Kime-Wheeler. One of the most attractive weddings of the year was that of Miss Theima Wheeler and Dr. Claude H. Kime which was solemnized at 2 o'clock Sunday at the Christian church. Rev. Clive Taylor read the beautiful ring service. The church was filled with the many friends of the bride and groom. The wedding party was grouped before the background representing a garden fence and gate covered with rambler roses. From an arch overhead hung a large wedding bell decorated with pink and white roses. The brides were attractive with baskets of roses and ferns and garlands and roses were grouped about the pulpit. The bride was attractively gowned in pink crepe with plain trimming and wore a wedding veil of white silk net wedged with old lace. The veil was one worn by Mrs. Roy Romaine, sister of the groom, at her wedding. The bride wore her veil in a cap shape looped at the sides. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, white sweetpeas and ferns. Miss Geneva Kime, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and wore a frock of orchid georgette with a large picture hat of the same shade and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas in pastel shades. Chester Wheeler, brother of the bride, was best man. Little Betty Romaine in a peach colored dress and little Geraldine Kem in a green colored dress were flower girls. The bride was given in marriage by her father, W. L. Wheeler. Preceding the ceremony

No More Gas In Stomach and Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in stomach and bowels, take Baalman's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach gas and all the bad effects resulting from gas pressure. That empty, gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach will disappear; that anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath without discomfort. That drowsy, sleepy feeling after dinner will be replaced by a desire for entertainment. Bloating will cease. Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Baalman's Gas Tablets prevent gas from interfering with the circulation. Get the genuine, in the yellow package, at any good drug store. Price $1.

Haldeman-Davis. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Christian church in Carlton at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Ruth Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Davis of Carlton, became the bride of William Haldeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Haldeman of Cottage Grove. Rev. Clive Taylor, pastor of the Cottage Grove Christian church, read the marriage service. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Cash Davis. Miss Rose Haldeman, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Ray Haldeman, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Clive Taylor sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony and Miss Glenda Ross played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was beautifully gowned in white georgette and lace with an attractive embroidered tulle veil held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of budding roses and lilies. The bridesmaid wore a frock of orchid flat erpe and carried a shower bouquet. Church decorations were baskets of rambler roses, snapdragons and lilies. The young couple received many useful and beautiful gifts. The bride has been teaching in the Cottage Grove city schools for the past three years. After spending a few days in the Rainier national park, Mr. and Mrs. Haldeman will be at home in the Omer apartments in this city.

The women's missionary society of the Christian church held its regular meeting June 13 in the church parlors. Mrs. D. T. Ashby was in charge of the meeting and led devotionals. The subject for study was "Making World Citizens." The following program was given: Scripture reading; talk on "Making World Citizens," Mrs. Ada Oakes; vocal duet, Mrs. William Watson and Mrs. Small; reading, "The Builders," Mrs. Fred

Brown; "Christian Homes in Africa," Mrs. Madden; "Christian Homes in the Philippines," Mrs. Small; "Influence of Missionary Homes in Japan," Mrs. Charles Brown; reading with music, "That Sweet Story of Old," Mrs. Lois Williams. At a business meeting officers for the new year were installed. Mrs. Clive Taylor was elected delegate to attend the convention at Turner on July 4. At the close of the program and business meeting ice cream and cake were served and a social time followed. Thirty-one were present and visitors were Mrs. Allen and daughter, Mrs. Belle Taylor, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Herbert Mason, Mrs. Massey, Mrs. Lacey, Mrs. Huff, Mrs. Oliver Jones, Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. Gowing and Miss Margery Small.

The Social Twelve club was entertained last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Miller. The occasion being "Flag Day," the reception hall and living room were gaily decorated with flags and profusion of summer flowers. The luncheon table decoration carried out the same scheme. The table was centered with a large bowl of red, white and blue blossoms. A small flag was placed at each cover together with an appropriate corsage bouquet. An interesting program was given and consisted of the reading of papers, the "would be" presidents' wives. A lively discussion followed. Plans were discussed for the annual guest day to be given on June 23 at the home of Mrs. C. F. Hoskins for members of the federated clubs of the city. A dainty luncheon was served.

