Caton-Sailey.

A charming home wedding was an event of Sunday afternoon, May 5, when Miss Henshaw Sailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sailey, was united in marriage to Cecil Caton. The hour was 3 o'clock and Rev. L. H. Randle officiated with the ring ceremony. Miss Frances Mackin played the wedding march and the couple was attended by Miss Geneva Shattuck and Orville Hazen. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of flesh colored chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweetpeas. Miss Shattuck was a bridesmaid in figure chiffon. A reception followed the ceremony and dinner was served to the bride party and immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Mrs. Randle and Ed Heck were additional guests. Mrs. Caton is a member of the 1929 graduating class of the local high school, having completed the course at mid-year. Mr. Caton was graduated from Cottage Grove high school in 1927 and is now associated with the Skaggs-Sawey store. The young couple will reside in the Villard Court apartments.

The following officers were elected for the coming year at the Constellation club's annual meeting held last Thursday. Mrs. Schaffeld Stewart, president; Mrs. Merville Veatch, vice president; Mrs. W. E. Lebow, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Lebow served in the same office last year. Mrs. A. A. Richmond, retiring president, was presented with a beautiful silver vase as a token of appreciation for the efficient service rendered during her term of office. It was planned to have the next meeting, which will be June 3, a picnic and to hold it in the Woodson auto park. Following a social hour dainty refreshments were served by a hostess committee, composed of Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. J. S. Stewart, Mrs. O. E. Amest, Mrs. A. A. Richmond, Orville and Iris of corresponding shades were attractive decorations.

Mrs. Frank Hawkins entertained Friday afternoon, complimenting a daughter, Mrs. Guy McFerrin, on her birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent socially with needlework and at bedtime dainty refreshments were served. The honor guest was recipient of a number of beautiful gifts. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. H. A. Whitney and Mrs. William Skaggsberg of Drain, Mrs. Walter Houser of Eugene, Mrs. N. E. Compton, Mrs. Alcinda Hawkins, Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mrs. J. Q. Willis, Mrs. Jean Saffr, Mrs. Ethel Applewhite, Mrs. Matilda Kohl, Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. Carrie Hemenway and the honor guest.

The Research club met Tuesday night for their regular study hour. James Branch Cabell's novel, "The Cream of the Jest," was the program topic, conforming with the outlined study of contemporary American novels. A general program was arranged and each member took part. Criticisms from the University of Oregon on papers of the previous meeting were read and Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall, club president, gave an interesting report on the district meeting of federated clubs held in Roseburg on April 25. Mrs. Mendenhall was a delegate to the convention.

Mrs. H. B. Griggs entertained the La Comas club Tuesday afternoon at which time annual election of officers was held. Mrs. Harry Metcalf was elected president, Mrs. H. A. Miller, vice president, and Mrs. N. E. Glass, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. C. A. Seftell, retiring president, presented each member with a dainty sachet bag. At the close of the afternoon a tempting luncheon was served. Bowls of colorful spring flowers were cheerful decorations. Mrs. Laura McKernan, mother of Mrs. Griggs, was an additional guest.

Mrs. Vinal Randall was program leader at Delphin chapter meeting Monday night and gave a summary of the lesson, "Examples of Medieval Drama." Topics under this subject were "The Liturgy Dramatized," Mrs. R. A. Trask; "The Guild Pageant," Mrs. C. E. Umphrey; "A Comedy," dell "Arte Play," Mrs. Elbert Bode. Mrs. John Kelly gave a dramatic reading and the Morality play, "Everyman," was read by members of the society.

Mrs. Victor Chambers was hostess for the Elmarites club Tuesday. A 1 o'clock luncheon was held at the Colonial cafe after which the guests went to the home of Mrs. Chambers for bridge. At cards Mrs. Charles Hall held high score. Mrs. George Matthews and Mrs. John Kelly were welcomed as new members. Special guests entertained with the club were Mrs. C. H. Roberts and Mrs. W. H. Daugherty.

Mrs. and Mrs. Milton Ross entertained at dinner Sunday, honoring their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Ross, on their twelfth wedding anniversary. Mrs. Ross presented the honor couple with a beautiful hand-picked quilt. Guest present were Mr. and Mrs. John Ross and daughter Helen and sons Leonard Ray and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sorenson and sons Thomas and Eugene.

The marriage of Samuel M. Brown and Miss Rose E. Smith was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church in partnership with Rev. W. J. Morrow performing the ceremony. Mr. Brown is associated with the Nelson Motor company in the service department and the young couple will reside at 518 North Tenth street.

The C. C. C. club, a social club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, held a no-hostess meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Horace Hatch. At the close of an interesting session of bridge a delicious supper was served.

The Utopia club will meet Thursday, May 23, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Frost. The meeting will be a week earlier than the regular date which is on Memorial day.

The Tuesday Bridge club will be entertained next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Lombard.

Mrs. James P. Graham and Mrs. S. V. Allison will be hostesses Monday afternoon in Masonic hall for the Past Matrons' club.

