

Nearby News

SILK CREEK.

(Special to the Sentinel.) June 10.—The Neighbors Friend-ship club met for an all-day session Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ed Conklin on the Curtis Vench ranch. About 12 members were present and the time was spent quilting a comforter for Miss Leila Conklin. A delicious dinner was served at noon. In the afternoon a business meeting was held and was led by Mrs. M. E. Paul, new vice president, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Clarence Rowe. The next club meeting will be on Thursday, June 20, at the Paul home on the old Sparks ranch. Word has been received that Miss Zaida Estes, third daughter of David Estes, former resident of this district and now of Loma Linda, Cal., is to be married June 16 to Dr. Rodney Woods, graduate of the Loma Linda medical college. The latter expects to do his intern work in Seattle and the young couple will make their home in that city. Mrs. Orla Scott of Independence visited the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shad Burcham. She brought her cousin, Miss Mildred Scott of Monmouth. They returned home Sunday. Mrs. John Ashby was pleasantly surprised Friday when a daughter, Mrs. Leslie Godard, who is living at Lake of the Woods, where her husband is employed for the summer, arrived home bringing with her a niece of Mr. Ashby, Mrs. Elsie Young, and two children of Myrtle Creek, and also a friend, Mrs. Abey. Mrs. Godard went to Eugene Saturday for her sister, Mrs. Pearl Parks, and two small sons. The latter visited over Sunday. Little Keith Parks celebrated his fourth birthday Monday, June 10. D. T. Kimball is planning to enlarge his home as soon as weather permits building. Members of the S. D. A. church in this district joined and went to the young people's afternoon meeting in Cottage Grove Saturday. Among those who attended the meeting were the families of E. R. Darnell, M. E. Hoffman and J. D. Grimes. Mrs. Nettie Estes and son Leonard, Frances and Bertha Kimball, Mr. Platz and a brother, Mrs. Platz and the latter's wife of Portland, Collin and Willis Morris of Waltherville, who had attended the local service here Saturday forenoon visited with friends during the day. Elder Roberts of Eugene conducted the morning service at the S. D. A. church Saturday. He also attended the Cottage Grove meeting in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stevens of Eugene visited Saturday with Mrs. Stevens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Teeters. They returned Sunday morning to attend the University commencement service. Frank Peoples has purchased a Ford truck and is now a traveling representative for a health products company. Mrs. J. W. McCoy is recovering from a fractured knee and is now able to walk with crutches. Mrs. E. R. Darnell and two daughters spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wheeler. Mrs. Wheeler gave a birthday party that day for a daughter, Frances. A merry time was had and a delicious luncheon of sandwiches, salad and cake was served. Among those present were Rachel Collins, Ruth Roberts, Eleanor Teeters, Corinne Rowe, Bertie Kimball, Marion, Margaret and Keith Babcock, Mrs. Wilbur Collins and small daughter Lorraine, Mrs. Ed Babcock, Mrs. E. R. Darnell and two daughters Zaida Berne and Mary Jean. Mr. and Mrs. Newman and two children of Salem visited Sunday with Mrs. Nettie Estes. Mrs. Roberts and small daughter Ruth, who had been staying with Mrs. Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Vincent, have gone to Eugene to live. Mrs. Roberts expects her other children Elmer and Isabel of Forsythe, Mont., to join her this week. Mr. Roberts plans to join them later. Mrs. Chisholm, who had made an extended visit with a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Teeters, expects to leave June 12 for Salem, where she will visit with friends for a few days before leaving for her home in Astoria. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Allen are making preparations for their trip to Yakima. They plan to start this week. W. S. Averill, agricultural instructor in the Cottage Grove high school, was out June 10 to inspect John Woolcott's agricultural project of a 1/2 acre strawberries. John O. Burcham took his mother, Mrs. Mary Burcham, to Eugene Monday to the university commencement exercises. They returned that evening, bringing with them Miss Lena Burcham, who had been studying at the university this winter.

