

SOCIETY

An enjoyable occasion of last week was a "mothers' and daughters' banquet" at 7 o'clock Thursday in the Baptist church. Sixty-one were present, and of these Mrs. Mahala Teeters, 81 years, was the oldest mother and little Miss Jennie Maxine Allen, one year, was the youngest daughter. Mrs. Hinson, Mrs. A. Baker and Melvina Baker were a three-generation group present and Mrs. Mahala Teeters, Mrs. A. L. Woodard, Mrs. Ida Caldwell and Mrs. Mary Blake were four great-grandmothers. Mrs. L. H. Easdale acted as toastmaster and the following program was given: "Great Mothers of History," Mrs. Harry McCall; "Great Mothers of the Bible," Mrs. Ponsford; "What Makes Daughters Great," Mrs. Truman Clark; closing number, a song, "Tell Mother I'm Here," by the group. During the dinner course the mothers and daughters told jokes concerning each other. The fathers and sons served the dinner and washed the dishes afterward.

The Social Twelve club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. H. Hoskins. Mrs. J. H. Chambers gave an interesting report of the district convention of federated clubs held April 25 in Roseburg. In response to roll call club members and guests were singing United States cabinet members. A sum of ten dollars was voted to the Doernbecher hospital and two sheets were donated to the health group chest. Needlework and conversation were pleasant throughout the afternoon and later a dainty luncheon was served. Purple lilacs were table decorations and baskets of tulips and dogwood added to the attractiveness of the living room.

The Missionary society of the Methodist church will entertain the women's foreign missionary societies of the northern part of this district at the church tomorrow. An all-day session will be held and a covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Mrs. S. V. Allison and Mrs. James P. Graham were hostesses Monday afternoon for the Past Mothers' club. Guests were entertained in the Masonic club rooms which were attractively decorated with baskets of apple blossoms, dogwood and snap dragon. Meeting with the club were Mrs. Charles Beidler, honor guest, and Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. J. H. Hunt of Cordova, Mrs. J. H. Hunt and Mrs. George Scott of Eugene, a former member of the club. At the close of a social hour a delicious luncheon was served. The luncheon table centerpiece was a basket of pink sweet peas and pink tapers completed the color scheme.

Degree work for eight candidates was exemplified by the new members of Woodcraft at their regular meeting Monday night. The new members are Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Brown, W. O. Wilson, Vincent Gillespie, Horace Hatch, Carl Peterson, Mae Tomlin and Bob Kennedy. Following the lodge session a supper was served and Mrs. Harold Wolfard, Mrs. Lydia Sears, Miss Doris Lebow and Mrs. Velma Sears were honored guests in celebration of their birthday anniversaries. The refreshment committee was Mrs. Mary Gillespie, Mrs. Eva Hatch, Mrs. Anna Graham and Mrs. Della Hatch. They were assisted by Mrs. Nancy Oglesby, Mrs. Paul Morgan, Mrs. Rosa Curran and Mrs. C. A. Stevens, who provided the birthday cakes.

A W. C. T. U. meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles Caldwell. The program was in observance of Mothers' day. Mrs. F. F. Wells led the devotionals and each member gave a brief talk paying tribute to mother. Mrs. Harry Hart sang a solo, "A Mother's Love." Plans relative to "flower mission" day, which will be observed June 14, were discussed. The June meeting will be with Mrs. N. E. Compton.

The W. R. C. met Saturday afternoon in I. O. O. F. hall following the usual form of business. Mrs. Minnie Ashby was initiated into membership. The silk flag purchased by the corps for the boy scout drum corps was displayed. The flag is a 5-foot by 3-foot size and will be used by the scouts for the first time in the Memorial day parade. Four dozen silk flags have been purchased for school children to use in the parade. Plans for the Memorial day program were formulated. A luncheon will be served that day in I. O. O. F. hall for the corps.

The Presbyterian missionary society will be entertained Wednesday afternoon, May 22, at the home of Mrs. Schofield Stewart.

Mrs. J. E. Haney entertained the Mothers' club Thursday for an all-day session at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Goldabini, near Anlauf. W. L. Leonard of the Leonard Transfer company furnished transportation for the women. During the day the members quilted a quilt for Mrs. Haney. They have sold two quilts made at previous meetings and have an order to fill at their next meeting. Mrs. Rosa Curran reported that 12 garments, six pairs of shoes and four hats had been given out since the last meeting. There is a demand for clothing and the club will appreciate any donations, which may be left at the home of Mrs. Curran on Sixth street. Roy Short has offered the club the use of a room at the rear of a house he owns on Sixth street for a storage place for their clothing supply and the club will consider taking the offer. Mr. Short would lease the room free of rent. At noon a bounteous dinner was served to 34 club members, four children and six guests. Guests were Mrs. T. E. Roberts, Mrs. William Perini, Mrs. Louis Wertz, Mrs. Goldabini and Mrs. M. Perini, all of Anlauf, and Mrs. Chaney of Iowa, house guest of Mrs. I. A. Randall. Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Frank Anlauf and Mrs. Stevens were received as new members. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. D. C. Bosley.

