

Nearby News

MOUNT VIEW.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Feb. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bales and Miss Dorothy Bales were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson in Cottage Grove, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bales, sister of Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Amanda Sears visited Saturday afternoon with Mrs. George Brumfield in Cottage Grove.

J. W. Nelson of Cottage Grove was at the Waldo Miller home Saturday.

Mrs. K. K. Mills and Pastor and Mrs. Louis Randle of Cottage Grove visited Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. A. Schneider.

Mrs. Johnson, who lives on the busy place, is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Downes and Andy Downes visited Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schneider.

The Five Hundred club of Divide gave a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dear Saturday evening, arriving in a body and spending the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schneider and Miss Bernadine Schneider spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Amanda Sears.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kosanke were at the J. W. Fisher home at Thornton Corners Monday.

Mr. Cleveland was a Cottage Grove visitor Tuesday.

THORNTON CORNERS.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Feb. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wills of Westwood, Cal., visited Monday at the S. P. Shortridge home.

R. B. Dixon and Wilbur Black have had telephones installed the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foster and children were entertained Sunday at a birthday dinner at the Bert Lancaster home at Blue Mountain, the occasion being Mrs. Lancaster's birthday anniversary.

S. P. Shortridge went to Roseburg Tuesday to see a brother, G. L. Shortridge, who is ill.

John Bowder expects to move his family to Cottage Grove this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Irwin, who were married Thursday in Eugene, stopped over Sunday at the home of Mr. Irwin's mother, Mrs. M. M. Tison, and went on to their home in Roseburg Monday morning.

R. C. McNew received a Silver Wyandotte rooster Monday. It was shipped to him from Massachusetts and in spite of the cold weather arrived in good condition.

Mrs. T. C. Shaw and son, O. H. Shaw, went to Eugene Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Lebow of Cottage Grove were at the Henry Lake home Sunday evening.

Mrs. George Golden of Eugene visited from Wednesday to Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Shortridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Keene and children of Walker were overnight visitors Saturday at the home of Mr. Keene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keene.

Mrs. D. Quaglia received word two weeks ago of the death of her father at Central Point.

Mrs. S. P. Shortridge and Mrs. Olive Herby and children, accompanied by Mrs. Lymas Adams of the Grove, went to Eugene Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keene and baby of Delight valley and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Benston and children of Saguinaw visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keene.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and Mr. and Mrs. John Wankers of Cottage Grove visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trent.

DORENA.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Feb. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorothy and daughter Evelyn of Roseburg visited Sunday with Mrs. Gorothy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McLin.

Mr. and Mrs. White of Blue River visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McKinney.

Miss Madeline Miles of Marcola spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Mosley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Redford were in Eugene Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Kirk and John Holstrom spent Sunday at the John Wetzel home in Marcola.

Hubert Masby attended a wrestling match in Eugene Saturday night.

Mrs. C. H. Jennings and Mrs. Fern Kirk made a business trip to Cottage Grove Tuesday.

CURTIN.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Feb. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Madden and Mrs. Velma Neet of Cottage Grove spent Wednesday at the D. B. Hunt home.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Eichler transacted business in Cottage Grove Saturday.

Harley Remington is ill this week with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anlauf of Cottage Grove spent Monday evening and Tuesday at the home of Mr. Anlauf's sister, Mrs. Ida Ward.

Victor Chapman was a Cottage Grove visitor Wednesday of this week.

William Kirk recently purchased a Star touring car from Nelson Motor company.

Eugene Remington, Noma Orey, Bertha Remington and Stanley Quigley spent Sunday evening in Cottage Grove.

Edgar Hunt visited the Cottage Grove high school Monday.

Mrs. Ralph Kirk and small son Jimmy recently returned from Maine, where they had spent several weeks visiting relatives.

Mrs. A. V. Willis motored to Cottage Grove Friday.

Miss Bertha Remington has returned to school after being absent a few days because of an injured ankle.

Theodore Scharf of Seattle, Wash., transacted business in this vicinity Friday.

Miss Beulah Chapman is ill this week with measles.

Frank Clark and son Clifford were in Drain a short time Friday.

Victor Chapman motored to Eugene Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Maulding and daughter Dora Mae Scott of Cottage Grove spent Sunday evening at the Orey home.

Mrs. Charles Remington visited friends in Cottage Grove Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Eichler were in Cottage Grove Friday evening.

were in Cottage Grove Friday evening.

Wilbur Hill motored to Cottage Grove Monday.

Miss Noma Gordon has recovered from the measles.

Mrs. Frank Anlauf of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Wilbur Hill spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. P. A. Anlauf.

Mr. and Mrs. De Lacy and daughter Millicent motored to Cottage Grove Saturday.

Clarence Kirk was a business visitor in Yoncalla this week.

Walter Eccleston of Drain was in this vicinity Tuesday.

The Payne family is ill with the measles.

BLUE MOUNTAIN.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Feb. 5.—Mr. Tobias and H. Tunage of Eugene are holding meetings at the Blue Mountain church this week. There is special music at the services.

Letha Tandy of Eugene is home visiting her parents for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Mae Tomoli have moved to Lowell, where Mr. Tomoli has employment.

The new bridge over Mosby creek has recently been completed.

A surprise party was given at the Albert Lancaster home Saturday night in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Albert Lancaster and Johnny Walker.

Edna Isaacson suffered painful burns recently when some hot coffee was spilled on one of her legs. She has been unable to attend school.

Dale Crawford is staying at the Jim Smith place and helping with the work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foster and children were dinner guests Sunday at the Albert Lancaster home.

LONDON.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Feb. 5.—Mrs. Albert Noth and daughter Vivian of Salem arrived Thursday to spend the week end with Mrs. Noth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Wills.

