

SOCIETY

Mrs. O. F. Woodson entertained Saturday with a 1 o'clock luncheon at Hotel Bartell...

The Tanglefoot club held its second dance of the spring series Monday night in I. O. O. F. hall...

The Tillicum club was entertained Wednesday night by Mrs. D. H. Homaway and Mrs. J. Q. Willets...

The Latham Community club will meet Friday with Mrs. Frank Van Natta...

The Foremost club, consisting of the members of the J. C. Penney store staff, held a dinner Monday night at the Colonial cafe...

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Veitch entertained a group of friends Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Inez Meeks...

Mrs. G. B. Arnold, Mrs. C. A. Conley, Mrs. J. E. Hendricks and Mrs. Welles Hubbell will be hostesses Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist church parlors...

The Eastern star will have a social evening at the close of its business meeting Friday night...

The Delphian society will meet Monday night in the city library and will continue its study of Greek drama.

THORNTON CORNERS

(Special to the Sentinel) March 20.—Mrs. John Howler entertained a number of the women of the neighborhood at her home Friday afternoon...

The M. P. G. club was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Woods. Mrs. Jennie Nichols of San Francisco, Cal., and Mrs. Margaret Wentworth of Combsport, Pa., were guests...

Mrs. John T. Finerman entertained the Tuesday Bridge club with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Colonial cafe Tuesday afternoon...

The W. C. T. U. held a meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Hogate. Memorial services were held for Mrs. Lucinda Meahoy...

The Cooney Hill Ladies' club met last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. John Blake. The club tried a comforter which was donated to the Mothers' club of Cottage Grove...

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Kime entertained at dinner Friday evening, honoring Mrs. Daisy Ann of Portland. Mrs. Carl Penland of Raymond, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Romaine and daughter Betty of Portland, additional guests were Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Garoutte and Chester Wheeler...

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Godard entertained Tuesday evening with a 6 o'clock dinner in celebration of their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Vinal Randall and Rev. Danen P. Cameron...

Plans were made last night by the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters for a covered dish supper to be given tonight in Phillips hall by the two organizations for their families and friends. After the business meeting refreshments will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Farmer...

Mrs. William Funk, a recent bride, was guest of honor at a shower given Friday afternoon by members of her Sunday school class at the home of her teacher, Mrs. N. E. Compton. Many useful gifts were given the guest of honor. Dainty refreshments were served...

The Presbyterian Missionary society will meet at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Wright. Mrs. H. A. Trask will be in charge of the session. She will give a book review on "The Revolt of Asia..."

Members of the Baptist church gathered at the church yesterday for cleanup program and covered dish supper. The afternoon work was spent cleaning the church and following the dinner a social time was enjoyed...

The Utopia club will be entertained Thursday, March 28, at the home of Mrs. F. L. Grannis.

'Round the Circle

The Loren Hunt home above Camp Creek on Row river, destroyed by fire last week, was one of the pioneer home structures of this section...

When the senior Hunt came into the Row river country some 44 years ago, a stately specimen of the western type of manhood, the 200-acre tract he selected, a part of which was bottom land, the remainder reaching back upon the rugged mountain slope, was a forest wilderness...

The junior rings and pine arrived Monday. The evening was spent in the school—where you want to help us. If you want anything of news value about faculty members, students, alumni or anything concerning the school, please see that a member of the staff knows it. The staff consists of Evelyn Shanda, Elmer Allen, Ralph Monroe, Gertrude Cochran, Elvina Longfellow, Mildred Conato and Beth Boie. We will also appreciate having any humorous incidents about students. We thank you. THE STAFF.

Howard Taylor, a former student, entered high school Monday last week as a sophomore from Medford. Viola Strong spent the week end with several promising second string men to uphold the honor of Cottage Grove high next year.

Bert Kerns, athletic coach, is working out with several boys in baseball and regular practice will start as soon as weather permits. Students of the agricultural department are planning to attend a sectional conference and contest at Roseburg April 6. There will be a contest in blacksmithing, soldering...

