

COUNTY OFFICERS NAB EIGHTY-GALLON STILL

On a charge of possession of a still, John Shields was bound over to the grand jury yesterday in the Eugene justice court and bail was set at $1000. Shields was arrested early Sunday by Julian Strain, chief deputy sheriff, John Carlisle, deputy, and Chief of Police James Strait of Eugene, who worked with the county officers.

A copper still of about 80 gallons capacity was found in the Shields home near Elmira. The "can" with additional equipment including a burner and pressure tank were held as evidence. A quantity of mash was destroyed. About 20 gallons of liquor were found at the plant, the officers say.

Although the still was not extra large it showed considerable evidence of having been used for some time.

Engineer Visits Quicksilver Plants. G. E. Stowell, engineer for the Quicksilver Syndicate at Black Butte, returned last Thursday from California. He had spent ten days visiting quicksilver operations in California and Nevada to secure ideas on modern plants that might be put into operation at the Black Butte mines. He visited one of the richest properties in the world which is located in Nevada. The Quicksilver Syndicate is planning the installation of another furnace that will double the capacity of the plant.

Skimpy Apparel Not Popular in Hungary

There is one section of Europe where the short skirt has not penetrated, where the petticoat billows and sways in unchallenged supremacy. In the rural districts of Hungary girls and women wear from eight to a dozen daintily embroidered petticoats, all in different colors, making the wearers appear like Dresden dolls come to life.

Hungarian girls still use woollen stockings and recently, when a local coquette ignored village gossip to the point of wearing silk hose, she was held up to public approbrium. Petticoats and all dresses are bedizened as a rule, and are handed down from mother to daughter through generations. Marriage trousseaus are objects of veneration bordering on ancestor worship.

The clothing, together with embroidered linen and plates, go to form the dowries of marriageable daughters.

EARLY FILING INCOME TAX RETURNS URGED

Lane county people are urged by the deputy internal revenue collectors to file their income tax returns as soon as possible as the Eugene office will be closed from February 14 to 25. Income returns may be filed now, according to J. W. Lamka, one of the collectors. Exemption for single persons is $1500 a year, for married people $2500 a year with an additional exemption of $400 for each dependent child. All whose gross income is $5000 must file, no matter what the net income may be.

Mr. Lamka, who will be away from the office from February 11 to 24, will be at the Eugene office from February 25 to March 15.

Alvan E. McCormick, the other collector, will also be gone from February 14 to 25. He will be in Cottage Grove February 25.

New Quality Found For Cold Seasoned Lumber

Permeation of Creosote Greater Than in Ordinary Green Timber.

A new quality has been found for cold seasoned lumber, which is produced here and at no other place in the world. The new quality is that it will become permeated with creosote. Ordinary green fir absorbs creosote oil only to a depth of half or three-quarters of an inch.

Cold seasoned lumber was already known to have many qualities not possessed by lumber prepared for market by any other method. It has a greater tensile strength, it has less weight because of the removal of a greater proportion of moisture and takes some of the qualities of pine. The seasoning process evidently breaks down the hard ring, that keep creosote from being forced to the heart of green, drying killed or ordinary air seasoned lumber. This is the only plausible explanation of why it will become permeated. With its susceptibility to taking the oil, the lumber can be creosoted under less pressure and this will result in a great saving, an ordinary creosoting under high pressure causes checks and splits in the lumber to enlarge often to the point of breaking up the lumber.

The first experiment in creosoting cold seasoned lumber was made with a car recently shipped into Kansas for bridge timber. There was not a fall-down in a single stick, whereas the loss usually runs as high as 20 per cent. The purchaser declared it to be the finest creosoted lumber they had ever seen. As a result of this showing a quantity of the same lumber has been sold in other parts of the middle west at $10 the thousand above the market.

With the creosote reaching to the heart of the timber it should be practically indestructible by the elements and the greater tensile strength should give it a big edge on the market for bridge and structural work, which will mean a big thing for the mills of this section which supply the Standard Seasoned society, producers of the lumber.

Rodent Control Plans Arranged for County

Program to Follow After That of Last Year; April 1 to Open Campaign.

Rodent control in Lane county during the present year will follow closely the program in effect last year when district supervisors were named for work in various communities. The districts will be divided along present boundaries of the county school districts.

This action was taken at a meeting Monday of the rodent control project committee of the Lane County Agricultural council held at the office of S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent.

Monday, April 1, was tentatively set as the date for observance of rodent control day. Farm organizations of the county will make recommendations of appointments of supervisors in the various districts and these appointments will be presented to the county court for action.

Acquainted

Virginia Anne, age three years, was just getting a good start in the primary department of a suburban Sunday school. The young teacher was telling the story of the shepherds and wishing to give special attention to the babies of the class, asked:

"Virginia Anne, do you know anything about the shepherds?"

"Sure," replied Virginia Anne, confidently, "I know all about 'em. They live right next door to us."

THE SENTINEL

High School Notes

It's here! What's here! The new semester is here. The second semester has started. Is everyone prepared for it? New subjects, new system of periods and all?

Some of us are taking up new subjects, while some of us are continuing with old ones. Whether or not we are taking up new subjects let's all get down to business and study at the first of the semester as well as the last, and then no prepared for it? New subjects, new system of periods and all?