Elisha Geer of Black Butte is visiting a brother, Albert Geer in Vancouver, B. C. Miss Effie Buchanan of Cottage Grove was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher. LATHAM. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 13.—Mrs. Ray Gouley, niece of L. W. McKibben, with Mr. Gouley visited recently at the McKibben home. Mrs. Susan Castle and Mrs. Albert Hall visited Monday with Mrs. John Truett. Mrs. L. W. McKibben and children called Monday on the McKibben family. A truck owned by Swift & Company crashed into the south Sixth street bridge last week, tearing off several boards. The truck did not go through into the river. J. F. Barnes, who had to quit mill work some time ago because of cedar poisoning is working at the Black Butte mines. Recent visitors at the J. W. Madley home were Mr. Madley's two sisters, Mrs. Ed Black of Langlois and Mrs. Katherine Talanglois of Portland, and a friend, Irving Doucette of Roseburg. Mrs. W. S. Keyes and Mrs. L. W. McKibben visited last week with Mrs. J. L. Igans in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Melville Hann and children spent one day last week with Mrs. Hanna's parents at Mount View. His mother is seriously ill. Mrs. Mary Ann Williams with her son Vern of Yoncalla visited Monday at the home of a sister, Mrs. Jess Truett. The Lester Van Nortwick family of London spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Van Nortwick's sister, Mrs. John Truett. The Melville Hanna family went to Eugene Saturday evening. A. E. Walker went to Gardiner Saturday night with a group of local Masons. Mrs. Gladys Ely is quarantined with a light case of scarlet fever at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Chapman. The regular annual meeting of the Latham school district will be held at the school house at 8 o'clock Monday, June 17. BLUE MOUNTAIN. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brumbaugh are here from The Dalles and are visiting at the Dan Brumbaugh home. Frank Miller and Mrs. Thoma Miller motored to Elsie Sunday and visited at the Wade Watts home. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gouley and children of Albany arrived Friday evening and visited at the James Lebow home. All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Lebow were at home Sunday but Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tonn of Stinson. There were 21 there for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Highline of Eugene held services at the Blue Mountain school Sunday. Five young people from the Lighthouse temple of Eugene came with them and gave a musical program. Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Lasater and son of Cottage Grove were guests Sunday at the Leo Dugan home. Mr. Winters has returned home from visiting in Seattle with his daughters Bess and Evelyn. Little Harold Jones is suffering with an attack of asthma. Truman Leader is building a garage on his homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brumbaugh visited Sunday at the Tom Cox home in Cottage Grove. SAGINAW. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Johnson are the parents of a daughter, born June 4. Mrs. Charles Sharon severely cut a foot on a cyclone day last week. The injury is said to be healing satisfactorily. E. H. Koch is convalescing from a severe attack of smallpox. This is the first case reported in this place in recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Silkwood, newlyweds, joined the throng of strawberry pickers who recently left here for fields in the north. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of Spring field visited Sunday at the home of Harold Boston. Farmers and other residents of this vicinity welcomed the showers of the past week and are looking forward to good crop yields as a result. Dowsy Fogle made a business trip to Marshfield last Sunday, returning Monday. George Fogle of Roseburg spent Sunday here at the home of a brother Dowsy. Mary Alma Bonston is visiting this week at Thornton Corners with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Koenig.