When Loren Hunt, who took over the ranch a number of years ago, came in from work Monday morning, he took up his routine chore work, the first of which was building a fire, to the end that the house might be warm and supper well on the way by the time the stock feeding was over. Presumably he left a draft of the living room stove open when he left the house for the stock barn, which is around the point of a hill and some distance from the house. Feeding the stock takes better than half an hour. Rounding the point on the return trip Mr. Hunt saw bright sparks flying from the fire-quick, among the stumps he was soon in full sight of the old home, which was brilliant with light. Then he did move up. Anyone who has ever stretched legs with him on a mountain trail can easily determine about how long it took him to get to the old home, by that time well on fire from the inside. Just how and by what ratio of increased emergency strength it was accomplished, he never knew, but he succeeded in getting out his heavy desk, which was well filled with records and some keepsakes he had placed there preceding a recent trip to California. He also succeeded in getting out his bed, which was on the lower floor, by pulling the bedding through a window. The curtains of the bedroom window caught on fire as he pulled the bedding through, and here Hunt was severely burned on one arm. Then he "highjacked" around the house and entered the kitchen. In the few moments left him, he got out some of his laundry and bed clothes, also a pair of logging boots. The old home was then wrapped in flames and smoke. Mr. Hunt was all in from his first run from the barn and from the smoke that had entered his lungs. By this time neighbors were on the scene and measures were immediately taken to save the barn near the house, garage and other buildings. The horse barn caught on fire several times but was put out by the quickly formed bucket brigade.

Some insurance was carried on the house and contents, but Mr. Hunt could not get the amount until he examined his policy in his safety box at the bank. Speaking of the loss, Mr. Hunt placed no great value on the old house beyond the fact that it was home and dear to the heart because of old home ties. "Home ties and family keepsakes," said Mr. Hunt, "cannot be replaced by insurance money, but it will come in handy in the building of a new home." Mr. Hunt feels the loss of 50 tiers of wood which had been put into the woodshed, a two years' supply, 150 quarts of canned fruit and, above all, the picture of his half brother George, who died many years ago. This was the only picture of the young man known to be in existence. Many books were also destroyed as well as five guns, the only gun escaping destruction being a "hot gun," which chanced to be in the desk.

But for the timely arrival of good neighbors the fire would have undoubtedly made a clean sweep of all adjacent buildings. The old orchard, which in its time was one of the best selected in the country, planted by the father years ago, suffered the loss of nearly all the trees after the home.

Our Own Vaudeville. Peggy—Why does Gertrude wear that mouse trip for a lavaliere? Gertrude—She's trying to get rid of that mole on her neck.

Use Our Safe Deposit Vaults. Your Insurance Policies, Deeds, Stocks, Bonds, Contracts and other valuables all should have the protection afforded in our safe deposit vaults.

Bank of Cottage Grove. —today

"Built for Your Protection"

High School Notes

WE WANT NEWS. Students, we want news. All we can get. The paper staff is made up of seven students and we feel cannot get all the news of the school—we want you to help us. If you want anything of news value about faculty members, students, alumni or anything concerning the school, please see that a member of the staff knows it. The staff consists of Evelyn Shanda, Elmer Allen, Ralph Monroe, Gertrude Cochran, Elvina Longfellow, Mildred Conato and Beth Boie. We will also appreciate having any humorous incidents about students. We thank you. THE STAFF.

Howard Taylor, a former student, entered high school Monday last week as a sophomore from Medford. Viola Strong spent the week end with several promising second string men to uphold the honor of Cottage Grove high next year.

Bert Kerns, athletic coach, is working out with several boys in baseball and regular practice will start as soon as weather permits. Students of the agricultural department are planning to attend a sectional conference and contest at Roseburg April 6. There will be a contest in blacksmithing, soldering...

When Loren Hunt, who took over the ranch a number of years ago, came in from work Monday morning, he took up his routine chore work, the first of which was building a fire, to the end that the house might be warm and supper well on the way by the time the stock feeding was over. Presumably he left a draft of the living room stove open when he left the house for the stock barn, which is around the point of a hill and some distance from the house. Feeding the stock takes better than half an hour. Rounding the point on the return trip Mr. Hunt saw bright sparks flying from the fire-quick, among the stumps he was soon in full sight of the old home, which was brilliant with light. Then he did move up. Anyone who has ever stretched legs with him on a mountain trail can easily determine about how long it took him to get to the old home, by that time well on fire from the inside. Just how and by what ratio of increased emergency strength it was accomplished, he never knew, but he succeeded in getting out his heavy desk, which was well filled with records and some keepsakes he had placed there preceding a recent trip to California. He also succeeded in getting out his bed, which was on the lower floor, by pulling the bedding through a window. The curtains of the bedroom window caught on fire as he pulled the bedding through, and here Hunt was severely burned on one arm. Then he "highjacked" around the house and entered the kitchen. In the few moments left him, he got out some of his laundry and bed clothes, also a pair of logging boots. The old home was then wrapped in flames and smoke. Mr. Hunt was all in from his first run from the barn and from the smoke that had entered his lungs. By this time neighbors were on the scene and measures were immediately taken to save the barn near the house, garage and other buildings. The horse barn caught on fire several times but was put out by the quickly formed bucket brigade.