Mrs. Ivan Barker, who recently moved to Oakland to make her home, was the honor guest for an afternoon of bridge Friday at which the Elmarites club entertained the Colonial and invited the following friends of Mrs. Barker as guests for the pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Cleo Morelock, Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. C. J. Kent, Mrs. C. A. Bartlett, Mrs. Elmer Neet, Mrs. O. E. Woodson, Mrs. C. H. Kime, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Glen Haney, Mrs. R. Morris, Mrs. Carl Witte, Mrs. Fred Bennett, Mrs. Jean Dungan, Mrs. Herbert Ross, Mrs. F. H. Allison, Mrs. William Bartlett, Mrs. L. Crawford, Mrs. Harold Whitlock, Mrs. C. C. Cruson, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Miss Bertha Howe, Miss Marlene Strader and Mrs. W. W. Lattie. At cards Mrs. Swanson held high score and Mrs. Morelock was second high. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. Wild currant blossoms and anemones were colorful decorations. Mrs. Barker was presented with a beautiful picture of Crater lake by her club sisters.

Mrs. Omer Moore, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woodard entertained the Gleason class of the Methodist Sunday school in the church parlors Friday night. The rooms were especially attractive with ferns, wild anemone and tulips. For the evening's entertainment the guests were divided in groups, each with the name of a popular make of automobile. Contests were arranged relative to the uses of cars and the overall group was declared winner. At a late hour refreshments were served picnic style in lunch baskets. Partners were found by matching flowers. The class held a short business meeting and elected the following officers: Mrs. Herbert Broadlove, president; Mrs. A. Brand, vice president; N. E. Compton, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Selma of Dee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard, was a special guest for the evening.

One hundred and seventy-five persons responded to the invitation of the community men's bible class to attend an entertainment held Thursday night in L. O. O. F. hall. Included in the guest list were the families of class members and a few intimate friends. E. J. Kent arranged the program and presided at the meeting. The program was as follows: "America" by the audience; prayer by Rev. I. G. Shaw; violin selection by Verne Chad, accompanied by Mrs. Jewell; readings by Lois Wilson, Mrs. Ada Oakes and Rupert Shaw; address by Rev. Shaw. A number of pep songs were sung by the group during the evening. The singing was led by William McLean of Eugene choir director. The American Legion drum corps was present and contributed several numbers to the evening's entertainment.

The Keepers of the Den pleasantly surprised Mrs. Roy Short, club president, at her home Monday night, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Husbands of the club members were additional guests. Games and music furnished entertainment for the evening. A committee had carefully selected costumes of various description and slips telling each guest the style of costume they were to wear were handed out. They later appeared dressed in the garb provided. Many clever impersonations were given including those of the flapper, shiek, farmer, old maid, fisherman, bride, etc. Each member of the club brought a picnic lunch for two which was served in camp fashion. The honor guest, George Marksbury, whose birthday anniversary was Sunday, cut birthday cakes. Mrs. Short was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Gerald C. Goodman and Miss Marjorie M. Cochran, both of Roseburg, were quietly married Saturday afternoon, May 4, at 4 o'clock at the Christian church parsonage. Rev. I. G. Shaw performed the ceremony and the couple left the same afternoon for Roseburg to make their home. Miss Cochran is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cochran, former residents of Cottage Grove, and is the granddaughter of both Mrs. Sarah Cochran and Mrs. Emma Porter of this city. She attended the Cottage Grove schools but was graduated from the Roseburg high school after her removal to that city.

Mrs. O. M. Miller was hostess Friday night for a meeting of the Joker club. She entertained at the Colonial cafe with four tables of bridge and invited as special guests, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. James P. Graham, Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. W. J. Woods, Mrs. R. L. Stewart, Mrs. Inez Meeks, Mrs. W. B. Johnston and Mrs. George Knowles. At the close of the evening a luncheon was served.

Willis U. Garman and Elva L. Powell were united in marriage last Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. I. G. Shaw, pastor of the Christian church. Rev. Shaw performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride couple. Mr. and Mrs. Garman will make their home at London.

The degree team of the Craftsman club of the University of Oregon attended a special session of the Masonic lodge here Friday night. The Craftsman club and past masters of the Cottage Grove lodge were in charge of degree work. A committee from the Constellation club served refreshments at the close of the lodge meeting.

The La Merced Point club met Saturday afternoon for a no-hostess meeting. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served at the Colonial cafe and later the guests went to the home of Mrs. Fred Anderson for bridge. Mrs. George Witt held high score. During the afternoon a shower was given Mrs. Harold Whitlock.

Mrs. K. K. Mills, Miss Lola Howe and Mrs. L. H. Randle attended an entertainment of the Victory circle of the Baptist church in Eugene Tuesday evening. Miss Howe is a member of the circle and Mrs. Randle was on the program for the meeting.

Following the regular session of the Pythian Sisters lodge Wednesday night a benefit dance will be held. Dancing will begin at 8:30.

