

SOCIETY

The W. C. T. U. met in regular session Friday at the home of Mrs. L. Ward. The devotion was led by Miss Stella Adams and Mrs. Eastham had charge of the program. An interesting paper concerning what prohibition has done for the nation was read by Mrs. Eastham. A number of communications, relative to the year's program, were read and plans for raising money for the children's farm home at Corvallis were discussed. A committee, composed of Mrs. F. C. Houser, Mrs. Ethel Applewhite and Miss Stella Adams, was appointed to take charge of this and in all probability a cooked food sale or a dinner will be held to raise these funds. To assist the farm home in installing a library, the local union is asking for donations of suitable books, and any one wishing to contribute books is asked to leave them with Mrs. L. McAbey. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Hogate and the teachers of the city will be guests. Mrs. N. E. Compton, Mrs. Henry Mason and Mrs. Ward were named a committee to arrange for this meeting. A vocal duet by Masters J. B. and George Burkhead was an enjoyable number on the program. At the tea hour the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Adrian Merriam and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler were hostesses Monday for a pleasant meeting of the Past Matrons club at the home of Mrs. Herbert Eakin. At the business session it was decided to change the annual past matrons and past patrons night at Eastern Star chapter from February 22 to March 8. This change was made to avoid conflict with the visit to the chapter of the deputy of the grand worthy matron on February 22. The entertainment committee of the club for the year will be Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Mrs. W. B. Johnston and Mrs. Joe Smith, officers of the club. Later in the afternoon a tempting two-course luncheon was served. The Valentine idea was carried out in both the menu and decorations. Baskets of pussywillows were additional decorations. Mrs. K. K. Mills and Mrs. Inez Kramer will entertain the club at the next meeting.

The Mothers' club met last Thursday for an all-day session at the home of Mrs. H. C. Schaeffer. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon to 18 members and one guest. The day was spent piecing a quilt for Mrs. L. McAbey and also sewing blocks for quilts for the needy. At the business session the club voted to give its support to a bill before the state legislature to provide a pension for old people who are without homes or incomes from any source, and also a bill on free text books for the schools in the state. Plans were made for an Easter supper to be held Monday night, February 18, at the home of Mrs. G. H. Fullerton to which the husbands of club members will be invited. An old fashioned program will be a feature of the entertainment. The club will meet the first Thursday in March with Mrs. George Kerr.

Funk Blackmore.
The marriage of Miss Maud Blackmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Blackmore, to William J. Funk took place in Eugene Saturday forenoon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Funk, who reside southeast of the city. The bride has resided in this city for a number of years and was graduated from the local high school with the class of 1927. The young couple are at present residing at Black Butte, where the groom is employed in the mines, but they expect to go to Swisshome to make their home. Mrs. Blackmore accompanied them to Eugene and witnessed the ceremony.

Mrs. Harry Metcalf, Mrs. Terry Moody, Mrs. Metcalf Veatch and Mrs. D. J. Scholl were hostesses Thursday afternoon in Masonic hall for the Constellation club. About 35 were present and a social afternoon was enjoyed. A short business meeting was held. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon and the Valentine idea was carried out in decoration of the table. A large basket of freesias formed a beautiful centerpiece. Mrs. P. B. Sichel of The Dalles, house guest of her sister, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, was a special guest.

Mrs. G. W. McFarland was pleasantly surprised at her home Monday night when a group of friends gathered for dinner in honor of her birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Magee, Mrs. Charles Lackey and children, Miss Susie Camp, Mrs. Helen Vilas, Mrs. Mary Hambrick, Mrs. Mabel Baker, Florence Mayes and Mr. and Mrs. McFarland.

The Faculty club of the high school met for a monthly dinner Monday night at the Colonial cafe. A business meeting followed the dinner and F. L. Grannis gave a short talk on the general progress of the school. Miss Hannah Lewis gave a book review on "Secondary Education" by Aubrey Douglass and Mrs. Orpha Benson read a paper on "Modern Trends of Home Economics in the Schools."

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coier entertained at dinner Thursday night. Evelyn and Lorraine Coier assisted the hostess in serving. Music and cards were entertaining features of the evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. William Thum and Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer Stewart.

Mrs. Bessie Sutcliffe was hostess Thursday of last week for the Social Twelve club. Only club members were present. The afternoon was spent in a pleasant social manner after which the hostess served a two-course luncheon. Baskets of pussywillows and dainty colored hollyhocks were artistic decorations.

The Eastern Star met Friday night for its regular meeting. The card party planned as entertainment following the meeting was postponed in order that officers might practice their degree work in preparation for the visit of the deputy to the grand worthy matron on Friday night, February 22.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Graham entertained a group of friends

A program of patriotic contests and games was an enjoyable feature of the meeting yesterday of the Presbyterian ladies' aid society. It was in charge of Mrs. S. L. Godard. Group singing of national airs was also a part of the program. During the business meeting it was planned to hold a cooked food sale Saturday, February 16, at the Smith Short grocery. It was also decided to start a traveling basket which will be sent to the homes of members to collect articles for the annual bazaar in the fall. The rooms were artistically decorated with pussywillows and Oregon grape. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Godard, Mrs. W. J. White, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. James Robinson, Mrs. H. A. Miller and Mrs. Pugh.

Initiatory work was a part of the meeting of the N. E. Woodcraft Monday night when the degree was conferred upon Mrs. Alice Crites. Plans were made for a trip to Yoncalla Tuesday by the local order which took its drill team to the neighboring city to have charge of the installation of officers and also for conferring degree work. The Yoncalla circle entertained the visitors with a 1 o'clock luncheon. After the business meeting Monday evening the following hostesses served refreshments: Mrs. J. H. Bartels, Mrs. Julia Brown, Mrs. Bert Burrows, Mrs. William Bartels and Mrs. Carl Burkett.