Some insurance was carried on the house and contents, but Mr. Hunt could not get the amount until he examined his policy in his safety box at the bank. Speaking of the loss, Mr. Hunt placed no great value on the old house beyond the fact that it was home and dear to the heart because of old home ties. "Home ties and family keepsakes," said Mr. Hunt, "cannot be replaced by insurance money, but it will come in handy in the building of a new home." Mr. Hunt feels the loss of 50 tiers of wood which had been put into the woodshed, a two years' supply, 150 quarts of canned fruit and, above all, the picture of his half brother George, who died many years ago. This was the only picture of the young man known to be in existence. Many books were also destroyed as well as five guns, the only gun escaping destruction being a "hot gun," which chanced to be in the desk.

Our Own Vaudeville. Peggy—Why does Gertrude wear that mouse trip for a lavaliere? Gertrude—She's trying to get rid of that mole on her neck.

Use Our Safe Deposit Vaults. Your Insurance Policies, Deeds, Stocks, Bonds, Contracts and other valuables all should have the protection afforded in our safe deposit vaults.

Bank of Cottage Grove. —today

"Built for Your Protection"

Kenneth DeVore, sophomore, gave a trombone duet, being accompanied by Elbert Smith at the piano. The sextet from the girls' glee club sang "In Old Carolina." Hazel Veasius, a senior, gave a reading, and Elbert Smith, a sophomore, played a piano solo. An orchestra number was contributed by members of the upper classes. At the end of the program basketball letters were awarded to Glenn Swanson, Alta Kelly, John King, Dale Gates and Kenneth Giff. The Lettermen's club president, Glenn Swanson, presented a shield to Elbert Smith for being honor man in football and one to Kenneth Giff for being honor man in basketball. Each of the boys will have his name engraved under his sport on the honor shield.

Basketball season has closed and Kenneth Giff, John King, Alta Kelly and Glenn Swanson, all first string men, graduate this spring, but Dale Gates, the other first string man, will be back together with several promising second string men to uphold the honor of Cottage Grove high next year.

Bert Kerns, athletic coach, is working out with several boys in baseball and regular practice will start as soon as weather permits. Students of the agricultural department are planning to attend a sectional conference and contest at Roseburg April 6. There will be a contest in blacksmithing, soldering...

When Loren Hunt, who took over the ranch a number of years ago, came in from work Monday morning, he took up his routine chore work, the first of which was building a fire, to the end that the house might be warm and supper well on the way by the time the stock feeding was over. Presumably he left a draft of the living room stove open when he left the house for the stock barn, which is around the point of a hill and some distance from the house. Feeding the stock takes better than half an hour. Rounding the point on the return trip Mr. Hunt saw bright sparks flying from the fire-quick, among the stumps he was soon in full sight of the old home, which was brilliant with light. Then he did move up. Anyone who has ever stretched legs with him on a mountain trail can easily determine about how long it took him to get to the old home, by that time well on fire from the inside. Just how and by what ratio of increased emergency strength it was accomplished, he never knew, but he succeeded in getting out his heavy desk, which was well filled with records and some keepsakes he had placed there preceding a recent trip to California. He also succeeded in getting out his bed, which was on the lower floor, by pulling the bedding through a window. The curtains of the bedroom window caught on fire as he pulled the bedding through, and here Hunt was severely burned on one arm. Then he "highjacked" around the house and entered the kitchen. In the few moments left him, he got out some of his laundry and bed clothes, also a pair of logging boots. The old home was then wrapped in flames and smoke. Mr. Hunt was all in from his first run from the barn and from the smoke that had entered his lungs. By this time neighbors were on the scene and measures were immediately taken to save the barn near the house, garage and other buildings. The horse barn caught on fire several times but was put out by the quickly formed bucket brigade.

