SOCIETY

The teachers of the primary department of the Presbyterian Sunday school entertained with an Easter party for the primary children Wednesday afternoon at the church. The hostesses were Mrs. C. A. Beidler, Mrs. A. W. Helliwell, Mrs. Max Bird, Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. R. L. Stewart. Forty-two children were present. The afternoon was spent with games and an Easter egg hunt. Greens and spring flowers were decorations. Refreshments of ice cream, animal cookies and candy Easter eggs were served.

Mrs. Inez Meeks entertained Tuesday afternoon for the O. L. H. club and Mrs. Clara Burkholder and Mrs. A. W. Swanson were additional guests. The afternoon was spent playing bridge and Mrs. Burkholder held high score. A dainty two-course luncheon was served. Table decorations were in keeping with Easter and a basket of Easter eggs centered each table. Mrs. W. W. McFarland will entertain for the club on Tuesday, April 17.

Mrs. W. B. Watt entertained Tuesday night for a group of friends, honoring Mrs. George Morgan of Eugene. Those present were Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. Herbert W. Lombard, Mrs. H. B. Griggs, Mrs. Inez Meeks, Mrs. George Knowles and Mrs. D. D. Roberts. The evening was spent playing bridge and Mrs. Lombard held high score and Mrs. Morgan low score. A delicious two-course luncheon was served.

The Research club held its annual election of officers Tuesday afternoon, the following being named: Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall, president; Mrs. A. W. Shofstall, vice president, and Mrs. W. J. White, secretary-treasurer. The club voted to make a contribution to the Doernbecher children's hospital in Portland. Mrs. H. H. Fuller and Mrs. Henry Preger were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Fred Brown, Mrs. Lucy Bennett, Mrs. J. H. Bennett and Mrs. Charles Brown were hostesses Wednesday afternoon for the meeting of the Christian ladies' aid society. Twenty-three members were present. Reports were given on the redecoration of the church auditorium just completed. A dainty Easter lunch was served and candy flowers and rabbits were decorations.

The Pythian Sisters exemplified initiatory work for Dr. A. W. Kime at their Wednesday night meeting. After the initiation and a business hour a dainty lunch was served. The hostesses were Mrs. June Bird, Mrs. Lois Wicks and Miss Ramona Moore. Table decorations were daffodils and greens in keeping with the Easter season.

The grade school teachers association held a banquet Monday evening at Hotel Bartell and members of the ministerial association and their wives were guests. Covers were laid for 28. Pastors Clive Taylor, John A. Linn and Edwin O. Colbeck gave short speeches. Wild flowers and Oregon grape were decorations.

The Tuesday Evening Study club continued its study of American painters at its Tuesday evening meeting in the library. Mrs. Omer Moore gave a report on the life of James Abbott McNeill Whistler. Mrs. Elbert Smith told of his paintings, the subject of which is "Mother."

Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mrs. Albert Woodard and Mrs. J. H. Chambers were hostesses Wednesday afternoon for the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church. Incense gifts in celebration of the fifty-ninth anniversary of the organization of the society were turned in.

The Tuesday Bridge club was entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Stewart. Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Huxley Kern were additional guests. At bridge Mrs. W. H. Daugherty held high score. Bouquets of spring flowers were decorations.

The women's missionary society of the Christian church will meet Wednesday afternoon, April 11, at the home of Mrs. Fred Brown.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges will entertain Friday evening for the local Masonic lodge and Eastern Star chapter.

The Elmarites club will be entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Merville Veatch.

The Mothers' club will be entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. A. Randall.

Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Homer Galloway, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Mrs. E. C. Shay, Mrs. Rosa Currin and Mrs. O. W. Blackmore will be hostesses Wednesday afternoon, April 11, in the church parlors for the Presbyterian ladies' aid society.

The Tillamook club was entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen, with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ostrander and Mr. and Mrs. McQueen as hosts. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkins of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neet. The evening was spent playing five hundred and Mrs. Charles Stevens held high score. Easter eggs with chickens breaking through the shells were table markers. Dainty refreshments were served. The club will hold its next meeting on April 18 with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vandenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Childs entertained with a dinner Tuesday night at the Barker home. The occasion was the belated celebration of the wedding anniversaries and birthday anniversaries of the hosts and hostesses which were events of February. Those present were S. W. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Irl Groves, Miss Echo Zyssett and Frank Galdabina. The evening was spent playing cards.

Mrs. J. W. Craig entertained Tuesday afternoon for a group of children, honoring her little daughter Mary on her tenth anniversary. The afternoon was spent playing games. Mrs. William Morelock assisted with the entertaining. Delicious refreshments were served and Miss Esther Silsby cut the birthday cake. The table was attractive with Easter decorations.

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian church held its monthly social meeting Tuesday evening. Hostesses were Miss Stella Adams, Mrs. R. Currin, Mrs. James Porter and Mrs. J. W. Craig. Twenty-two members were present. A business session was led by Mrs. Wyatt. An evening of contests followed. The tables were attractive with Easter eggs and flowers.

The Joker club will be entertained Monday night at the home of Mrs. T. C. Wheeler.

Churches of City Have Arranged Easter Music

Special musical programs and services have been arranged by churches of the city for Easter Sunday. The Methodist church and the Christian church will each give a cantata Sunday evening and the Baptist church will present a pageant and special Easter music the same evening. The Presbyterian church will feature special Easter music at both its Easter Sunday services.

At the Christian church Pastor Clive Taylor will have as his subject at the forenoon service, "The Risen Life."

At the Presbyterian church Pastor Duncan P. Cameron will preach Sunday forenoon on "What and Where Is Heaven?" and Sunday evening on "How Shall We Escape?"

At the Baptist church Pastor Colbeck will preach Sunday forenoon on "It Is Christ That Died, Yet Rather Is Risen Again."

A special Easter program will be held by the Methodist Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. At the forenoon service Pastor John A. Linn will preach on "After Death, What?"

Day after day it becomes more apparent that the unrivaled popularity of the Bigger and Better Chevrolet is due to its basic elements of superiority.

And the greatest factor of all is the effortless driving it provides. It steers with the weight of the hand—for the worm and gear steering mechanism is fitted with ball bearings throughout... even at the front axle knuckles. The clutch is velvety smooth in action and the gear-shift lever responds to the lightest touch. Acceleration is swift and certain, while big non-locking four-wheel brakes assure perfect control under every condition of highway and traffic.

You'll never know what a great car it is until you sit at the wheel and drive! So come in today for a demonstration!
