Cambridge Men To Meet Oregon In Debate Soon

University of Oregon, Eugene—On December 5 two University of Oregon debaters will meet Cambridge University, of England, in Eugene, in the third international meet in the history of the University on a question which is yet to be selected. There will be four problems, proposed by the visiting team, from which the selection will be made.

Mr. M. A. B. King-Hamilton, Mr. Herbert Lionel Elvin and Mr. Hugh Mackintosh Foot will compose the Cambridge team. The Oregon men have not yet been selected.

Four questions were submitted by the Cambridge men on which they would debate, many phases of which they are especially prepared to discuss. The questions are: "Resolved, That in the opinion of this House compulsory military training should form part of the education in all schools and universities." (Cambridge against.) "Resolved, That this House thinks that the ethics of the business world are incompatible with sound morality." (Cambridge for.) "Resolved, That the power of the press has increased, is increasing and ought to be diminished." (Cambridge for.) "Resolved, That this House disapproves (Cambridge for or split.) of Woman." (To be treated lightly.)

French Girl Arrives to Attend State University

University of Oregon, Eugene—As the result of dime dances; penance sales; the auction of unclaimed overcoats, compact and umbrellas; college balls, and sundry other money-making enterprises, the Women's League has brought to the campus a foreign student, Therese Chambelland, of Lorraine, France. Miss Chambelland graduated last year from the Sorbonne. Before going to Paris she attended the College des Filles d'Epinal and the Lycee de Garçons d'Epinal. In working for her master's degree at the University of Oregon she expects to major in English and minor in French.

Portland Boy Elected Head of Oregon Frosh

University of Oregon, Eugene—Charles Laird of Portland won out in a close race for the presidency of the class of 1931 at the freshman meeting recently. After a ballot vote which resulted in a tie, a standing vote was taken which resulted in the election of Mr. Laird, 261 to 209.

Reba Brogdon was elected to the vice presidency; Naida Plummer, secretary, and Francis Heitkamper, treasurer.

PROMPT PAY

"Or Refuse Further Credit"

"I should trust freely for thirty days but rigidly enforce monthly payments." That is the advice given to the retail merchants of the country by Roger Babson, the noted eastern economist, in a recent address to retailers in Atlantic City.

"I believe the monthly account has a legitimate economic function," he went on to say, and concluded: "But I would refuse further credit to anyone who did not pay on the tenth of the month following the purchase."

That is the way the highest authority in the country looks on your charge account

His opinion is most important, because his statements and his advice represent the best in sound business judgment. He knows that the merchant cannot allow extended credit, and still maintain his business so as to give his customers the best values.
