

I Want Your Pressing for that reason I have reduced the price

SUITS PRESSED 50c
CLEANED AND PRESSED $1.25

Yours for Service

MAX SCHWARTZ

The tailor that is a tailor.
Phone 240

City Briefs

Miss Lorraine Colner underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils last Saturday. Dr. Harold Axley performed the operation.

The baby daughter of Harry Castle suffered a fractured left leg June 6 when her sister fell with her.

For a limited time only. Special price on best quality rubber heels put on 40 cents pair. Cochran shoe shop.

Mrs. A. Duellitt has returned from a visit in Central Point.

Mrs. Augusta McCormick, a former resident, is in the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford receiving treatments for asthma.

Would like to see my old customers and new ones at 145 south Sixth street for corsets, corselets and garter belts. Mrs. E. Atkinson, phone 1177.

Miss Naomi Hoskins is expected to return this week from Portland, where she taught in Franklin high school.

S. E. Dresser, who lived on south Second street, has moved to a place out from Creswell.

Oregon Fire Relief—34 yrs. old, successful, an Oregon Co. wants your business and can save you money. How about buying at home anyway. Atrest Agency, 1st Nat. Bldg.

Mrs. Joe McKibben and her mother, Mrs. Moe Henry, motored to Portland Tuesday to attend commencement exercises in the Portland schools. They expect to be away two weeks. Mrs. McKibben's niece, Lillian Keppel, is being graduated from Grant high school and a nephew, Billie Keppel, from the Laurelhurst grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Reedy of San Francisco visited Wednesday and Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Preger. Mrs. Reedy is a sister of Mr. Preger.

Better have it and not need it than need it and not have it. INSURANCE—Auto, Fire, Life. Atrest Agency, 1st Nat. Bldg. m10f

Omar Hoskins returned last week from Eugene, where he attended University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis and children, Carolyn and Bobby, returned Monday evening from Winchester bay, where they spent several days.

Mrs. O. H. Wheeler and children plan to leave June 17 for Florence, where they will make their home.

Vinal T. Randall, Elbert Smith, Elbert Beale, Dale Wyatt and J. R. Griffith are attending the session of Masonic grand lodge being held in Portland.

Mrs. C. A. Bartlett is on a week's motor tour into California with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller of Grants Pass. The Millers were here Friday and Mrs. Bartlett accompanied them south from here.

Mrs. A. F. Flowers was taken to held Saturday in Eugene.

Miss Irene Griggs, student at Oregon Agricultural college, returned home last week to spend summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Griggs.

James Redford, who had been taking treatments in Salem, returned home last week and is much improved in health.

Curtis Vench of Halsey was here over the week end to look after his farm west of this city. The residence on the place caught fire last week from a defective flue and a large hole was burned in the roof.

Mrs. Roy Romane and daughter Betty of Portland arrived here Monday to attend the Kime-Wheel wedding. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Romane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime. Miss Geneva Kime, who is taking nurses' training in a Portland hospital, will arrive Saturday.

Mrs. W. E. France, who had been a guest at the home of her brother, Dr. H. A. Hagen, returned Tuesday to her home in Spokane, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon of Princeton visited the fore part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Owen. Mrs. McKinnon and Mr. Owen are cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor of Gresham were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. William Baker. The group formerly were neighbors in an Idaho town.

Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall returned Sunday from a trip north. Accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. G. E. York of Eugene, Mrs. Mendenhall spent several days at the beach resorts between Newport and Seaside. The trip was made by motor over the Roosevelt highway.

Mrs. Mendenhall also spent a day in Portland.

Mrs. W. Leonard and daughters are spending the week in Oakland, visiting at the home of Mrs. Leonard's parents.

J. H. Chambers, Victor Chambers, John Woodard, LaSells Stewart and several others from this city attended a lumbermen's meeting in Eugene Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morris of Klamath Falls arrived here Sunday for a visit at the home of Mr. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nokes and Mrs. Erma Whipp returned home Monday from Portland, where they visited several days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swartz of North Dakota are guests at the home of Mr. Swartz's brother, Harold Swartz.

The Nelson Motor company sold the following cars during the week: Whippet coach to Paul E. Snell of Drain, Whippet sedan to R. F. Roberts of Yoncalla and a Willys-Knight sedan to Ernest Sears of Delight Valley.

Mrs. George Matthews and Miss Mariette Hamant went to Portland Monday to attend the O. E. S. grand chapter sessions. They will act as delegates from the local chapter.

Glen Hankins of Tiffin, O., is spending a few days in the city. He is a former Cottage Grove resident and was graduated from the local high school several years ago. He now manages a J. C. Penney company store in the eastern city.