Pastor and Mrs. I. G. Shaw of the Grove visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. M. Tison. Miss Effie Buchanan of Cottage Grove was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher. LATHAM. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 13.—Mrs. Ray Gouley, niece of L. W. McKibben, with Mr. Gouley visited recently at the McKibben home. Mrs. Susan Castle and Mrs. Albert Hall visited Monday with Mrs. John Truett. Mrs. L. W. McKibben and children called Monday on the McKibben family. A truck owned by Swift & Company crashed into the south Sixth street bridge last week, tearing off several boards. The truck did not go through into the river. J. F. Barnes, who had to quit mill work some time ago because of cedar poisoning is working at the Black Butte mines. Recent visitors at the J. W. Madley home were Mr. Madley's two sisters, Mrs. Ed Black of Langlois and Mrs. Katherine Talanglois of Portland, and a friend, Irving Doucette of Roseburg. Mrs. W. S. Keyes and Mrs. L. W. McKibben visited last week with Mrs. J. L. Igans in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Melville Hann and children spent one day last week with Mrs. Hanna's parents at Mount View. His mother is seriously ill. Mrs. Mary Ann Williams with her son Vern of Yoncalla visited Monday at the home of a sister, Mrs. Jess Truett. The Lester Van Nortwick family of London spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Van Nortwick's sister, Mrs. John Truett. The Melville Hanna family went to Eugene Saturday evening. A. E. Walker went to Gardiner Saturday night with a group of local Masons. Mrs. Gladys Ely is quarantined with a light case of scarlet fever at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Chapman. The regular annual meeting of the Latham school district will be held at the school house at 8 o'clock Monday, June 17. BLUE MOUNTAIN. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brumbaugh are here from The Dalles and are visiting at the Dan Brumbaugh home. Frank Miller and Mrs. Thoma Miller motored to Elsie Sunday and visited at the Wade Watts home. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gouley and children of Albany arrived Friday evening and visited at the James Lebow home. All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Lebow were at home Sunday but Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tonn of Stinson. There were 21 there for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Highline of Eugene held services at the Blue Mountain school Sunday. Five young people from the Lighthouse temple of Eugene came with them and gave a musical program. Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Lasater and son of Cottage Grove were guests Sunday at the Leo Dugan home. Mr. Winters has returned home from visiting in Seattle with his daughters Bess and Evelyn. Little Harold Jones is suffering with an attack of asthma. Truman Leader is building a garage on his homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brumbaugh visited Sunday at the Tom Cox home in Cottage Grove. SAGINAW. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Johnson are the parents of a daughter, born June 4. Mrs. Charles Sharon severely cut a foot on a cyclone day last week. The injury is said to be healing satisfactorily. E. H. Koch is convalescing from a severe attack of smallpox. This is the first case reported in this place in recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Silkwood, newlyweds, joined the throng of strawberry pickers who recently left here for fields in the north. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of Spring field visited Sunday at the home of Harold Boston. Farmers and other residents of this vicinity welcomed the showers of the past week and are looking forward to good crop yields as a result. Dowsy Fogle made a business trip to Marshfield last Sunday, returning Monday. George Fogle of Roseburg spent Sunday here at the home of a brother Dowsy. Mary Alma Bonston is visiting this week at Thornton Corners with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Koenig.