Some insurance was carried on the house and contents, but Mr. Hunt could not get the amount until he examined his policy in his safety box at the bank. Speaking of the loss, Mr. Hunt placed no great value on the old house beyond the fact that it was home and dear to the heart because of old home ties. "Home ties and family keepsakes," said Mr. Hunt, "cannot be replaced by insurance money, but it will come in handy in the building of a new home." Mr. Hunt feels the loss of 50 tiers of wood which had been put into the woodshed, a two years' supply, 150 quarts of canned fruit and, above all, the picture of his half brother George, who died many years ago. This was the only picture of the young man known to be in existence. Many books were also destroyed as well as five guns, the only gun escaping destruction being a "hot gun," which chanced to be in the desk.

Our Own Vaudeville. Peggy—Why does Gertrude wear that mouse trip for a lavaliere? Gertrude—She's trying to get rid of that mole on her neck.

Use Our Safe Deposit Vaults. Your Insurance Policies, Deeds, Stocks, Bonds, Contracts and other valuables all should have the protection afforded in our safe deposit vaults.

Bank of Cottage Grove. —today

"Built for Your Protection"

rope splicing, judging, etc. Parents and others interested are urged to attend. Tennis season is approaching and interest in tennis is growing. The juniors have been working on one of the courts and if good weather continues it will soon be in condition for playing. The typing team of Eugene competed with Cottage Grove team in a contest held last Friday afternoon in Cottage Grove high school building. The returns have not yet been received. The Honor society will give Friday's assembly program. This will be a chance to learn the why and wherefore of this society. Some may be astonished to learn that the members submit on something other than quoddy looks. The following names have been elected to the honor roll: Evelyn Smith, freshman, honor roll; Albert Williams, junior, honorable mention. Merle Hockett's name was omitted from the list of one-year members initiated into the Honor society March 1.

The Honor society will give Friday's assembly program. This will be a chance to learn the why and wherefore of this society. Some may be astonished to learn that the members submit on something other than quoddy looks. The following names have been elected to the honor roll: Evelyn Smith, freshman, honor roll; Albert Williams, junior, honorable mention. Merle Hockett's name was omitted from the list of one-year members initiated into the Honor society March 1.

Basketball season has closed and Kenneth Giff, John King, Alta Kelly and Glenn Swanson, all first string men, graduate this spring, but Dale Gates, the other first string man, will be back together with several promising second string men to uphold the honor of Cottage Grove high next year.

Bert Kerns, athletic coach, is working out with several boys in baseball and regular practice will start as soon as weather permits. Students of the agricultural department are planning to attend a sectional conference and contest at Roseburg April 6. There will be a contest in blacksmithing, soldering...

When Loren Hunt, who took over the ranch a number of years ago, came in from work Monday morning, he took up his routine chore work, the first of which was building a fire, to the end that the house might be warm and supper well on the way by the time the stock feeding was over. Presumably he left a draft of the living room stove open when he left the house for the stock barn, which is around the point of a hill and some distance from the house. Feeding the stock takes better than half an hour. Rounding the point on the return trip Mr. Hunt saw bright sparks flying from the fire-quick, among the stumps he was soon in full sight of the old home, which was brilliant with light. Then he did move up. Anyone who has ever stretched legs with him on a mountain trail can easily determine about how long it took him to get to the old home, by that time well on fire from the inside. Just how and by what ratio of increased emergency strength it was accomplished, he never knew, but he succeeded in getting out his heavy desk, which was well filled with records and some keepsakes he had placed there preceding a recent trip to California. He also succeeded in getting out his bed, which was on the lower floor, by pulling the bedding through a window. The curtains of the bedroom window caught on fire as he pulled the bedding through, and here Hunt was severely burned on one arm. Then he "highjacked" around the house and entered the kitchen. In the few moments left him, he got out some of his laundry and bed clothes, also a pair of logging boots. The old home was then wrapped in flames and smoke. Mr. Hunt was all in from his first run from the barn and from the smoke that had entered his lungs. By this time neighbors were on the scene and measures were immediately taken to save the barn near the house, garage and other buildings. The horse barn caught on fire several times but was put out by the quickly formed bucket brigade.

Some insurance was carried on the house and contents, but Mr. Hunt could not get the amount until he examined his policy in his safety box at the bank. Speaking of the loss, Mr. Hunt placed no great value on the old house beyond the fact that it was home and dear to the heart because of old home ties. "Home ties and family keepsakes," said Mr. Hunt, "cannot be replaced by insurance money, but it will come in handy in the building of a new home." Mr. Hunt feels the loss of 50 tiers of wood which had been put into the woodshed, a two years' supply, 150 quarts of canned fruit and, above all, the picture of his half brother George, who died many years ago. This was the only picture of the young man known to be in existence. Many books were also destroyed as well as five guns, the only gun escaping destruction being a "hot gun," which chanced to be in the desk.

