in charge. Contests, ghost stories and games occupied the evening hours. Mrs. Burrows, in a unique "red devil" costume, performed Hallowe'es stunts. Mrs. Alfred White won a prize for leading the best eat chorus. Mrs. Bert Burrows received a prize in the candy feeding contest and Pastor Clive Taylor was winner in a bean feeding contest. Refreshments were served in the dining hall, where 35 guests were seated. A color scheme of black and yellow was effectively carried out at the tables. Favors were miniature candle sticks made of gum drops, each holding a lighted candle.

Mrs. C. E. Umphrey entertained Wednesday afternoon for the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church. Additional guests were Mrs. R. C. Watkins of the middle west, Mrs. J. C. Selnes of Hood River, Mrs. Fred Bressler, Mrs. Duncan P. Cameron, Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Omer Moore and Mrs. Ira Reidler. Mrs. John A. Linn led devotionals. Mrs. N. E. Compton was in charge of the program and was assisted by Mrs. E. E. Cone. The study subject was "The Straight Way to Tomorrow," taken from the international textbook. Mrs. S. J. Leonard was in charge of the mystery box. Asters and cosmos were colorful decorations. A dainty luncheon was served.

The Research club devoted its Tuesday meeting to the study of Galsworthy. Mrs. W. J. White was program leader and special emphasis was given the novel, "The Island Pharisees." Members responded to roll call by giving quotations from the book. The following program was given: "Review of the Island Pharisees," Mrs. Duncan P. Cameron; "Biography of Galsworthy," Mrs. William Baker; review of the play, "The Pigeon," Mrs. D. D. Roberts; "Galsworthy as a Novelist," Mrs. M. S. Power, and "Galsworthy as a Dramatist," Mrs. A. L. Van Odel. Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall and Mrs. M. S. Power were appointed to represent the Research club on the community chest committee.

A benefit card party was held Monday night at the Woodman hall by the Neighbors of Woodcraft. Bridge and five hundred were interesting games of the evening. At bridge Mrs. Earl Garoutte and G. A. Sanders held high score and Mrs. Charles Vandenberg and Mrs. George McQueen won first and second prizes at five hundred. Autumn flowers and foliage and soft shaded lamps were attractive decorations. At the close of the evening light refreshments were served.

The Tuesday Bridge club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Rufus Van Deine. Following a 1 o'clock luncheon, bridge was played. Mrs. C. J. Kem held high score for the afternoon's game. Mrs. J. F. Finneran was welcomed as a new member. A bowl of salvia and maidenhair fern formed the artistic centerpiece for the luncheon table and autumn leaf place cards and tallies were used. Combined autumn flowers were effective room decorations.

Mrs. D. H. Hemenway was hostess for the O. L. H. club Tuesday. The afternoon was spent playing bridge and Mrs. Inez Meeks held high score. Following cards a delicious two-course luncheon was served. A fruit centerpiece and lighted tapers were effective table decorations. Special guests meeting with the club were Mrs. J. Q. Willis, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Fred Anderson and Mrs. E. W. Ames.

Sixteen girls from the Presbyterian Sunday school serenaded the cafes and confectionery Hallowe'en night between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. The owners of the stores furnished treats for the songsters. They were chaperoned by Pastor Duncan P. Cameron, Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Charles Beidler.

Miss Pauline Galdabini was hostess for a Hallowe'en party Friday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Galdabini. Invited guests included all residents in that community. Hallowe'en games were played and dainty refreshments were served.

A large number attended the library program given Tuesday night at the city library by the Tuesday Evening Study club. Members of the club received the guests and Mrs. Charles Adams presided. Mayor George O. Knowles gave the address of welcome and showed the value and need of a community library. Mrs. Charles Beidler gave a history of the state libraries and their beginning.

Mrs. Adams told of the early history of the local organization, its early efforts and its present achievements. The main address was given by Pastor Duncan P. Cameron on "Books." He pointed out that good books are brain food and that health is generated in the brain as well as in the body. He gave suggestions as to what to read.

The Knights of Pythias lodge, assisted by the Pythian Sisters, held a dinner Tuesday night in W. O. W. hall. H. J. Shinn was toastmaster and a number of speeches were given. Pastor Duncan P. Cameron urged a good spirit and laughter in connection with lodge spirit. Dr. H. A. Hagen also urged a better spirit and Mrs. Frank McFarland told of the Pythian Sisters' convention at The Dalles. A number of old time violin selections were played by George Neeley, Miss Helen Ostrander sang a solo and Miss Mary O. Benson played a piano number. W. J. White read a poem he had written and O. M. Kem recited a poem he had written about making maple sugar.

The losing side in a recent Christian ladies' aid society contest entertained the winners at a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. Twenty-six members and 14 guests were present. The group pledged $100 toward redecorating the church auditorium. The date of the annual bazaar was changed from November 19 to December 3 and will be held in the Aubrey building. Plans for a Christmas tree were made. Fall flowers were attractive decorations. A dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen entertained Wednesday evening for the Tillicum club. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkinson of Eugene, Mrs. Fannie Leabow of Creswell and L. C. Michener. The evening was spent playing five hundred and a delicious luncheon was served. The club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Inez Meeks.

In honor of Floyd Bennett, who is here on a visit, members of the Lion Pioneers and Mrs. Short's Sunday school class of girls entertained with a theater party Wednesday night. Twenty-five were present. The group gathered at the church and returned there after the theater. A supper was served at the Colonial at the close of the evening.

The junior Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church elected officers at its meeting Sunday night. They are Helen Jones, president; Dorothy Baldwin, vice president; Jean Short, secretary; Adeline Adams, treasurer; Gladys Spruille, pianist, and Mrs. C. W. Beatty, superintendent.

The Cottage Grove public health group will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Schofield Stewart. Miss Beth Konkel, health secretary for Lane county, will be present. The clinic planned for an early date has been postponed indefinitely.

The Degree of Honor met Wednesday night at W. O. W. hall and initiatory work was put on for Miss Thelma Wheeler. Refreshments were served at the Colonial cafe at the close of the evening.

Mrs. C. E. Frost will entertain for the Joker club Friday evening at her home.

Wrecked Plane Is Salvaged.

The plane in which Vernon Bookwalter, air mail flier, crashed during the San Francisco-Spokane air derby has been moved from the scene of the accident eight miles above Winberry ranger station in the Cascade national forest. The flier had said that he would not try to remove the wreck, but afterward succeeded in getting the plane out of the timber to a place where it could be reached by automobile from Eugene.

Why the Editorial?

A newspaper's primary purpose is to print the news as completely, fairly and impartially as resources permit. The only purpose of an editorial column is fearlessly and conscientiously to interpret events as they appear, to expose blunk and corruption and advocate the right as it is given the writer to see it. If the editorials do not do this, the editorial would better be eliminated.—Salem Capital Journal.

Camel

The cigarette preferred by experienced smokers

In the remarkable growing popularity of the cigarette many brands have bid for favor, but Camel continues to lead by billions. Quality put it there; quality keeps it there.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