This semester school starts at 8:30 in the morning instead of 9:00 as heretofore. To some of us this seems quite early, but the majority of us have decided that it is best for the school, and so we must accept it without any kicking. This will give us an half hour every morning for an activities period. Many larger schools and schools of our size have found the "activities period" to be a success. Let's not get behind being late. Let's all be here promptly at 8:30 every morning.

Why not start the semester out right? Let's all try for the good of C. G. H.

The high school girls' double trio, consisting of Donna Bartell, Louise Wynne, Jerrine Burrows, Frances Randall, Genevieve Meranda and Alberta Williams, under the direction of Miss Bernice Lamb and accompanied by Esther Evenson sang at the men's assembly meeting Saturday evening at Hotel Bartell. After the banquet the girls were entertained at a theater party by Mr. Bartell.

Miss Elsa Nilson, instructor in the commercial department, spent the week end in Portland.

Roy Murray, a member of the senior class, completed his work mid year.

Frances Wells was ill last week and was unable to take the final examination.

The Bungalow Garage basketball team defeated the high school team 38 to 6 in a practice basketball game in the gymnasium Monday night.

The honor roll for the last six weeks is as follows: Seniors, Ercell Aulau, Helen Olson, Ruby Melick, Gladys Yearous, Genevieve Meranda; juniors, Mildred Coates, Alverna Eagy, Ralph Monroe, Ernest Shelburne; sophomores, Frances Randall, Jean Allison, Charles McLin, Elbert Morgan, Della Gallo, Delbert Saffley, Florence Keibel, George Kuehbeck, Carolyn Gramus; freshmen, Wayne Monroe, Orval Etter, Beta Bailes, Mildred Chapman, Katherine Young, Gladys Niemann, Ruth Olson, Evelyn Smith. These students received an grade below B.

Honorable mention for the last six weeks went to the following: Seniors, Della Caton, Fred Wanker, Connie Hutchinson, Glen Arne; juniors, Elmer Allen, Jewel Brainard, Esther Evenson, Genevieve Mulvihill, Bertha Remington, Esther Thornton, Beryl Cellers; sophomores, Harold Tomole, Louise Kruse, Merle Hockett, Jerrine Burrows, Maxine Nelson, Louise Wynne; freshmen, Kathleen Beidler, Madeline Beidler, Mary Jane Caldwell, Margaret Leonard, Eleanor White, Rollien Wells. These students received no grade below C+.

Navaho Blankets

The Smithsonian institution says: "The Yebecal are native gods of the Navaho whose chief function is healing the sick. The so-called Yebecal 'dance' is a ceremony for this purpose. Up to some years ago representations of the gods were painted in colored sand at the ceremony and wiped out at the close. Later the Navaho began to weave the Yebecal figures in rugs for sale. These rugs are usually made on a hand loom. This may easily be told if the designs are alike on both sides as to form and color. Such specimens were never common."

Farmers Union Opposes Exclusive Franchises

O. A. Nichols Re-elected President; W. S. Averill Again Named Secretary.

A matter of special importance to the Lane County Farmers' union meeting in Eugene Saturday was the passing of a resolution opposing the bill granting the public service commission power to grant certificates of convenience to truck and motor bus lines operating in the state, according to W. S. Averill, secretary. The farmers feel that it is unfair that any particular company be granted special privileges on the public highways of the state.

During the year each Farmers' union local kept a written record of its activities. A prize was offered the local showing the most progress during the year. By unanimous consent Spencer Creek local was awarded the prize, which was a myrtle wood gavel. It was presented by President O. A. Nichols to Mrs. Ray Bower, representative of Spencer Creek local.

Oregon State Agricultural college is offering a special three-day course for Grange and Farmers' union entertainment. All locals were urged to send representative and from the discussion it is expected that the Farmers' union in Lane county will be well represented.

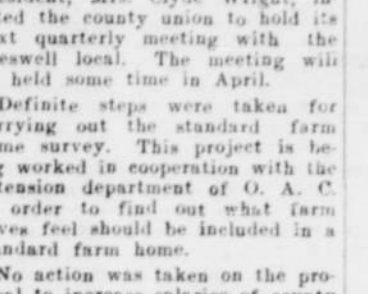

The Creswell local, through its president, Mrs. Clyde Wright, is invited the county union to hold its next quarterly meeting with the Creswell local. The meeting will be held some time in April.

Definite steps were taken for carrying out the standard farm home survey. The project is being worked in cooperation with the extension department of O. A. C. in order to find out what farm wives feel should be included in a standard farm home.

No action was taken on the proposal to increase salaries of county officials. The matter was discussed to some extent, but was not put to vote. Opinions on both sides of the question were heard.

O. A. Nichols of Cottage Grove was re-elected president of the county union, Mrs. C. E. Wright of Creswell was elected vice president and W. S. Averill of Cottage Grove, secretary treasurer.

Basketball Star

Scotty Milligan is one of the shining lights of the University of Oregon basketball team this season. Scotty is playing his third and last year.

Effective February 1, all tickets for travel on the buses of the Southern Pacific Motor Transport company and those of the Oregon Stages or Coast Auto lines may be used interchangeably. It was announced Thursday by I. L. Graham, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific.

Railroad tickets of the Southern Pacific will also be good on any of the three bus lines, although bus tickets cannot be used on the railroad, Mr. Graham said.

The ticket change follows recent purchase of the bus lines by the Southern Pacific company.
