SOCIETY

Miss Dorothy Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Miller of Hebron, was married Saturday afternoon in Eugene to Louis Layng, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Layng, who live east of the city. A reception was held Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents and about 25 relatives and friends were present. The evening was spent with music and dancing. Herman Rudolph, John Nokes and Henry Lake furnishing music. The rooms were decorated with Christmas greens and an attractively decorated Christmas tree was in the living room. Delicious refreshments were served. A charivari was given Sunday night for the newlyweds by a group of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Layng will make their home on Row river.

The Delphin society met Monday evening and took up the study of "Imperial Rome" with "The Grandeur and Decay of the Roman Empire" as the general theme. The following program was given: "The Reforms of Augustus," Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall; "The Age of Tiberius," Mrs. L. E. Liston; "The Siege of Jerusalem," Mrs. Elbert Bede; "Social Conditions under the Flavians," Mrs. R. A. Trask; "Trojan," Mrs. W. J. White; "Hadrian's Achievements," Mrs. C. E. Umphrey; "Dioctetian, the Divine," Mrs. A. A. Richmond; "The Spread of Christianity," Mrs. R. S. Trask; and "The Fall of Rome," Mrs. S. L. Godard.

Mrs. James P. Graham was hostess Monday afternoon for the annual Christmas party of the Past Matrons' club. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served at the Colonial cafe. The dining table was centered with a miniature Christmas tree and sprigs of holly. Favors were Yuletide, place cards and miniature candles. The group went to the home of the hostess after the luncheon for exchange of gifts and Christmas tree. Each guest was given a special gift by the hostess. The club gave Mrs. Graham a potted plant.

The Carnation club held a no-hostess dinner Wednesday evening at the Gray Goose, following which the group went to the home of Mrs. Leontine Lusk for its Christmas party. Miss Alma Dale Covington, Mrs. Victor Chambers and Mrs. H. A. Hagen were additional guests. Gifts were exchanged and a Christmas tree was a feature. Forty-three were present. The evening was spent playing bridge and Mrs. Chambers held high score and Mrs. Carl Witte low score.

Miss Beth Bede entertained Wednesday evening with a 6:30 dinner for the girls' Sunday school class of which Mrs. Roy Short is teacher. Covers were laid for Mrs. Short, Jean Allison, Donna Bartlett, Mildred Bennett, Elsie Jacobsen, Mildred Bennett, Jenn McGeorge, Genevieve Woodard, Louise Wynne and the hostess. The table was attractive with Christmas greens and red candles and the rooms were colorful with Christmas decorations. Christmas gifts were exchanged and a pleasant social evening was enjoyed.

The Elmarles club held a no-hostess luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the Colonial cafe. Following the luncheon the group went to the home of Mrs. Ivan Barker for its Christmas tree and exchange of gifts. A real Santa Claus presented each guest with a bag of candy. The afternoon was spent playing bridge and Mrs. L. E. Liston held high score. Mrs. Liston assisted the hostess and Mrs. Sam Ventch and Mrs. Merville Ventch arranged the luncheon.

The La Mercedi Pont club was entertained Wednesday at the home of Miss Nell Bushell. Additional guests were Mrs. Ivan Barker and Mrs. W. W. Little. At cards Mrs. Barker held high score. Attractive Santa Claus score cards were used. A delicious one-course luncheon was served. The rooms were colorful with Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Harold Axley entertained Tuesday afternoon for the annual Christmas party of the M. P. G. club. Christmas gifts were exchanged and a pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed. Yuletide greenery was room decorations. A dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. N. E. Glass entertained Tuesday with a 1 o'clock luncheon for the LaComus club. Mrs. Thomas Holleran and Mrs. Johnson were additional guests. Christmas gifts were exchanged and the hostess gave each one a special gift. The dining table was centered with evergreens and red candles.

The Tanglefoot club held a hard times dance Monday evening in I. O. O. F. hall. The men of the club were hosts. Many unusual costumes were worn.

John C. Klopfenstein of this city and Mrs. Susie Miller of Rollo, Mo., were married at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, Pastor Edwin O. Colbeck of the Baptist church read the ring ceremony. Miss Helen Ostrander played the wedding march and sang "O Promise Me." A reception was held after the ceremony and music was furnished by Miss Ostrander, George McQueen Jr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkinson of Eugene. John Bidwell entertained with old fashioned violin selections. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Beaver of Creswell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkinson of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mackey of Divide, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Miss Crystal Sparks, A. J. Weber, Miss Hazel Miller, Albert Griffin, Gus Burgland, W. C. That "U" In Trust

Your good character and standing in the community is represented by that "U" in "Trust"—the "you" in which your merchant puts his trust when he extends you credit.

He has faith in you, being confident that you will keep your promises. And the promise you make to him when you buy goods on a charge account is that you will pay your bills before the 15th of the following month.

Your November bills were due Thursday. Keep your promise to your merchant now, if you have not already done so. He is not a banker; he must have his money to pay his own wholesale bills, and to keep his establishment running to give you the best possible service.