Mrs. H. A. Miller entertained the O. L. H. club at her home Tuesday, inviting as additional guests Mrs. H. B. Griggs, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. W. E. Lebow, Mrs. J. C. Johnson of Gold Beach, mother of Mrs. Lebow, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. T. C. Miller, Mrs. O. E. Woodson, Mrs. C. P. Hoskins, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. George Jacobson, Mrs. Nelson Durham, Mrs. S. L. Godard, Mrs. A. A. Richmond and Mrs. N. E. Glass. At bridge during the afternoon Mrs. W. W. McFarland held high score for club members and Mrs. Wheeler held high score for guests. Mrs. Griggs held high score. The hostess served a tempting two-course luncheon. Vases of vari-colored spring flowers were attractive decorations about the rooms.

Mrs. Henry Mason was an honored guest last Monday night when a group of friends gathered at her home for a covered dish supper to celebrate her birthday anniversary. The table was artistically decorated with blue forget-me-nots and a birthday cake with blue and white candles. Mrs. Mason's 53rd birthday was celebrated. A tempting dish of the menu was a trout of 25-pound salmon caught in the Umpqua river by Mr. Mason. The honor guest was given a beautiful covered dish. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fallerton and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Keitzer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. William Hogate, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright and the Mason family.

Mrs. A. L. Wynne was hostess Tuesday afternoon for the M. P. G. club, inviting as special guests Mrs. Elbert Beale and Mrs. Vinal Bay. A pleasant social afternoon was spent with needlework and conversation. The rooms were attractive with purple irises and red poppies. A dainty luncheon was served in the late afternoon.

Mrs. R. L. Cone was hostess last Thursday for the Ad Libitum club. At the close of a pleasant social afternoon a dainty luncheon was served. Baskets of tulips and baskets of apple blossoms were used in decorating the luncheon table and rooms. The club will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. Earl Cone.

The Utopia club will be entertained next Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Frost.

Claude V. Abene and Uleta R. Miller were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Christian church, parsonage. Rev. I. G. Shaw performed the ceremony. Mr. John Small and Mrs. Henry Hess witnessed the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Abene will reside in the Latham community.

A large number attended a program presented by the Eagles lodge in I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday night, honoring mothers. Loren Harvey, deputy grand president of the order, presided and a splendid program of songs, plays and recitations was given. Dr. Taylor, field representative of Albany college, was an out-of-town visitor and gave the closing prayer.

At a meeting Monday night of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, Alberta Williams was elected worthy adviser. Other officers elected were Beth Beale, associate worthy adviser; Louise Wynne, charter; Donna Bartel, helper; Elsie Johnson, faith. Other officers are appointive and will be announced later. Mrs. H. B. Griggs was installed as mother adviser to take the place of Mrs. Charles Beidler. At the close of the assembly refreshments were served. The girls were served in groups of fours, each group being given a picnic basket containing their lunch. The house committee was composed of Frances Mackin, Madeline Beidler, Elsie Jacobsen, Evelyn Smith, Louise Wynne and Betty Jacobson.

A group of friends pleasantly surprised Mrs. C. E. Frost Monday night when they called at her home in honor of her birthday anniversary. The evening hours were spent playing bridge and at a late hour refreshments were served. The honor guest was presented with a gift.

The Bohman Camp Fire group No. 1, met Wednesday afternoon in their meeting room at the city hall. Following the resignation of Eugene Moran, president, Helen Jones was elected to fill the vacancy. Other new officers of the group are Dorothy Baldwin, vice president; Erna Bennett, secretary; Minnie Henriksen, treasurer; Marie Cooley, social secretary. An invitation to march in the Memorial day parade was accepted and plans were made for a Chinese tea to be given on a date following the close of the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Olson entertained with a dinner party Tuesday evening at their home on Ash avenue, honoring their daughter Helen, a member of the senior class of the Cottage Grove high school. Those invited included all members of the 1929 class, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. William Thum, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Granau and Miss Olson's teachers, Miss Myrtle Kern, Miss Elsie Larsen, Hannah Lewis and Miss Elsa Nilson. The class colors, old rose and silver, were effectively carried out in the decorations. Sweet peas in shades of rose formed centerpieces for the tables and silver candle holders with rose tapers added to the setting. Festoons of rose and silver crepe paper were intertwined and suspended from the ceiling of the room. After the guests were seated at the tables Miss Olson welcomed them in a charming manner. After the dinner Mrs. Thum and Mr. Granau gave brief talks. The class had graduated from the eighth grade with Mrs. Thum as their principal and she read a list of the members at that time. Many had left school and moved from the city and others had entered to take their places. School songs were sung and cheers were given. Mr. and Mrs. Olson and Miss Helen were assisted in serving by her daughter Ruth and a group of her classmates.

Mrs. Charles Caldwell entertained as dinner guests Wednesday of last week, Duncan P. Cameron, Charles Jackson and Cecil Caldwell.

Members of the Needlecraft club motored to Oakland Friday at the invitation of Mrs. Ivan Barker, a former club member, and spent the afternoon at her home. A luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and the afternoon hours were spent with needlework. For decorations the hostess used red carnations. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. William Bartels.

Miss Ramona Moore, teacher at the west side school, was united in marriage Saturday to Arthur May