The annual children's night entertainment of the Eastern Star will be held May 24 instead of May 10 as previously announced.

Plans for a community meeting, to be held in Latham by the community club in cooperation with the "hostess" committee and the Parent-Teachers' association, were discussed at the Latham community club meeting held Friday at the home of Mrs. Melville Hanna. A dinner will be served preceding the meeting and an exhibition of hand work by the Latham people would be featured. At the same time a better babies' contest will be held. The date has not been set but probably will be late in May. Mrs. Roy Frye read a paper on the early care of children and a general discussion followed an article on rural kindergarten read by Mrs. Roscoe Yearous. Club sentiment favoring a kindergarten in Latham, to be established under the new kindergarten law, was evident. Mrs. Franklin Green was a club guest for the afternoon. The next meeting will be held Friday, May 17, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Johnson.

Miss Lois Godard entertained a group of young people at her home Monday evening, celebrating her birthday anniversary. Games on the lawn were a feature of the entertainment for the early hours and later the guests were invited into the house, where delicious refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Alberta Williams, Donna Bartlett, Maxine Nelson, Jean Allison, Elsie Jacobson, Carolyn Granis, Genevieve Meranda, Mary Vinson, Kathleen Beidler, Madeline Beidler and Beth Bode, and Kenneth Williams, Cecil Ames, Lawrence Kelly, Kenneth Huff, Dale Gates, Kenneth Ward, Glen McKibben, Glen Ames, Alton Woodard, Harold Cooley, Howard Jacobson and Earl Wise.

The Methodist missionary society met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Harry Hart and observed the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the women's foreign missionary society. Mrs. E. E. Cone and Mrs. Albert Woodard were hostesses for the afternoon. An invoice collection was received which amounted to $14.80. Mrs. J. W. Morrow led the devotionals, Mrs. N. E. Compton was program leader for the general topic, "Personality." Mrs. S. L. Mackin read a paper entitled "Weavers of Peace" and Mrs. Roy Leonard sang a solo. Mrs. Joe Landis and Mrs. Harvey Taylor joined the society as new members and Mrs. Scott Squires and Mrs. John Cherry were special guests.

At the Monday night meeting of the American Legion auxiliary the committee in charge of the refreshment booth at the industrial exhibit reported a sum of $20 had been cleared. A plan to remember the gold star mothers on Mothers' day will be carried out. The evening was spent in tagging poppies to be placed on sale prior to Memorial day. The auxiliary will take charge of decorating the Methodist camp-meeting pavilion for Memorial Sunday when a union Memorial day service will be held.

The advisory board of the Cottage Grove assembly of the Order of Rainbow for Girls met Thursday to act upon the resignation of Mrs. Charles Beidler as mother advisor to the assembly. Mrs. H. B. Griggs was elected to take the place of Mrs. Beidler.

The Carnation club held its regular meeting Tuesday night at the Colonial cafe. The committee in charge was composed of Miss Lena Wells, Miss Naomi Hilton, Mrs. Cleo Morelock and Miss Bertha Howe. At bridge Miss Bethel Gowdy held high score and Mrs. Virgil Gowdy held second high. At the close of the session a "dutch treat" luncheon was served.

The missionary society of the Christian church held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. The afternoon was given over to the study of Tithes and Mrs. Gowing was leader. Eighteen were present. Nomination of officers, scheduled for yesterday's meeting, was postponed until the next meeting. Dainty refreshments were served by a hostess committee composed of Mrs. Roy Hands, Mrs. William Morelock and Mrs. Hayes.

Mrs. B. R. Job, Mrs. Charles Beidler, Mrs. George Jacobson and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt were hostesses for the Presbyterian ladies' aid society at the church parlors Wednesday. Plans were completed for the cooked food sale to be held next Saturday at the South Shore grocery. General business was discussed and a social hour followed. Contests were an interesting form of entertainment. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson DeYoung entertained informally at dinner Wednesday for a group of relatives. The evening was spent playing bridge.

Mrs. H. A. Miller will entertain the O. L. H. club at her home Tuesday for the regular meeting. City Council Hears Reports. Plans for a rigid check of water usage during irrigation season were included in the report submitted by the water committee at Monday night's meeting of the city council. It is the desire of the committee that so far as possible, every user shall pay the same rate for the same service. The committee also directed that in cases where an occupant of business property uses a portion of such place for residential purposes, having water service in both the place of business and the portion used for residential purposes, there shall be two charges for service, the second service being at the same rate as for added apartments in private dwellings. The recommendation of the street committee on the vacation of a strip of land on North Lane street was adopted with the understanding that any expense incurred shall be stood by Godard & Randall. Two ordinances were passed providing for the construction of sidewalk on the west side of Cherry court between Tibbels and Wood avenues and on the north side of Birch avenue between G and H streets.

An ordinance governing radios was again laid on the table until the next regular meeting. Plans were made for retiring several improvement bonds and to provide a reserve fund for paying off sewer bonds.