Mrs. Cordor and daughter Bessie spent Saturday with Mrs. Joe Brookhart.

J. E. Banton made a trip to a Eugene hospital Monday for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Wills, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Small, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shortridge, Carl Small, Claude Shortridge, Murry Newton and Mrs. Albert Noth and daughter Vivian spent Thursday at the W. T. Jones home.

Mrs. W. T. Jones spent Wednesday at the Howard Cox home.

Mrs. Joe Brookhart and daughter Marguerite spent Sunday afternoon with the L. O. Krewson family.

Mrs. Flora Small, daughters Annabel and Marjory and son Wendell of Cottage Grove, the John Small family, the W. T. Jones family, Miss Helen Dubois and Mr. and Mrs. Murry Newton and daughter Ethel Anne spent Friday evening at the W. C. Shortridge home.

Jesse Hooker and Mrs. George Powell and daughter Hazel of Lorne drove over Thursday to visit Mrs. Howard Cox.

Clayton Townsend was absent from school Thursday and Friday on account of sickness.

Mrs. Albert Noth and daughter Vivian returned to their home in Salem Sunday.

Howard Cox took his wife to a Salem sanitarium Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wills spent Monday at the Sam Shortridge home.

Mrs. Mary Massey received word Thursday that a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Flesher of Graton, Cal. Flesher was formerly Eunice Baughman of London.

Harold and Ivan Abene made a trip to Eugene Sunday to visit Glenn Abene of Oakland, who is in a Eugene hospital.

Mrs. Frankie Thora, Hazel Thorn and Cecil Eddy went to Roseburg Sunday to visit Mrs. Thorn's brother, Lane Shortridge, who is in a hospital.

Mrs. O. P. Wills, Mrs. John Small, Mrs. W. T. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wills made a trip Tuesday to Salem to visit Mrs. Wills' daughter, Mrs. Albert Noth.

John Perini and Everett Small killed a cougar Friday in the Black Butte neighborhood.

C. H. Woods moved the Richard Garman family to Black Butte Monday.

Word has just been received of the death of Mrs. Rachel Ellen Foreman at a private hospital in Salem on November 1, 1928. Death was caused by a paralytic stroke.

The deceased was well known here having lived in this vicinity for five years ago. She moved from here two years ago.

Mrs. Lynch Currin is keeping house for her father, O. P. Wills, while Mrs. Wills is visiting in Salem at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Noth.

DIVIDE.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Feb. 6.—Mrs. Amerigo Mostachetti received word Friday that her grandfather, Mr. Eichler of Eugene, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Payne of Curtin spent Sunday at the M. J. Perini home.

Danah Miller, who had spent two weeks in a Eugene hospital, returned home Saturday.

With The Morning Coffee

A steaming cup of coffee and a plate of delicious, tempting rolls or coffee cake—what could make a more nourishing or delightful breakfast? And fresh? Of course—all of our bakery goods are baked fresh every day. That is the reason you will find them so constantly satisfactory.

Pay by the tenth of month and get your green trading stamps.

Cottage Grove Electric Bakery
G. A. Sanders, Proprietor

the house in early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Williams have moved here from Springfield. Mr. Williams is engaged in logging. The logs are being moved from Lynx Hollow to Eugene by truck and rail.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hutchinson and daughter Miss Mabel were overnight guests Friday at the James Connelly home. They were on their way to Portland from North Hollywood, where they had spent the winter. The Hutchinsons and Connelly families were neighbors in Idaho for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shampang and daughter visited with them at the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Benston attended a club dance at Crowell Saturday evening. After the dance they accompanied the Byron Jackson family to Eugene and spent the week end at the Jackson home.

Callers at the Koch home on Friday were Mrs. Logan Bear, Mrs. Frank Benston and Mrs. Charles Sharon. On Saturday Mrs. James Connelly and Miss Nellie visited with the Koch family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burgess of Cottage Grove spent Wednesday and Thursday visiting at the house.

dined Sunday at the Logan Bear home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Benston attended a club dance at Crowell Saturday evening. After the dance they accompanied the Byron Jackson family to Eugene and spent the week end at the Jackson home.

Callers at the Koch home on Friday were Mrs. Logan Bear, Mrs. Frank Benston and Mrs. Charles Sharon. On Saturday Mrs. James Connelly and Miss Nellie visited with the Koch family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burgess of Cottage Grove spent Wednesday and Thursday visiting at the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shampang and daughter visited with them at the house.

Koch home. They have been shut-in for some time, this being the first time either has been out of the house for many weeks.

January Is Good for Trappers. January was a good month for Lane county hunters and trappers but proved hard for predatory animals. Bounties on 75 bobcats were paid at the office of the county clerk. Thirteen cougars and nine coyotes were reported killed during the month.

Typewriter Supplies. The Sentinel.

Grand Opening

— AND —

Auto Show

Lane Auto Company
114 North Ninth Street

Something Different But Lots of Fun.

Come and Enjoy Yourself as Our Guests

Friday Evening, February 8

Refreshments, Dancing and Fun for All

See the New Durant 4-40 and Durant 6-60 at the New Low Price

Do Not Forget the Place or Date

Friday, February 8

6 p. m. at

Lane Auto Company

114 N. Ninth Street
COTTAGE GROVE

WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THAT THE LANE AUTO COMPANY

Is Opening in Cottage Grove a Very Attractive New Place at 114 North Ninth Street

For the Sales and Service of Durant Automobiles

Lane Auto Company Has Handled Durant Products in Eugene for the Past Six Years and Their Reputation for Service is Second to None

They Are Ready to Render to Cottage Grove Owners the Same Wonderful Service They Have to Owners in Eugene and It Gives Us Great Pleasure to Announce Them As Dealers in Cottage Grove

DURANT MOTOR COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA