Five candidates were initiated into the Neighbors of Woodcraft Monday night when the second anniversary of the local lodge was observed. Sixty-five guests and ninety-five members were present. The seven visiting lodges represented were Eugene, Springfield, Salem, Yoncalla, Drain, Halsey and Creswell. The degree work was exemplified by the Eugene team in an efficient manner. A program, consisting of musical numbers by members of the local lodge and the Creswell visitors, was given. Drill work by the Springfield team was an entertaining feature of the evening. Mrs. Blackbecker of Silverton, district organizer, was an official guest. At a late hour refreshments were served. The meeting was held in the I. O. O. F. Hall. Mrs. Julia Brown and Mrs. Minnie Wilts had charge of the program. Mrs. W. L. Hatch and Mrs. Bartels planned the refreshments and decorations, and Mrs. Lena Sears was general chairman.

"Writers of the Renaissance" was an interesting subject presented at the Monday night meeting of the Delphian society. The program consisted of the following topics: "Social Life in the Fourteenth Century in the Lives of Its Great Authors," Mrs. F. E. Monahan; "Chaucer's Literary Apprenticeship," Mrs. Elbert Bede; "The Canterbury Tales," Mrs. C. C. Cruse; "Piers the Plowman," Mrs. S. L. Godard; "Petrarch, the First of the Humanists," Mrs. John Kelly; "Rienzi's Revolution," Mrs. L. E. Liston; "The Ascent," Mrs. Herbert Lombard; "The Postscript," Mrs. Alice Miller; "Laura and the Sonnets," Mrs. A. A. Richmond; "Mrs. D. D. Roberts, who had been absent from the city for several months, was welcomed back by the club.

Mrs. T. C. Wheeler was hostess Friday for the Joker club, entertaining with a six o'clock dinner at the Colonial cafe. Covers were laid for twenty-four guests and a bowl of red geraniums and ferns formed a beautiful centerpiece for the table. Baskets of bright colored autumn foliage were attractively placed about the room. After dinner the evening was spent playing bridge. At cards Mrs. J. P. Graham received the guest prize and for the club Miss Myrtle Kem held high score and Mrs. O. M. Kem low score. Guests other than club members were Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. E. W. Arnes, Mrs. Harry Metcalf, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Mrs. A. W. Kime, Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. Inez Meeks, Mrs. W. W. McFarland and Mrs. George Knowles.

Mrs. N. E. Compton was hostess Thursday for the Social Twelve club. The afternoon was spent in the usual social manner and at 3 o'clock a delicious two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. William Ashworth of Eugene and Mrs. Brighton Leonard, daughters of the hostess. In honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. H. A. Miller, member of the club, the table was decorated with a huge birthday cake centered with lighted candles and the honored guest was presented with a gift. Mrs. C. F. Hoskins was appointed to represent the club and assist in packing a barrel of fruit to be sent to Portland. Colorful bouquets of chrysanthemums and asters added to the attractiveness of the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller entertained with a dinner party Thursday evening honoring the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Miller and James P. Graham. Pink predominated in the table decorations and a beautiful bowl of geraniums and ferns formed the centerpiece. Pink candles and place cards completed the decorations. The evening was spent playing bridge. Invited guests of Mr. and Mrs. Miller were Mr. and Mrs. James P. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobson and their house guest, Captain Harold Jacobson, brother of Mr. Jacobson, and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway.

Mrs. Byron McFarland was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening of last week, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The hours were spent playing rook and Mr. Hazen, father of Mrs. McFarland, furnished old time music on the violin. At the close of the evening ice cream and cake were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Byron McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hazen of this city, and Mrs. Alma Walton and son Erwin of Portland.

Mrs. Omer Moore was hostess for Utopia club Thursday of last week. Mrs. O. C. Hadley, sister of the hostess, was an invited guest. Mrs. H. B. Griggs was welcomed as a new member. The afternoon was spent with needlework, after which a two-course luncheon was served. Yellow chrysanthemums and other fall flowers were attractive room decorations.