Len Culver went to Ashland Monday to attend the graduating exercises of the state normal school. His wife is a member of the graduating class.

Mrs. J. H. Spahr made a business trip to Portland early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Caldwell of Elmira were guests Tuesday at the Oregon Electrical convention

Monday. His son and daughter, who have been attending the state normal there, will return home with him.

Fancho Stubblefield of Pendleton was a visitor here the fore part of the week. His daughters, Jean and June, returned to eastern Oregon with him and will spend the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Chilson of Portland were week-end visitors at the home of their son, B. F. Chilson.

Sam Cappius is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cappius. He was recently graduated from the normal school at Dillona. Mrs. Cappius plans to return to Montana in the fall to teach school.

Strawberries—Pick them yourself for $1 per crate. Bring your own containers. S. C. Swanson, 4 1/2 miles west of Cottage Grove on Lorane road.

H. H. Harvey and Mrs. Sylvia Halley of Medford were week-end guests at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Harvey, and their brother, Worth Harvey.

Mrs. R. H. Wilkinson has returned home from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Bunge, who resides near Santa Ana, Calif.

The O. W. Hays family spent several days last week in Portland. They also visited in Newberg with Mrs. Hays' father and sister. The latter was a member of this year's graduating class of the Newberg high school.

A son was born June 6 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Matthews of Portland. Mr. Matthews is a former cottage Grove resident and a brother of George Matthews.

Herbert Eakin returned home Monday from a trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. Eakin and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Woodson, who accompanied him, remained in Portland to attend the rose festival and visit friends.

Mrs. Adrian Kierman, another member of the party, remained in Seattle to attend the University of Washington graduating exercises, at which her son, John Wynne Kierman, will receive his degree.

Strawberries—Pick them yourself for $1 per crate. Bring your own containers. S. C. Swanson, 4 1/2 miles west of Cottage Grove on Lorane road.

The James Barnes family of Iowa City, Ia., have purchased and are occupying the J. M. Morgan and Bud Noble ranch at Latham.

Mr. Morgan and Mr. Noble are now employed at the S. P. tie plant in Eugene. The property sale was handled through the Hall & Johnston Realty company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynch attended the commencement exercises of the state normal school at Ashland last week. Miss Eldora Damewood, sister of Mrs. Lynch, was a member of the graduating class.

Mrs. James Martin and children of Grass Valley visited last week with Mrs. Martin's niece, Mrs. Hylah Laffoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Farmer of Los Angeles left Saturday for their home after a several days' visit here with their nephew, Louis Farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly, who brought the body of their infant daughter here recently for interment at Dorena, returned last week to their home in Los Angeles. They were guests during their stay at the home of Mrs. Kelly's mother, Mrs. Spahr.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilman Hobson of Pasadena, Cal., were guests last week at the home of their niece, Mrs. H. O. Bennett. The visiting couple are evangelists and plan to hold meetings in a number of Oregon cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Griffith of Watsonville, Cal., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Allison. Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Allison are sisters.

Mrs. John Vench and daughter Sylvia made a motor trip to Bend last week. Miss Sylvia teaches during the school year in Bend.

A. L. Chaffee, who lives on the old Row river road, killed a rattlesnake a few days ago. The rattlesnake was found at the foot of Cerro Gordo and measured 31 inches in length and carried eight rattles.

A number of these snakes are found in that vicinity although they are not as numerous as in the olden days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Houser of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Llewellyn of Albany spent several days of last week at Bandon and Coquille.

Miss Millicent Burrows returned Wednesday evening from Ashland, where she attended the southern Oregon normal school. Her mother, Mrs. A. E. Burrows, and sister Jennie went to Ashland and returned with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Monroe and family returned Wednesday night from Ashland, where they attended the commencement exercises at the southern Oregon normal school. Miss Pearl Monroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe, was one of the graduates and returned with them.

A marriage license was issued Wednesday to Raymond Davis of Lorane and Helen Lower of Cottage Grove.

Henry Whitlock is in Portland this week visiting with relatives and attending the Rose festival.

William Higgins and Ben Curry, veteran miners, left Monday for the Blue river country, where they will look over mining conditions.

D. C. Carmel of Bend has been a guest at the J. W. Craig home for a few days. The two families were former neighbors in Canada.

Robert Malcolm and H. B. Her have moved their barber shop into the Central hotel building. The shop's name has been changed to the Central barber shop. It formerly was the Bridge barber shop and was located near the bridge on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bartels and son Billie and Lynn Walker motored to Portland Sunday to attend the league baseball game played there. The men returned home that evening and Mrs. Bartels and Billie remained to attend the Rose festival. They are guests of Mrs. Bartels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Middleton returned to their homes in Aberdeen the latter part of the week, after being here a few days on business.

