The Research club at its Tuesday afternoon meeting took up the study of "Employment of Women." Mrs. Bressler was a guest. Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall, president, appointed Mrs. W. J. White, Mrs. A. W. Shofstall and Mrs. M. S. Power as a committee to outline a program of study for next year. Members responded to roll call by reading articles from current issues of magazines and papers dealing with the subject, "Employment of Women." The following program was given: Reading part of laws of Oregon dealing with employment of women, Mrs. Mendenhall; "Women and Social Progress," Mrs. A. W. Shofstall; "Limitation of Working Hours for Women," Mrs. William Baker; "Report of Work of Women's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor," Mrs. M. S. Power. Then followed the reading in part of reports sent out by the women's bureau, dealing with various phases, such as minimum wage, standards for employment of women in industry, married women in industry, health problems of women in industry and old age pensions.

Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Lois Williams and Mrs. W. H. Ostrander entertained Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors for the Christian ladies' aid society. At the business meeting the following officers were elected: Mrs. Charles Walker, president; Mrs. Fred Brown, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Brown, second vice president; Mrs. C. L. Madden, third vice president; Mrs. H. O. Bennett, fourth vice president; Mrs. William Baker, secretary; Mrs. D. T. Aubrey, treasurer. Plans were made for a chicken supper to be given February 22. The purchase of a new furnace for the church was discussed but definite action was postponed. A letter was read from Mrs. N. W. White, who said she hoped to return soon from Portland and who expressed appreciation of the flowers sent her during her illness. Delicious refreshments were served. The group will hold its next meeting in February with Mrs. Rena Waples, Mrs. D. T. Aubrey, Mrs. Herbert Whitlock and Mrs. W. W. Watson as hostesses.

The Presbyterian Sunday school entertained Monday evening with a surprise party honoring Pastor and Mrs. J. L. Beatty, newlyweds. Pastor Beatty is superintendent of the Sunday school. About 110 were present and the evening was spent playing games. Mrs. E. R. Morford, Mrs. C. W. Beatty and Mrs. L. W. Coiner were in charge of the games. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty were given a pyrex casserole and silver holder by the school. One of the pleasant features of the evening was that Joe Heaton of North Dakota, grandson of Mr. Beatty, was present. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Joker club was entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. O. M. Miller. Mrs. Inez Meeks was a special guest. At a short business meeting Mrs. W. E. Lebow was elected president. A pyrex pit plate in a silver holder was given Mrs. A. W. Swanson, retiring president, in appreciation of her services. The club voted to assess each member 25 cents to be given to a student loan fund. The evening was spent playing bridge. Baskets of pussy willows were room decorations and a delicious luncheon was served.

The scholarship loan fund committee of the Tuesday Evening Study club gave a partial report on its work at the club's Tuesday evening meeting. A full report will be given at the next meeting. Other clubs of the city are assisting the committee. Mrs. J. H. Chambers and Miss Mariette Hamant reviewed the book, "Revolt of Asia," by Joseph W. Hall, who writes under the pen name of Upton Close.

Mrs. A. W. Kime entertained with a bridge party Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. L. R. Covington of Portland, who is visiting her daughter, Alma Dale Covington. At cards Mrs. Catherine Scott held high score. A dainty luncheon was served.

Smith, Mrs. Victor Chambers and Mrs. Fred Anderson were the committee in charge of arrangements. The dining table was attractively decorated in keeping with the valentine season. A potted red cyclamen in a red heart and red candles were the table centerpiece and placecards were red hearts with candles. The banquet room was decorated with red hearts. After dinner the group went to the home of Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr., where the evening was spent with cards and music. Mrs. Nelson will entertain Tuesday afternoon for the club.