Our Own Vaudeville. Peggy—Why does Gertrude wear that mouse trip for a lavaliere? Gertrude—She's trying to get rid of that mole on her neck.

Use Our Safe Deposit Vaults. Your Insurance Policies, Deeds, Stocks, Bonds, Contracts and other valuables all should have the protection afforded in our safe deposit vaults.

Bank of Cottage Grove. —today

"Built for Your Protection"

CULP CREEK. (Special to the Sentinel) March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCollum of Cottage Grove were visitors Wednesday at the home of Mr. McCollum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCollum. Sam Russell, who has been employed at the Anderson & McMillan logging camp here, left last week for Portland, where he will visit several days with friends. Raymond Patten left Thursday for Camp Creek, where he will be employed at the George Wilton sawmill. Miles Weeks of Eugene was a visitor here Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dannewald were business visitors in Eugene Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dyer of Eugene spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Dyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pitecher. Loren Hunt visited Saturday with his father in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitman and daughters Geneva and Lucille were Eugene visitors Saturday. W. W. Howley of Eugene made a trip to the B. M. Hawley ranch on Shapps creek Sunday. Ed Wagner of Camp Creek spent the week end with friends here. Miss Ruth Owens of Cottage Grove visited several days last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lillie Owens. Mrs. Vera Dannewald of Cottage Grove was a visitor at the J. E. Dannewald home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Orel Bilton and children of Cottage Grove called on friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Smith and son Miller of Duval visited Sunday afternoon with relatives here. The McNair brothers read construction blue prints for the contract work on a new piece of road here last week. The new road when completed will extend from Wildwood to Diston on the right bank side of Row river. The old road is on the left side. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Collins and Rex Bennett of Duval were Sunday visitors at the W. B. Patton home. Arthur Striker of Eugene, a Lane county bridge supervisor, was in this vicinity Monday.

CULP CREEK. (Special to the Sentinel) March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCollum of Cottage Grove were visitors Wednesday at the home of Mr. McCollum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCollum. Sam Russell, who has been employed at the Anderson & McMillan logging camp here, left last week for Portland, where he will visit several days with friends. Raymond Patten left Thursday for Camp Creek, where he will be employed at the George Wilton sawmill. Miles Weeks of Eugene was a visitor here Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dannewald were business visitors in Eugene Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dyer of Eugene spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Dyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pitecher. Loren Hunt visited Saturday with his father in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitman and daughters Geneva and Lucille were Eugene visitors Saturday. W. W. Howley of Eugene made a trip to the B. M. Hawley ranch on Shapps creek Sunday. Ed Wagner of Camp Creek spent the week end with friends here. Miss Ruth Owens of Cottage Grove visited several days last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lillie Owens. Mrs. Vera Dannewald of Cottage Grove was a visitor at the J. E. Dannewald home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Orel Bilton and children of Cottage Grove called on friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Smith and son Miller of Duval visited Sunday afternoon with relatives here. The McNair brothers read construction blue prints for the contract work on a new piece of road here last week. The new road when completed will extend from Wildwood to Diston on the right bank side of Row river. The old road is on the left side. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Collins and Rex Bennett of Duval were Sunday visitors at the W. B. Patton home. Arthur Striker of Eugene, a Lane county bridge supervisor, was in this vicinity Monday.

CULP CREEK. (Special to the Sentinel) March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCollum of Cottage Grove were visitors Wednesday at the home of Mr. McCollum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCollum. Sam Russell, who has been employed at the Anderson & McMillan logging camp here, left last week for Portland, where he will visit several days with friends. Raymond Patten left Thursday for Camp Creek, where he will be employed at the George Wilton sawmill. Miles Weeks of Eugene was a visitor here Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dannewald were business visitors in Eugene Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dyer of Eugene spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Dyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pitecher. Loren Hunt visited Saturday with his father in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitman and daughters Geneva and Lucille were Eugene visitors Saturday. W. W. Howley of Eugene made a trip to the B. M. Hawley ranch on Shapps creek Sunday. Ed Wagner of Camp Creek spent the week end with friends here. Miss Ruth Owens of Cottage Grove visited several days last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lillie Owens. Mrs. Vera Dannewald of Cottage Grove was a visitor at the J. E. Dannewald home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Orel Bilton and children of Cottage Grove called on friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Smith and son Miller of Duval visited Sunday afternoon with relatives here. The McNair brothers read construction blue prints for the contract work on a new piece of road here last week. The new road when completed will extend from Wildwood to Diston on the right bank side of Row river. The old road is on the left side. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Collins and Rex Bennett of Duval were Sunday visitors at the W. B. Patton home. Arthur Striker of Eugene, a Lane county bridge supervisor, was in this vicinity Monday.