Pastor and Mrs. Clive Taylor and daughter Kathleen returned Monday from Seattle, where they had been spending a part of their vacation. They left later for Newport to be gone several days.

The Royal Neighbors will hold a cooked food sale Saturday at the Quality meat market.

Rube Morris made a business trip to Portland Wednesday. He is expected to return the last of the week.

Schofield Stewart was in Eugene Monday night attending a meeting of the Master Plumbers' association.

Marion and Delmas Richmond returned home Sunday from Eugene, where they had been attending the University of Oregon. They underwent tonsil operations Saturday and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Richmond, went to Eugene to bring them home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lemley and Gertrude and Melba Cochran attended a picnic at Pleasant Hill Saturday.

A baptismal service was held Saturday by the Seventh Day Adventist congregation near the swinging bridge on the Coast fork. Six persons were baptized. T. B. Westbrook and Elder Fisher were in charge of the services.

Chief Pharmacist Mate William Zuiderdeld of the United States navy recruiting service is in the city this week signing up naval recruits.

Bert Cochran has moved his shoe repair shop from his former location in the Harry Kettle bicycle shop to the room near the Main street bridge recently vacated by the Bridge barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arnes and son Cecil of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Norval Arnes, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Arnes and Mrs. and Mrs. E. E. Griswold and family, all of Eugene, and Mrs. Alice Richmond of Wooster, O., mother of Mrs. Arnes and Mrs. Griswold, held a picnic at Winchester bay Sunday.

Sam Jones of Los Angeles arrived last week and is visiting at the home of his niece, Mrs. Fred Beidler. He went to Portland Wednesday to attend the Rose festival.

Ross Sharp of Portland is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Walker. He is a former resident of Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hills of Oakridge are visiting for a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. LaSells Stewart.

Miss Ruby Lindamood of Portland is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lindamood.

Earl Hollingsworth, who arrived recently from Los Angeles, has rented the Harrington house on Cherry court.

The Free Methodists closed a series of meetings Sunday night at the Methodist camp grounds on east Main street. The meetings proved so successful that it is planned to hold another session here next year. While the meetings were in progress about $2000 was raised for various church purposes. The use of the grounds was donated by the Methodist church board.

Mrs. Elizabeth Norfleet returned to her home in Long Beach, Cal., Saturday after visiting with her sister, Mrs. Albert Stocks, and brother, James Redford. Mr. and Mrs. Redford accompanied her and will visit for a time in the south.

Mike, Keckelbeck suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Saturday while mowing Dr. C. E. Frost's lawn. He was stricken suddenly but is reported as almost recovered now.

Ray Engles, forest ranger in this district, was a business visitor here this week. He reports the road work above Disston is moving ahead satisfactorily. Nine men are employed and have completed the work as far as Lundpark. They will continue the work up Champion creek road and later return to the Disston section to cut down several points on the road in that vicinity.

Mrs. B. H. Evans of McMinnville is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sherman and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hands motored to Salem Friday to attend the funeral of Mr. Sherman's uncle, A. F. Tredway. They returned home Saturday.

Miss Agnes Taylor, who has been attending the state normal school at Ashland, returned home Tuesday to spend the summer vacation.

The local store force of the J. C. Penney company attended a lecture in Eugene Tuesday night. G. H. Crocker of Cortland, N. Y., was the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Caldwell of Santa Ana, Cal., were guests Tuesday at the Charles Caldwell home.

Harry Culver has gone to Condon on business and will visit other eastern Oregon cities.

H. D. Bolton of the Bolton, Horning & Ishmael logging company on the Lorane highway was injured while at work in the woods Monday. A log rolled over his left leg, fracturing both bones. Dr. Harold Axley set the broken bones and later the injured man was removed to his home west of this city.

Miss Matilda Jones of Stayton is the house guest of Mrs. Orpah Benson. Miss Jones has charge of the commercial department in the Redmond high school and is a former schoolmate of Mrs. Benson.

Mrs. Ernest Redford left Tuesday for Goldendale, Wash., where she will visit her mother, Mrs. Smith.

P. C. LaCasse Dies.

P. C. LaCasse, who had been in poor health for some time, died suddenly today at his home on Twelfth street. He had been in business here for a number of years. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Surviving relatives are the widow, two daughters, Adelaide and Zelpha, both of this city, and a son, N. E. LaCasse, Seattle. The son is expected to arrive tonight.

Mrs. Nellie Burdick Dies.