The Presbyterian missionary society will be entertained Wednesday afternoon, June 27, at the home of Mrs. Cad Ellis east of this city. Cars will be at the church at 2 o'clock for those who have no means of transportation. Miss Myrtle Kem, Miss Lula Currin, Miss Esther Silsby and Mrs. William Thum were hostesses to the Jokers club at an outing Friday afternoon at Boswell Springs hotel, south of Drain. Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. James P. Graham, Mrs. O. M. Kem, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. O. W. Hays, Mrs. Inez Meeks and Mrs. George Knowles were special guests. Members and their guests gathered at 4 o'clock in the hotel auditorium where a cozy fire was burning in the fireplace and played bridge for an hour, after which they visited the swimming tank, mineral springs and surrounding grounds. At 7 o'clock a four-course dinner was served at a long table decorated with wild flowers. Between courses old songs were sung. The evening was spent playing bridge and Mrs. H. A. Miller held high score.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fahrenwald held a picnic June 13 at her home south of this city in honor of the birthday anniversary of her house guest, Mrs. Regina Bohm of Portland. Annual Camp Meeting Dates Are July 19 to 29

Plans are being rapidly completed for the annual Methodist camp meeting which this year will be held July 19 to 29. The tabernacle and camp grounds will be in readiness some time before the date set for the opening. The camp meeting officials, with permission of the Methodist state conference, have set aside Sunday, June 24, as Methodist camp meeting day and on that day the passing of every Methodist church in the state will announce the dates for the camp meeting and urge members to attend. Each pastor will recite the history and aims of the camp meeting and a special collection will be taken for camp ground improvements. A number of collections already have been taken ranging in amount from $3 to $20.

It is definitely known that Bishop Titus Lowell, recently transferred from India to the northwest conference to take the place of Bishop Shepard, who has been transferred to Paris, France, will be here for a part of camp meeting. Other workers will be announced soon.

Columbia and Maids From Here. The American Legion post here has been requested by the Eugene post to select Columbia and her four maids for a float in the Fourth of July parade at Eugene. The drum corps from here will be in the parade and it is probable that a boy scout troop may participate.

Last Thursday afternoon for the Ad Libitum club. Additional guests were Mrs. B. H. Evans of McMinnville, Mrs. C. E. Umphrey and Mrs. W. S. Averill. A pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed and a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Roses were decorations.

Mrs. Harold Axley entertained Tuesday afternoon for the M. E. G. club for its last meeting of the season. A social afternoon was spent on the lawn. A dainty two-course luncheon was served. Sweetpeas and eandy tuft were table decorations and baskets of yellow daisies and delphiniums were room decorations.

The Latham Community club at its last meeting voted to disband for the summer. The club will hold its first meeting in the fall on the first Friday in October at the home of Mrs. Roy Fry.

Mrs. Harold Whitlock entertained Friday afternoon with a surprise party honoring her sister, Miss Eunice Meranda, on her thirtieth birthday anniversary. Guests were Florine Strausen, Eileen and Ellen Town, Mahel Blackmore, Lucile Stoneburg, Marie Cooley and Junita Morris. The afternoon was spent playing games. Ice cream and cake were served. Sweetpeas and roses were room decorations. The honor guest received many attractive gifts.

Now it's easy to vary menus and give meals added zest GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator The modern homemaker who has a General Electric Refrigerator has found to her surprise that it's just as easy to make a luscious mousse as it used to be to make an uninteresting rice pudding! She finds that an aspic is a welcome change from soup—and less fuss to prepare. In a word, the drudgery of planning menus is now spiced with the thrill of developing new surprises. Left-overs come back to the table in unsuspected disguises. And even ordinary salads and fruits become crisper, better-flavored when they are thoroughly chilled. As for the refrigerator itself—it is quiet, absolutely sanitary, easy to keep clean (the up-on-legs models make it so simple to mop the floor underneath). All its mechanism is safely enclosed in one hermetically sealed steel casing. You should study the various models—from a point of view of their revolutionary design as well as the conveniences they have to offer you. Time payments may be arranged if desired. As a special introductory offer, we will install the General Electric Refrigerator of your choice, for only $10.00 down; the balance may be paid in 6 year and a half. MOUNTAIN STATES POWER COMPANY