CULP CREEK. (Special to the Sentinel) March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCollum of Cottage Grove were visitors Wednesday at the home of Mr. McCollum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCollum. Sam Russell, who has been employed at the Anderson & McMillan logging camp here, left last week for Portland, where he will visit several days with friends. Raymond Patten left Thursday for Camp Creek, where he will be employed at the George Wilton sawmill. Miles Weeks of Eugene was a visitor here Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dannewald were business visitors in Eugene Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dyer of Eugene spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Dyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pitecher. Loren Hunt visited Saturday with his father in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitman and daughters Geneva and Lucille were Eugene visitors Saturday. W. W. Howley of Eugene made a trip to the B. M. Hawley ranch on Shapps creek Sunday. Ed Wagner of Camp Creek spent the week end with friends here. Miss Ruth Owens of Cottage Grove visited several days last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lillie Owens. Mrs. Vera Dannewald of Cottage Grove was a visitor at the J. E. Dannewald home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Orel Bilton and children of Cottage Grove called on friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Smith and son Miller of Duval visited Sunday afternoon with relatives here. The McNair brothers read construction blue prints for the contract work on a new piece of road here last week. The new road when completed will extend from Wildwood to Diston on the right bank side of Row river. The old road is on the left side. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Collins and Rex Bennett of Duval were Sunday visitors at the W. B. Patton home. Arthur Striker of Eugene, a Lane county bridge supervisor, was in this vicinity Monday.

CULP CREEK. (Special to the Sentinel) March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCollum of Cottage Grove were visitors Wednesday at the home of Mr. McCollum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCollum. Sam Russell, who has been employed at the Anderson & McMillan logging camp here, left last week for Portland, where he will visit several days with friends. Raymond Patten left Thursday for Camp Creek, where he will be employed at the George Wilton sawmill. Miles Weeks of Eugene was a visitor here Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dannewald were business visitors in Eugene Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dyer of Eugene spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Dyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pitecher. Loren Hunt visited Saturday with his father in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitman and daughters Geneva and Lucille were Eugene visitors Saturday. W. W. Howley of Eugene made a trip to the B. M. Hawley ranch on Shapps creek Sunday. Ed Wagner of Camp Creek spent the week end with friends here. Miss Ruth Owens of Cottage Grove visited several days last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lillie Owens. Mrs. Vera Dannewald of Cottage Grove was a visitor at the J. E. Dannewald home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Orel Bilton and children of Cottage Grove called on friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Smith and son Miller of Duval visited Sunday afternoon with relatives here. The McNair brothers read construction blue prints for the contract work on a new piece of road here last week. The new road when completed will extend from Wildwood to Diston on the right bank side of Row river. The old road is on the left side. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Collins and Rex Bennett of Duval were Sunday visitors at the W. B. Patton home. Arthur Striker of Eugene, a Lane county bridge supervisor, was in this vicinity Monday.

Tru-Bake Crackers

In Orange Cartons, Wax Wrapt

With Tru-Blu master bakers, the production of Tru-Bake Crackers is a religion. "Good enough" won't do. Tru-Bakes must be best. From setting the sponge to the final baking, every step is regulated to a nicety. Resulting in a cracker that's distinctive in shape and flavor, perfect in bake. . . Tru-Blu in quality. Ask for Tru-Bakes.

Baked and Guaranteed First Quality by the TRU-BLU BISCUIT CO., Spokane, Portland, Seattle. Originators of Tru-Bakes and Tru-Blu Honey-Sweetened Grahams.

KNOWLES & GRABER HARDWARE. Cottage Grove Oregon

AL JOLSON "The Singing Fool" with BETTY BRONSON and JOSEPHINE DUNN. ALSO A TALKING ACT INTERNATIONAL NEWS. ADMISSION 10c AND 50c

SKAGGS SAFEWAY STORES. Distribution Without Waste. Being "Human" Is a Trait of Your Safeway Man. For Week Ending Saturday, March 23. Milk, Crux Oleo, Sugar, Salad Oil, Flour, Shortening, Apricots, Cheese, Peaches, Peas, Pickles, Oranges, Prunes, Hams, Carrots.