Mrs. H. A. Miller entertained Tuesday afternoon for the P. L. H. club. Additional guests were Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mrs. George Jacobson, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. Charles Reider, Mrs. C. F. Hoskins, Mrs. A. W. Kime, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. C. H. Vandenberg, Mrs. J. Q. Willets, Miss Eunice Vandenberg, Miss Lula Curriu and Mrs. Glen D. Smith. A short business meeting was held and the following officers were elected: Mrs. H. A. Miller, president; Mrs. George O. Knowles, vice president; Mrs. C. E. Frost, secretary. The club voted to contribute to the student loan fund. A social afternoon was spent playing bridge and Mrs. S. V. Allison held high score. A dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Truman Clark and Mrs. W. L. Leonard were hostesses Wednesday afternoon for the Baptist ladies' aid society. The afternoon was spent with music and needlework and dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. O. W. Hays and Mrs. A. A. Richmond entertained with a 1 o'clock luncheon today at the home of Mrs. Richmond for the Utopia club. The affair was the fourth anniversary of the organization of the club. Additional guests were Mrs. Clive Taylor, Mrs. L. W. Coiner and Mrs. W. S. Averill. The luncheon table was attractive with a centerpiece of pink cyclamen and pink candles.

Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mrs. George Fullerton, Mrs. Clyde Leonard and Mrs. Earl Cone entertained Wednesday afternoon for the Methodist ladies' aid society at the home of Mrs. Umphrey. Mrs. Fullerton led devotionals. A short business meeting was held. Cards bearing information of happenings during the McKinley administration were passed out and read according to number. A dainty luncheon was served and those present found their luncheon partners by matching flags.

The Tuesday Bridge club was entertained with a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. T. Finneman. Miss Elizabeth Dunn of Aberdeen, Wash., house guest of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Prans, was an additional guest. At cards Mrs. Schofield Stewart held high score. Bouquets of daffodils were colorful room and table decorations.

The Luba brotherhood entertained Tuesday night for members and friends of the Methodist church. About 100 persons were present. A program was given and included a reading by Mrs. N. E. Compton and a one-act comedy, "How to Keep Him Home." Several volley ball games were played. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Elmer Neet was honored Tuesday night with a surprise party in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkinson of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ostrander.

A pleasant party was enjoyed Friday evening at the Herman Rudolph home west of this city. A large number were present and the evening was spent with music and cards. Delicious refreshments were served.

About a dozen members of the Christian missionary society will attend a noon luncheon to be given February 1. They will attend a missionary meeting at the Methodist church after the luncheon.

Miss Evelyn Veatch entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Joe T. Smith with a hard times party for the Toujours Prote club.

Mrs. D. T. Aubrey will entertain this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Eakin for the Social Twelve club.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sanders will entertain tonight for the Bona Tempo club.

Church News

Presbyterian Services.—"Thrills" will be the subject of the Sunday forenoon sermon of Pastor Duncan P. Cameron. He will take as his text a sentence in a recent book on psychology, "The great problem of modern times is to furnish proper thrills." The theme of the sermon will be that religion can and does meet this test. It will deal with the question of whether one gets real thrills from his religion or whether it is simply a dead mechanical thing with no exhilaration. A large choir of trained voices will sing special numbers. The church will join in the union service Sunday evening at the Methodist church.

Baptist Services.—Pastor Edwin O. Colbeck will preach Sunday forenoon on "The Second Commandment, or New Testament Truth in Old Testament Language." This is second in a series of sermons on the ten commandments. The church will join in the union service to be held Sunday evening at the Methodist church. Pastor Colbeck will be the speaker and his subject will be, "God and the Grocerman." This subject was suggested by reading Harold Bell Wright's latest novel of the same title. Sunday school will meet at 10 a. m. and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.

Christian Services.—Communion will be held Sunday forenoon and Pastor Clive Taylor will preach. The choir will sing a special anthem, "Star of Hope." The church bible school will meet at 9:45 a. m. and the Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30 p. m., at which time reports will be given on the Dr. Ira Landrith rally in Eugene. The church will join in the union service Sunday evening at the Methodist church.

Methodist Services.—Pastor John A. Linn will preach Sunday forenoon on "Fruitlessness or Fruitfulness in Christian Life, Which?" The choir will sing the anthem, "We March to Victory." A union service will be held Sunday evening. Pastor Louis C. Kirby of Dallas will preach Monday evening and each evening during the week.
