Tested Recipe

Corn Muffin-Fritters

These are quicker to cook than fritters and are delicious with meat and country gravy, or around a platter of chicken fricassee. Makes 12.

- 1 can corn
- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoons melted Wild Rose Lard
- 1 cup flour
- 1 level teaspoon baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon sugar

Beat eggs with corn, add lard, add dry ingredients sifted together, pour into hot greased muffin tins and put in medium oven. Let rise slowly and evenly, bake 15 to 20 minutes.

WILD ROSE BRAND PURE LARD is the ideal fat for frying and shortening because it is not an imitation. Made fresh daily from choicest leaf lard and back fats under most sanitary conditions—makes good food taste better, because it is genuine.

Made by Frye & Co., Seattle, Under U. S. Govt. Inspection. Sold by leading dealers.