Bert B. Chandler camp of the department of Oregon, Spanish War veterans, will entertain their families and invited guests at their annual dinner at 6:30 Saturday in Hubbell hall. Following dinner a program of short addresses and musical numbers will be given.

The Presbyterian Sunday school class, taught by Miss Ethel Chestnut, elected officers at their class meeting Sunday. They are as follows: Betty Jean Quigley, president; Mildred Holm, vice president; Ada Chestnut, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sears were dinner hosts at their home in Delight Valley Thursday night. The occasion was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Black, newlyweds. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and the evening was spent playing cards.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Order of Eagles entertained the Eagles and their families with a Halloween party Tuesday night at I. O. O. F. hall. At the stair landing the guests were met by witches, ghosts and goblins and ushered up the "road of mystery" to the hall. The hall was effectively decorated with pumpkins, corn stalks and autumn foliage, which gave a harvest effect appropriate to this season. The following program was given: Address of welcome, N. J. Nelson Jr.; accordion selections, Ed Lundborg; mandolin and guitar duets, Ord and Ord, father and son; song by cats, witches and ghosts, Mrs. Maybell Kerr; Lavona Pitcher, Edna Pitcher, Lula McCullough, Mrs. Grace Denny; song of the ghosts and black cats, Dora Maulding, Genevieve McCullough, Inez Wilson; humorous impersonation, Loren Harvey; vocal selection, N. J. Nelson Jr., accompanied by his daughter, Maxine; piano selection, Mrs. Strauss; medium, Mrs. Emma Hawkins. At the close of the program games and Halloween stunts were played until supper was served.

Mrs. Ivan Barker entertained a group of friends Wednesday night at her home, complimenting Miss Zenna Moughmer, a new member of the teaching corps in the city schools. The evening was spent playing bridge. Mrs. William Thum held high score and Miss Bethel Gowdy low. At the close of the evening a two-course supper was served. A beautiful centerpiece of larkspur was the table decoration and baskets of scarlet colored dogwood leaves were placed about the living room. Those present were the honor guest and her mother, Mrs. William Moughmer, Mrs. Thum, Miss Gowdy, Miss Glenda Ross, Miss Jay Fraser, Miss Rosalee Mason, Miss Violet Hukari, Miss Myrtle Hubbell, Mrs. George Hewitt, Miss Hannah Lewis, Miss Bernice Lamb and Mrs. F. H. Allison.

Members of the Ad Libitum club held a 1 o'clock luncheon last Thursday at the Colonial cafe, celebrating the third anniversary of the club. Mrs. Roy Leonard and Mrs. Clarence Cone planned the affair. After the luncheon the party went to the home of Mrs. Clyde Leonard for a social afternoon. At a short business session the following officers were elected: Mrs. Ransom Cone, president; Mrs. Armored Monson, vice president; Mrs. Tom Lafoon, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. G. B. Arnest, reporter. Mrs. Clyde Leonard, the retiring president, was presented with a basket of choice yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. G. B. Arnest was welcomed as a new member. The club will meet next week with Mrs. R. L. Cooper.

At the regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters Wednesday night Mrs. Frank McFarland, who attended grand lodge in Salem, gave an interesting report on the state meeting. Twenty-nine thousand members were in attendance she reported and grand lodge will be held in Portland next year. The local order plans to give a benefit dance in Phillips hall Halloween. The committee in charge of music will be Miss Myrtle Kem, Mrs. Ellsworth, Mrs. Charles Shanda and Mrs. Max Bird. Those in charge of tickets are Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. George Dahl and Mrs. Quimby.

Mrs. H. A. Hagen was hostess Tuesday for the Elmarites club, inviting as a special guest, Mrs. Charles S. Burkholder. Bridge was the entertainment of the afternoon. Mrs. L. E. Liston held high score. At a late hour a dainty luncheon was served. The table was centered with a bouquet of pink roses and yellow chrysanthemums were room decorations. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Fred Anderson.

