Latham School Is Defrauded.
Complaint has been made by school district 23 at Latham that the district has been defrauded out of $125 as the result of purchasing playground equipment from a salesman who said he represented a Washington school supply house. The money was paid to the salesman after the order had been placed, school board members said. When the equipment failed to arrive a check was made and it was discovered that no such supply house as the one named could be found. The salesman, who said he had the endorsement of the county school superintendent, was unknown.

to Superintendent E. J. Moore. Other school districts of the county have been warned to be on the lookout for the man.

Arcade to Run Serial Drama.
The thrilling serial drama laid in the heart of the jungle, "Tarzan the Mighty," will be shown by the Arcade starting Saturday, December 15, and will be shown each Saturday thereafter for 13 weeks. The story is taken from Edgar Rice Burroughs' novels of Tarzan. It is filled with stirring incidents and mighty jungle scenes.