Pastor and Mrs. I. G. Shaw of the Grove visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. M. Tison. Miss Effie Buchanan of Cottage Grove was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher. LATHAM. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 13.—Mrs. Ray Gouley, niece of L. W. McKibben, with Mr. Gouley visited recently at the McKibben home. Mrs. Susan Castle and Mrs. Albert Hall visited Monday with Mrs. John Truett. Mrs. L. W. McKibben and children called Monday on the McKibben family. A truck owned by Swift & Company crashed into the south Sixth street bridge last week, tearing off several boards. The truck did not go through into the river. J. F. Barnes, who had to quit mill work some time ago because of cedar poisoning is working at the Black Butte mines. Recent visitors at the J. W. Madley home were Mr. Madley's two sisters, Mrs. Ed Black of Langlois and Mrs. Katherine Talanglois of Portland, and a friend, Irving Doucette of Roseburg. Mrs. W. S. Keyes and Mrs. L. W. McKibben visited last week with Mrs. J. L. Igans in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Melville Hann and children spent one day last week with Mrs. Hanna's parents at Mount View. His mother is seriously ill. Mrs. Mary Ann Williams with her son Vern of Yoncalla visited Monday at the home of a sister, Mrs. Jess Truett. The Lester Van Nortwick family of London spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Van Nortwick's sister, Mrs. John Truett. The Melville Hanna family went to Eugene Saturday evening. A. E. Walker went to Gardiner Saturday night with a group of local Masons. Mrs. Gladys Ely is quarantined with a light case of scarlet fever at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Chapman. The regular annual meeting of the Latham school district will be held at the school house at 8 o'clock Monday, June 17. BLUE MOUNTAIN. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brumbaugh are here from The Dalles and are visiting at the Dan Brumbaugh home. Frank Miller and Mrs. Thoma Miller motored to Elsie Sunday and visited at the Wade Watts home. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gouley and children of Albany arrived Friday evening and visited at the James Lebow home. All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Lebow were at home Sunday but Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tonn of Stinson. There were 21 there for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Highline of Eugene held services at the Blue Mountain school Sunday. Five young people from the Lighthouse temple of Eugene came with them and gave a musical program. Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Lasater and son of Cottage Grove were guests Sunday at the Leo Dugan home. Mr. Winters has returned home from visiting in Seattle with his daughters Bess and Evelyn. Little Harold Jones is suffering with an attack of asthma. Truman Leader is building a garage on his homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brumbaugh visited Sunday at the Tom Cox home in Cottage Grove. SAGINAW. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Johnson are the parents of a daughter, born June 4. Mrs. Charles Sharon severely cut a foot on a cyclone day last week. The injury is said to be healing satisfactorily. E. H. Koch is convalescing from a severe attack of smallpox. This is the first case reported in this place in recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Silkwood, newlyweds, joined the throng of strawberry pickers who recently left here for fields in the north. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of Spring field visited Sunday at the home of Harold Boston. Farmers and other residents of this vicinity welcomed the showers of the past week and are looking forward to good crop yields as a result. Dowsy Fogle made a business trip to Marshfield last Sunday, returning Monday. George Fogle of Roseburg spent Sunday here at the home of a brother Dowsy. Mary Alma Bonston is visiting this week at Thornton Corners with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Koenig.

Pastor and Mrs. I. G. Shaw of the Grove visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. M. Tison. Miss Effie Buchanan of Cottage Grove was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher. LATHAM. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 13.—Mrs. Ray Gouley, niece of L. W. McKibben, with Mr. Gouley visited recently at the McKibben home. Mrs. Susan Castle and Mrs. Albert Hall visited Monday with Mrs. John Truett. Mrs. L. W. McKibben and children called Monday on the McKibben family. A truck owned by Swift & Company crashed into the south Sixth street bridge last week, tearing off several boards. The truck did not go through into the river. J. F. Barnes, who had to quit mill work some time ago because of cedar poisoning is working at the Black Butte mines. Recent visitors at the J. W. Madley home were Mr. Madley's two sisters, Mrs. Ed Black of Langlois and Mrs. Katherine Talanglois of Portland, and a friend, Irving Doucette of Roseburg. Mrs. W. S. Keyes and Mrs. L. W. McKibben