Mrs. Nellie Burdick, wife of Frank F. Burdick, died at 7 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Ellsworth, on south First street. She was born 70 years ago in Iowa. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 Saturday afternoon at the Mills chapel and Pastor Duncan P. Cameron of the Presbyterian church will officiate. Interment will be in the A. F. & A. M. T. O. O. F. cemetery.

Pulmotor Is Available.

With the opening of the swimming season attention is called to the fact that the city owns a pulmotor which is available for general use of the public. It was purchased two years ago by the Lions club and turned over to the city. The machine is kept at the Bartlett hotel, where it is accessible at any hour of the day or night. While most of the children of Cottage Grove are good swimmers, it is believed well to have the pulmotor in case of emergency.

Cameron Passes M. A. Degree.

Duncan P. Cameron, who has been taking several courses in the graduate school at University of Oregon toward his master of arts degree, received word Wednesday that he had successfully passed his oral examination. He was given a three-hour oral examination by a board of five professors. He is majoring in history and minoring in psychology. He is writing his master's thesis on "The Influence of Stoicism on Christianity."

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during the recent illness and death of Mrs. R. Piper. Especially do we thank those who sent floral offerings.

MISS MIRIAM PIPER,
ANDREW NELSON,
MR. AND MRS. RAY NELSON,
A. C. PIPER,
BERNARD PIPER,
LAWRENCE PIPER

LON CHANEY in
THE BIG CITY

My dear! Last night I cooked some cold veal with cream, saute and mushrooms and John said: "this chicken is great"

One Friend Tells Another

"If you want the best veal, go to the Quality Market."

QUALITY MARKET

Anderson & Morris, Props.

Free City Delivery
Phone 46

ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER

LOOK!
Stop Wasting Food
ICE
is not a luxury
it is a necessity.
Also
See our new refrigerators at cost
price.
Cottage Grove
Ice Works
Phone 255

Whippets and Willys-Knights Are Selling Fast

We Have Sold Since June 1st Four Whippets and Two Willys-Knights

This adds six more satisfied customers to the many we now have.

You can be one of these happy owners if you trade us your old car.

WE HAVE THE FOLLOWING USED CAR BARGAINS ON HAND.

1924 W.-K. coupe sedan	$480
1925 Overland coach	$350
1924 Overland sedan	$350
1927 Ford tudor sedan	$375
1926 Ford roadster	$265
1924 Ford touring, Ruxtel	$150
1925 Ford coupe	$265
1926 Essex coach	$350
1926 Overland six coach	$425
1924 Overland screen delivery	$240

Many other good buys. See us first.

Nelson Motor Co.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY SPECIALS

By Cottage Grove's Own Merchants

No. 2 1/2 broken slice pineapple 22c
1 lb. 40c cookies 25c
10-lb. sack flour 39c
Candy bars (your choice) 3 for 10c
3-oz. red jar rings (double lip) 19c
1 oz. large jelly glasses 48c

Smith-Short Grocery

Package Swansdown cake flour 33c
3 cans corn 33c
Regular 30c candy, lb. 15c
Pound coffee, special 29c
Gallon corn syrup 79c
Package Citrus granulated soap, pkg. 37c

Umpfrey & Mackin

Regular 25c Perfection silver polish 15c
4 lb. Swift's pure Silver leaf lard 69c
Regular 10c toilet soap 5c
Kellogg's corn flakes (limit) 6c
15c package Dromedary coconut 11c
Pound can Butter Ball cookies, regular 40c for 24c

Leonard & Son

Regular $1.50 5 gal. oil can 98c
Regular 15c Babbitt's lye 9c
Regular 10c Babbitt's cleanser 6c
Regular 25c washing powder 18c
Regular 30c nut butter 23c
1/2 gal can honey 73c

McQueen Grocery

Dozen quart Mason jars 89c
Puritan malt 58c
Medium can Van Camp pork and beans 10c
3 rolls toilet paper 17c
3 bars Palm Olive soap 21c
Pound Maxwell House coffee 45c

Economy Feed Store

C. A. BEIDLER

Foulds macaroni, three 15c pkgs. for 34c
V. C. medium size red kidney beans, 3 31c
5-lb. dried prunes 33c
40c Bishop's chocolate 34c
3 cans Festival clams 66c
15c Del Monte prepared mustard 10c

Safley & Gidney

CANNING TIME

We are now in the canning season. The above merchants have agreed to sell fruits and vegetables this season on a very small margin, but at the same time pay the producer a reasonable price for their produce.

WE MUST ALL WORK TOGETHER TO MAKE A GOOD COMMUNITY