

Creswell News Notes

(Mrs. C. I. Kent, correspondent and representative for advertising, printing and office supplies.)

Mrs. Roy Miller was bitten in several places on her right arm Saturday afternoon by a dog which had just been run over by an automobile on the highway. A local physician immediately cared for the wounds.

Mr. and Mrs. John Look are moving to Springfield this week in order to be near their son Fred. Dr. H. A. Wheeler occupied the pulpit at the union service at the Methodist church Sunday evening and gave an educational heart to heart talk. A union choir led the singing. C. E. Cooley and Mrs. C. I. Kent sang a duet, "In the Garden."

Mrs. R. E. Wright, Miss Hazel Brown and Mrs. Lloyd Brown entertained Wednesday afternoon of last week at the Wright home at a pre-nuptial affair for Miss Lois Jackson of Saginaw. A useful recipient box was prepared during the afternoon and many beautiful gifts were presented to the honor guest. Refreshments of ice cream, wafers and coffee were served. Those present were Mrs. Charles Connor, Mrs. J. Joll, Mrs. Oscar Jackson, Mrs. Lee Nixon, Mrs. Ernest Sears, Mrs. Elmer Kent, Mrs. L. Brown, Mrs. Lowell Benston, Mrs. F. L. Benston, Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. Bert Jackson, Mrs. Hugh Nippon and daughters, Mrs. Aden Miller, Mrs. Clyde Wright, Mrs. Melvin Jackson, Mrs. Boush Bailey, Mrs. Hazel Chapman, Mrs. Mary Smith, Miss Agnes Jackson, Miss Marie Nippon, Miss Helen Montith, Mrs. Fred Kinsland, Mrs. Lloyd Brown, Miss Hazel Brown and Mrs. R. E. Wright.

Members of the grange met at the hall for play practice as part of an entertainment which will be given some time during this month. Mrs. David Francis, lecturer, has charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Land and son Harold visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. William Land of MacRedie springs, returning Sunday.

Mrs. Kittie Hayward has closed her dressmaking and millinery apartments and has gone to the McKenzie River sanatorium, where she has employment.

Miss Julia Pohl arrived home Friday from Yakima, where she is engaged in packing fruit. She will return to work this week.

The Standard Bazaar of the Methodist church will meet Saturday afternoon with the leader, Mrs. Emma Fuller. Officers for the new church year will be elected.

Miss Shirley Drew of Donna and Miss Mahala Rockwell of Eugene returned to their homes Sunday, after spending last week with Miss Drew's aunt, Mrs. W. W. Parsons.

J. E. Woodson of the Oregon Motor company returned Saturday from Portland with a tudor Ford sedan for Miss Genevieve Thompson. His mother, Mrs. C. R. Woodson, who had been visiting relatives in Texas, accompanied him home from Portland.

Mrs. Roy Miller, Miss Mary Miller and Miss Elizabeth Sedgewick were hostesses Friday evening at the Miller home at a pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Helen McGee. It was a reunion of friends of high school days. Dainty refreshments were served from a table attractive with flowers and clever place cards. A large white bell showered gifts for the honor guest. Those present were Mildred Robinson, Leona Land, Esther Taylor, Mrs. William McGee, Laura Tennis, Vera Gwyther, Verla Bank, Elizabeth Sedgewick, Mrs. Miller, Mary Miller, Nadine Miller, Nieta Zinkler, Helen McGee, all of Creswell, Mrs. Virgil Gowdy of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Girard De Brokert of Eugene.

Mrs. J. Kirkham and Leslie Kirkham returned Saturday from a trip to Seattle, where they visited relatives for a week.

R. D. Hawley of Boise, Ida., returned to Creswell Friday, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Hazel DeMeyre, and her son Arlow. They are guests at the Ralph Stone home.

The Methodist church choir met Tuesday evening at the C. I. Kent home. Special music was prepared for next Sunday's service and a social time was enjoyed.

A meeting of the shareholders of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company was held Monday afternoon. A proposal to levy a tax on each shareholder for the purpose of purchasing a new switchboard was acted upon favorably. R. F. Scott, president, ordered the repairs at once. It is believed that a much improved service will result.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Helen McGee and Robert J. Perrie, which will take place Wednesday evening, September 19, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGee. Miss McGee is a member of the 1927 graduating class of the Creswell high school and one of the popular young women of Creswell.

Nie Dermenich, a recent arrival, has purchased a farm west of Creswell and is putting up a new house as a permanent improvement on the place. Bond and McGee, also new people in this vicinity, have engaged in the chicken business and are building two chicken houses and five brooder houses on their place west of town. J. M. Walkup, local lumber dealer, is furnishing the lumber.

A. Benton and son brought their Holstein cattle home from the county fair grounds the first of the week. They made a clean sweep of prizes in stock of that breed. They plan to exhibit at the Linn county fair, the state fair and the Pacific International stock show in Portland.

The seventieth anniversary of the Rebekah fraternity will be celebrated at the Odd Fellows hall Wednesday evening, September 19. The Presbyterian choir met Tuesday evening at the S. G. Gregor home.

Harold Lloyd Coming In Rich College Film

Harold Lloyd plays a rich boy, and a very green one at that, in "The Freshman," which will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday at the Arcade. In Lloyd's entire career before the camera this is the first time he has ever been a collegian. Harold Lamb, the hero's name, learns the ropes and rides the humps in his first year when a freshman he seeks to capture all popularity honors and succeeds only in winning the lousy prize.

Nearly a score of the foremost universities of the country were represented by football players in the game shown in "The Freshman" and more than 300 students from University of Southern California appear in the scenes at the frolic.

The action covers the hero's arrival and reception at Tate college, his love for pretty Puggy, the only one in town who is not laughing up his sleeve at the little Lamb, his predicament at a ball at which he wears a basted tuxedo, his efforts to make the football team and the big game in which the college's football reputation hangs perilously in the balance.

MEN!—Attention!

SPECIAL PURCHASE BY BREIER OF

10,000 NEW FALL SUITS

GOING ON SALE DURING ONE MAMMOTH

SUIT WEEK

We take this occasion to make mention at this time of our high class line of suits—in addition to our now far famed $19.75 suit line.

—these have a custom-tailored look

—these are made from fabrics that are the finest weaves

—these are all virgin-wool

—these are skilfully hand-tailored.

Styles that suit the easy-to-fit, and the hard-to-fit. We put in this better suit line to take care of the needs of men who normally pay up to $40 for their suits. The best tailors were chosen to make these to our own specifications—and now they are here the finest you'll find anywhere for $24.75

Men accustomed to paying ordinarily up to $30 for their suits become our regular customers for these $19.75 suits, because these suits are emphatically the finest type of suits found anywhere at this low price of $19.75

This mammoth purchase includes many heavy-weight conservative style blue and grey serges, as well as new novelty patterns for fall, which are the darker colors that have come into vogue. Dark stripes predominate, the peak and round lapels are both in good style, and fullness remains in the trousers, while the shoulder lines are somewhat modified.

Since our regular $19.75 line of suits have become the standard of value in the west, what must these suits that were not up to sell at $19.75 (but were made to sell from $30 to $40) be worth at this low price!

We have thrown these new high-priced suits into our regular $19.75 line during this week, and we urge every man that has even the most remote idea of purchasing a suit, to seriously consider doing so at this time. We are not able every day to make a purchase so extraordinary.

Our $19.75 line of suits won such enthusiastic approval—that's why we bought $10,000 of these fine suits and priced them at only $19.75. They will take care of fall needs now.