visited last week with Mrs. J. L. Igans in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Melville Hann and children spent one day last week with Mrs. Hanna's parents at Mount View. His mother is seriously ill. Mrs. Mary Ann Williams with her son Vern of Yoncalla visited Monday at the home of a sister, Mrs. Jess Truett. The Lester Van Nortwick family of London spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Van Nortwick's sister, Mrs. John Truett. The Melville Hanna family went to Eugene Saturday evening. A. E. Walker went to Gardiner Saturday night with a group of local Masons. Mrs. Gladys Ely is quarantined with a light case of scarlet fever at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Chapman. The regular annual meeting of the Latham school district will be held at the school house at 8 o'clock Monday, June 17. BLUE MOUNTAIN. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brumbaugh are here from The Dalles and are visiting at the Dan Brumbaugh home. Frank Miller and Mrs. Thoma Miller motored to Elsie Sunday and visited at the Wade Watts home. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gouley and children of Albany arrived Friday evening and visited at the James Lebow home. All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Lebow were at home Sunday but Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tonn of Stinson. There were 21 there for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Highline of Eugene held services at the Blue Mountain school Sunday. Five young people from the Lighthouse temple of Eugene came with them and gave a musical program. Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Lasater and son of Cottage Grove were guests Sunday at the Leo Dugan home. Mr. Winters has returned home from visiting in Seattle with his daughters Bess and Evelyn. Little Harold Jones is suffering with an attack of asthma. Truman Leader is building a garage on his homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brumbaugh visited Sunday at the Tom Cox home in Cottage Grove. SAGINAW. (Special to the Sentinel.) June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Johnson are the parents of a daughter, born June 4. Mrs. Charles Sharon severely cut a foot on a cyclone day last week. The injury is said to be healing satisfactorily. E. H. Koch is convalescing from a severe attack of smallpox. This is the first case reported in this place in recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Silkwood, newlyweds, joined the throng of strawberry pickers who recently left here for fields in the north. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of Spring field visited Sunday at the home of Harold Boston. Farmers and other residents of this vicinity welcomed the showers of the past week and are looking forward to good crop yields as a result. Dowsy Fogle made a business trip to Marshfield last Sunday, returning Monday. George Fogle of Roseburg spent Sunday here at the home of a brother Dowsy. Mary Alma Bonston is visiting this week at Thornton Corners with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Koenig.

GRAY'S CASH & CARRY. Phone 53 711 Main Street Free City Delivery. Cottage Grove's pioneer cash grocery. The place where you get quality merchandise, courteous service and prices that are uniformly low. Week End Specials. Peas Fountain Brand medium size tender peas. No. 2 Can 15c. Bear Flour Guaranteed hardwheat. 49 Lbs. $1.85. McKenzie Flour A quality valley flour. 49 Lbs. $1.69. Certo "Our regular price" 2 Bottles 55c. Corn Flakes—Post Toasties 3 Packages 25c. Gem Nut Oleo, 3 Lbs. 49c. Rice, 3 Lbs. 19c. Macaroni, Elbow Cut, 3 Lbs. 19c. Motor Oil, Eastern 60c Gal.; Western 50c Gal. Prunes Italian prunes packed in heavy syrup. Four 8-oz. Tins 25c. Purex "Whitens and Bleaches" Quart Bottle 29c. White Laundry Soap 10 Large Bars 39c. Parowax Two 1-Lb. Pkgs. 25c. Fruit Jar Rubbers Double lip 3 Dozen 25c.

Choice of COLOR at NO extra cost. See our special display in newest motor car color designs. At no extra cost—a Choice of Colors on any model, from a variety so wide you have almost individual distinction. Come to our special color show and see for yourself the great number of color combinations from which you may choose. And, remember, this is only an additional feature to the great array of values with which Essex the Challenger has swept the field. $695 AND UP at factory. Your present car will probably cover the entire requirement. The M. C. Purchase Plan offers the lowest terms available on the balance. ESSEX THE CHALLENGER. Brown Motor Co. Hudson-Essex Sales and Service.