Members of the Order of Rainbow for Girls were entertained Monday night in Masonic hall by the advisory board of the order. The party followed the regular business meeting of the cottage and sixth grade in school and 11 were present. The distribution of Valentines from an attractive box was a feature of the evening and Valentine games were played. Dainty refreshments were served and the table was attractive with a Valentine cake for a centerpiece and red tapers at the sides. Large candy hearts were favors.

Mrs. Charles Vandenberg was hostess Tuesday for the La Comus club. At the close of a social afternoon the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Small flags were arranged to form an attractive centerpiece for the table and guests were given favors in the form of miniature flags. Patriotic decorations were carried out in the rooms with flags and red, white and blue paper streamers. Specially invited guests were Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. N. E. Compton, Mrs. George Jacobson and Mrs. E. W. Ames.

A patriotic program is planned for the social entertainment to follow the regular meeting of the Masonic Blue lodge next Wednesday night. A musical program will be given and addresses will be given by Rev. Frederick Jennings of Eugene and Rev. Duncan P. Cameron. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the entertainment and it is expected a large number will be in attendance. Visitors from other lodges are invited.

A church night is being arranged for the Presbyterian church on Wednesday night, February 20. A covered dish supper will be served in the church dining hall and a program will follow. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Mrs. W. C. Sheets, Mrs. E. R. Morford, Mrs. E. C. Shay, Mrs. W. L. Hatch, Mrs. Clarence Chester, Mrs. Elbert Bede, Mrs. W. V. McGee and Mrs. Victor Shaw.

The Royal Neighbors entertained with a benefit card party Wednesday night in I. O. O. F. hall. Tables of bridge and five card draw were arranged for the pleasure of the guests. At bridge Mrs. J. Q. Willits held high score and Mrs. Nelson DeYoung was high at five hundred. The hall was effectively decorated with soft shaded lights. Refreshments were served following cards.

The Elmarites club met Tuesday with Mrs. Ralph Saltzman. Bridge was played during the afternoon. Mrs. Victor Chambers held high score and Mrs. Oliver second. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon. Miss Alma Dale Covington of Portland and Mrs. Claude Kime were guests of the club. Mrs. N. J. Nelson will be hostess for the next meeting of the club.

Mrs. Emma Porter was at home to members of the women's bible class of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The time was spent with sewing and excerpts from the life of Lincoln were read. A P. O. box contributed a Valentine for each guest. Sixteen were present. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served.

The Bona Tempo club celebrated its birthday anniversary last Thursday night with a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witte. Covers were laid for 12. Bridge was the entertainment of the evening. High scores were held by Mrs. Wilbur Spray and J. G. Duggan and Mrs. Claude Kime and Cleo Morlock held low scores.

A marriage of interest to their friends here was that of Miss Marjorie Dyer of Springfield and Dale Flowers of Medford, which was solemnized last Saturday in Eugene. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Flowers of this city. The young couple will make their home in Medford.

The Latham Community club met last Friday with Mrs. Roy Frye. Afternoon was spent with quilting. Mrs. Hubert Ewing, daughter of Mrs. Frye, was an additional guest. The next meeting will be Friday, February 22, at the home of Mrs. Charles Frye. At this time the year's program will be planned.

The Kensington club pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace at their home on Quincy avenue Wednesday of last week when they gathered and spent the day quilting for Mrs. Wallace. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. Fifteen were present.

The Tanglefoot club will hold its first dance of the second series Monday night in I. O. O. F. hall. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. H. H. Daugherty, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. Elbert Bede, Mrs. Claude Kem and Mrs. F. L. Grannis.

Teacher of Piano and Pipe Organ

The principal difficulty does not consist in the reading of music but in the weakness of the fingers, which is responsible for much fatigue, nervous weakness, and many times utter disgust, but with the aid of our Bohemian finger and wrist gymnastics the student as well as the professional player finds that the principal handicap has been greatly removed.

For the New Beginner
Popular Music

For the benefit of those who wish to play popular music, we teach the well known Shetts course which includes filling in, improvising and harmony. Many people, often through prejudice or misunderstanding, have the idea that if you play popular music, it spoils your touch and technique for the better compositions, but the experience of many of our well known artists have completely disproven this idea beyond question. Explains Dot Over "I"

The letter "I" has not always had a dot over it. This is no original part of the letter, but is derived from a diacritic mark, like an acute accent, used to particularize the "i" in position in which it might have been taken merely for the stroke of another letter. It appears to have begun in Latin manuscripts about the Eleventh century with the "i" in such words as in, and to have thence been extended to "i" in contiguity with "n," "m" or "u," and finally to have been used with "i" in all positions.

Fine Art of Hocking

"I was glad to observe that you were in no way annoyed by that man who heckled."

"He is what I call a good heckler," answered Senator Sorghum. "I carry him with the campaign company."

"He is a friend?"

"More. A faithful servant. I tell him exactly what to say when he heckles, and then we put our heads together to determine how I shall reply with a stroke of smash repartee."—Washington Star.

Shortage of Choirboys

As a result of the World war Cromford, England, has a choirboy shortage. The vicar says the supply has come to an end because very few children were born in the parish between 1914 and 1918.

Skellings List Survival of Old Irish Custom

The Skellings list is at once the dread and the joy of unmarried Irish youths and maidens in Valencia, Ireland, westernmost point of Europe.

The list, the Kansas City Star informs us, is nothing more than a succession of names of such young men and women, but it is supposed to bring them a wife or a husband within a year if their name is upon it.
