

SOCIETY

Ad Libitum club was entertained Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Clarence Cane. A pleasant social afternoon closed with the serving of a dainty luncheon. Autumn flowers were colorful room decorations. The third anniversary of the club will be observed at the meeting of the club in two weeks. Mrs. W. L. Hatch and Mrs. R. B. Morris were additional guests. Names were drawn for the Christmas exchanges.

A number of visitors from the Eugene lodge were present at the regular meeting of the Women of Woodcraft Tuesday night. Plans were discussed regarding a celebration of the anniversary of the order to be held October 22.

Mrs. Charles Adams, who is leaving this week to make her home in Eugene, was honor guest at a farewell party Monday night at the Presbyterian church. More than one hundred members of the congregation gathered to bid Mrs.

Adams farewell. The evening was spent in a social manner and the following musical program was given: Vocal duet, Mrs. Roy Short and Miss Myrtle Kem; piano selections, Mrs. Cecil Caldwell; vocal solo, Miss Myrtle Kem. Short talks were given by Duncan P. Cameron, pastor of the church, George Knowles and Rev. W. V. McGee. They all spoke feelingly of the active part Mrs. Adams had taken in church work, serving as primary teacher, member of the choir and helping faithfully in other departments of the church. Mrs. Adams was presented with a beautiful basket of gladioli and responded in a charming manner. At the close of the evening the Mizpah class of the Sunday school served light refreshments.

The Latham Community club was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Fry. The club voted to aid in relief for the storm stricken area of Florida and a committee, consisting of Mrs. Archie Walker, Mrs. Grace McKibben and Mrs. Katie Miller, was appointed to collect clothing donations. At the next meeting, October 24, a course in fine sewing, under the direction of Miss Agnes Brightman, county demonstrator, will be started. Friends of the club are invited to attend these classes. Work will begin at ten o'clock in the forenoon. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Trunnell and the assisting committee to plan the luncheon will be Mrs. Addie Trunnell, Mrs. Roy Fry and Miss Ruby Miller. At the Friday meeting Mrs. Fry entertained with vocal and instrumental solos. A vocal duet was sung by Mrs. Fry and Miss Miller.

An all-day session of the Mothers' club was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Daisy Markham. Mrs. L. McAbey was honored with a handkerchief shower in appreciation of her active service in welfare work for the club. Mrs. McAbey reported that during September 122 garments and 17 pairs of shoes had been given to deserving persons. Plans were discussed for a cooked food, rug and quilt sale to be held early in November. The purpose of the sale will be to raise the club pledge to the community chest. A called meeting will be held October 23 to complete arrangements for the sale. Twenty-three were present at Thursday's meeting and at noon a covered dish luncheon was served.

Jesse Sapp, district organizer for the Order of Eagles, was present at the regular meeting of the order Tuesday night. Mr. Sapp gave an interesting talk relative to the work being done through the lodge. At the close of the meeting a chicken supper was served to more than 30 couples by the ladies auxiliary. At the meeting next Tuesday night a class of 20 candidates will be initiated into the order. Lester Jones of Salem, state president, will be here and the Salem drill team will be in charge of the work. It is expected that a number of other visitors will be present. A program of special features is being planned by the local lodge.

The Joker club was entertained Friday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Vandenberg, who was assisted by her daughter, Miss Eunice Vandenberg. Bridge was the entertainment for the evening and Miss Lula Curran held high score and Mrs. William Thum held low score. A delicious supper was served. Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. James P. Graham, Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. Claude Kime, Mrs. George Knowles and Mrs. Inez Weeks.

Mrs. A. M. Brown and Mrs. Vincent Gillespie were hostesses for the C. C. C. club of the Woodcraft circle Monday night of last week. The affair was held in W. O. W. hall. Cards and needlework were features of the entertainment and at a late hour light refreshments were served. On the first Monday in November the club will meet at the home of Miss Naomi Wynne with Miss Myrtle Hubbell as joint hostess.

The fifty-second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Nokes was celebrated Sunday, October 2, with a family dinner. The honored couple were married in Princeton, Minn., and came to Oregon 40 years ago. They have lived 38 years in Cottage Grove. They have two children, Mrs. Mabel Miller of this city and Clyde Nokes of Albany.

The Tillamook club was entertained Wednesday night of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Willis. Five hundred was played and at the close of the evening refreshments were served. Guests invited to meet with the club were Mrs. Clara Burkholder and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham. Vari-colored dahlias and other fall flowers were attractive decorations.

Mrs. C. J. Kem was hostess Tuesday for La Comus club, inviting as additional guests Mrs. Charles Kime of Coquille, house guest of Mrs. A. W. Kime, and Mrs. H. D. Kime. The afternoon was spent with needlework after which the hostess served a two-course luncheon. Baskets of bright colored fall flowers were attractive room decorations.

The Pythian Sisters sponsored a dance Wednesday night of last week at Phillips hall. W. E. Wiese, a former Cottage Grove resident, and others from Eugene attended. The same order plans to give another dance Halloween.

Distribution Without Waste

Safeway Sets the Pace

Throughout the West Safeway's charges are the accepted measure of the greatest possible value in foods. Our success in lowering food distribution costs has forced others to try to do likewise. In order to survive, dealers and wholesalers alike have had to make at least some effort to put their own houses in order and eliminate waste. While they can hardly hope to equal our accomplishments, every effort along this line benefits you, as the consumer, and we are glad.