Four candidates received the first degree in Coast Fork Encampment, No. 49, I. O. O. F., at its meeting last Thursday. Sam Min-turna of Eugene acted as chief patriarch. Other guests from the Eugene Encampment were J. H. Newman, J. H. Starr and A. G. Brauer. The same candidates will be given the last degree at the next meeting, when the visitors from Eugene will again be present.

Scout Masters to Attend School. A training course for scoutmasters will open Monday evening, October 29, at the men's gymnasium on the University of Oregon campus. An interesting feature will be the organization of the scoutmasters into a "boy scout troop" with C. E. Clark, Lane county scout master, as "scoutmaster." Training and leadership methods will be taught.

The Unity club met for their regular afternoon of study last Thursday at the home of Mrs. S. E. Markley. Mrs. Fred Beidler and Mrs. W. J. White were additional guests. At the close of the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served. The club will meet Thursday, November 1, with Mrs. George Dahl.

The LaComus club met Tuesday with Mrs. H. B. Griggs, who entertained as an additional guest, Mrs. D. A. Emerson. The afternoon was spent with needlework and chatting. At the tea hour a delicious luncheon was served. Autumn flowers and foliage were artistic decorations.

The Tanglefoot Dancing club will hold its first dance of the season Monday night in I. O. O. F. hall. The committee in charge will be Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, president of the club, and Mrs. H. A. Hagen, secretary and treasurer.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Bakin. The meeting was opened by devotionals led by Mrs. Mary Smith. Mrs. R. L. Stewart had charge of the lesson on "Stewardship and Missions." Miss Stella Adams was in charge of the "query corner." Reports on the women's synodical meeting held last Thursday in Salem were given by Mrs. R. A. Trask and Mrs. Charles Beidler. At the close of the meeting the hostess served tea.

At the meeting of the Methodist ladies' aid society Wednesday, plans were completed for the annual dinner and bazaar to be held November 9. Until this year the affair, as a whole, has been given in the basement of the church but arrangements have been made for the bazaar to be at the church and the dinner in I. O. O. F. hall. If all articles are not sold in the afternoon they will be moved to the hall at the dinner hour. Mrs. H. Crow led devotionals and Mrs. Morrow, wife of the pastor, was welcomed as a new member. Fifty dollars was pledged toward the choir support. At the close of the session refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. N. E. Compton, Mrs. Crow, Mrs. Ed Conner and Mrs. Clarence Cone.

The Baptist ladies' aid society held an experience social yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Karl K. Mills. Fourteen women were present and $16 was turned into the treasury. Many interesting and amusing stories were told while the various ways the money was earned. Each guest brought a surprise article, which was put in a grab bag and later drawn out by the women. These included various pieces of unfinished fancy work and sewing which will be finished by those who received them and turned back to the society for a traveling store. At the close of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Clint Spriggs, served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Walker were honor guests at a dinner party Sunday at the home of Mrs. Walker's sister, Mrs. A. E. Sharp, in Eugene. The occasion was the thirty-second wedding anniversary of the honor couple. Additional guests were Lynn Walker and Miss Leta Savier, both of Cottage Grove, and Thelma Sharp and Carl Smith, both of Springfield.

Mrs. C. O. Butler will entertain this afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter Billy Anne. Guests will be Otis Jr., Denzel and Kenneth Biggs, Martha, Don, Rosemary and Richard Thum, Junior White, John Graham, Wayne and Melba Gates, Marie Jones and Phil Fishbeck. A program of games has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

CAMERON GIVES TALK AT BAPTIST PROGRAM

In his lecture, "Folks Next Door," given Tuesday night at the Baptist church, Duncan P. Cameron scathingly rebuked the felicitous news derived from much of the modern way of thinking. He deplored the attitude taken on the present day issues and made a strong plea for more evidence of the practical teachings of "The Man of Galilee." While the speaker dealt humorously with parts of his subject, he gave a sound philosophy for a congenial and right relationship that should exist between individuals as well as communities and nations.

The following musical numbers were given as other entertaining features of the program: Vocal solo, Wilbur Watkins; violin solo, Elliott Vinson; vocal solo, Miss Flossie Mathis. The musical numbers were all enthusiastically received.
