One of the most delightful affairs of the pre-holiday season was a Christmas party of the O. L. H. club for which Mrs. H. A. Miller, president, was hostess Tuesday afternoon. A four-course luncheon was served at 1 o'clock at the local cafe. Christmas decorations were attractive, about the room and the dining table was adorned with a colorful bouquet of red carnations in a red bowl, candles in red candlesticks and red and white stockings were hung above the fireplace. The afternoon members were invited to the home of Mrs. Miller for the Christmas tree. The room was attractive with a Christmas tree, lighted candles, baskets of gifts and wreaths of evergreen. A table of gifts for each member was hung above the fireplace and an exchange of gifts preceded the afternoon members were invited to the home of Mrs. Miller for the Christmas tree.
