CHILD EVANGELIST OPENS SERIES MEETINGS TONIGHT

Lillian Powell, 14-year-old child evangelist, will open a series of meetings here at 7:30 tonight in the armory. Meetings will be held every night except Tuesday and Saturday at 7:30 and an additional Sunday service will be held at 2:30.

The young evangelist comes from Lodi, Cal., and has been in the northwest for two years, preaching in many of the big cities and winning friends and converts wherever she appears. She has drawn capacity crowds in many cities.

She says she was called to her work at the age of 11. She is a member of the First Baptist church of San Jose, Cal., a full gospel church, but her messages are undenominational and converts are given the choice of uniting with denomination of their choice.

The little evangelist is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. I. Powell, and little brother, Norman, who not only sings solos but also alto or tenor in duets and trios. She is also accompanied by her tutor, Miss Stella Jordan, who is also pianist.

Lion Pioneers to Play Hornets.

The Lion Pioneer basketball team will play the Hornets of Eugene tonight on the high school floor. The Hornets represent the Baptist church in the Y. M. C. A. Sunday school basketball league and are one of the strongest teams that the locals will have to face. Both teams are fairly evenly matched and tonight's encounter promises to be fast and exciting.

The Lions will play a double header basketball game with Drain high school Monday night on the local floor. The first and second teams of each will play. The Drain first team is champion of Douglas county.