MACMARR STORES' Brides' Sale! June—the "I DO" month, finds the MacMARR STORES ready with a veritable storehouse of fresh, appetizing foods. And, about the best hint we can give the brides of yesterday, today and tomorrow is to visit their nearest MACMARR STORE and learn the safest, most pleasant road to food-buying satisfaction and economy. Prices Effective Saturday to Thursday, June 15th to 20th, Inc. RICE Fancy Southern Blue Rose—3 lbs. 23c 6 lbs. 43c. IVORY SOAP 6-oz. bars, 6 for 39c. FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR "Blends mah friend"—49-lb. sack $1.92. CANADA DRY GINGER ALE—3 bottles 59c. HERSHEY'S CO COA—Half Pound can, 15c; 28c. Pound can 49c. LARD, Pure Fresh—In bulk 49c. —3 lbs. 49c. SHORTENING Best Vegetable—In bulk 49c. 3 lbs. 49c. SALT, Leslies Shaker—Plain or Iodized—2-lb. pkg. 10c. RICE, Fancy Southern Blue Rose—3 lbs. 23c; 6 lbs. 43c. LUX TOILET SOAP—3 bars 25c. IVORY SOAP—6-oz. bars 39c. WALDORF TOILET TISSUE—3 rolls 19c. WATCH OUR WINDOWS FOR FRUIT AND VEGETABLE PRICES. RINSO Large Packages, 2 for 45c. VINEGAR Pure Cider—22-oz. Bottle 15c. MacMarr Coffee Grown right, roasted right, ground right—So it must be right—Direct from our roaster to you—It's always fresh—Pound 45c; 3 lbs. $1.33 Ground to your order for fineness. Breakfast Suggestions CREAM ROLLE DOATS—The Wil-lamette Valley's finest—9-lb. bag 49c. KELLOGG CORN FLAKES OR POST TOASTIES—3 packages 25c. KELLOGG'S BRAN FLAKES—3 packages 29c. KELLOGG'S ALL BRAN—Large package 19c. POST BRAN FLAKES—2 packages 25c. FLAPJACK FLOUR, Albers'—The kind that makes the hot cakes that please—Lge. Pkg 23c. LOG CABIN SYRUP—Medium size can 55c. KARO SYRUP—Red or Blue label—5-lb. can 43c. Canning Supplies CERTO—Insurance in Jelly and Preserve making—3 bottles 79c. PAROWAX—Sanitary and efficient sealing—2 lbs. 25c. MASON JAR CAPS, Ball—1 dozen in package—Pkg. 25c. ECONOMY CAPS—1 dozen in a package—Pkg. 25c. KERR MASON CAPS—1 dozen in a package—Pkg. 25c. KERR WIDE MOUTH CAPS—1 dozen in a package—Pkg. 35c. KERR WIDE MOUTH LIDS—1 dozen in a package—Pkg. 19c. KERR REGULAR LIDS—1 dozen in a package—Pkg. 14c. FRUIT JARS, Ball Masons—Pint 1 dozen in a box—Box 85c. FRUIT JARS, Ball Masons—Quarts—1 dozen in a box—99c. FRUIT JARS, Ideal Pints—1 dozen in a box 99c. FRUIT JARS, Ideal Quarts—1 dozen in a box—$1.23. JAR RUBBERS, MacMarr Doubled heavy red rings made in 1929—3 dozen 19c. Picnic and Cold Luncheon Suggestions PICKLES, Fanning's Bread and Butter—15-oz. jars, 2 for 45c. BEST FOODS MAYONNAISE OR RELISH SPREAD—Pint Jars, each 39c. SARDINES, Booths—Your choice of Spiced, Mustard or Tomato sauce—1-lb. oval tins, 3 for 29c. SARDINES, North Star—Genuine Norwegian (18 to 20 fish) packed in pure olive oil—2 tins 25c. SALMON, Arena—Medium Red Alaska—good food at a low price—1-lb. tall cans, 2 for 39c. WHITE STAR TUNA—Quarters—3 tins 39c. SHRIMP, American Beauty—Latest pack of large fancy shrimp—No. 1 (5-oz.) cans—3 for 49c. ASPARAGUS TIPS, R C—Eastern style tender ALL GREEN tips—A very popular new article—No. 1 (10-oz. cans) 2 for 35c. SPAGHETTI, Heinz—Just heat and serve—17-oz. cans, 2 for 29c. PAPER NAPKINS—Fancy, linen-like—40 napkins in a package. WAX PAPER—20 sheets in a roll 10c. PAPER PLATES—2 dozen 15c. RIPE OLIVES, Libby's—Buffet cans (5-oz. net) each 10c. HEINZ PREPARED MUSTARD—8-oz. jar 12c. L AND P SAUCE—Adds zest to cold meats, fish or fowl—5-oz. bottle 33c.