Sweetpeas were attractive table decorations.

Relief From Curse Of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose. Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. SWIMMING ACCIDENT IS CAUSED DEATH L. LINGO

Lyle Lingo, son of Jerry Lingo of Arlington, Wash., and Mrs. Glen Crane of Sacramento, Cal., died at 4 o'clock this morning in an Everett, Wash., hospital from injuries received Monday. His mother was formerly Miss Clista Garoutte of this city.

MONORAIL SYSTEM IS IN CHAMBERS & SON MILL

The monorail system under course of construction at the J. H. Chambers & Son sawmill is about completed and will be in operation in the near future. The bridge transfer is 320 feet long and 40 feet wide and the monorail proper is 900 feet long. The transfer will serve as a storage space for both green and dry lumber and the monorail will carry the sorting table and dry kilns, handling units of 2000 to 3000 feet.

This is the first monorail system to be installed in Cottage Grove territory. A freak egg found in a shipment at Santa Rosa, Cal., reflects all colors of the rainbow when held in sunlight.

Primitive Ideas Still Prevail in Mourning

Most of our funeral customs go back to primitive times when it was believed there was danger to all except priests who had to do with a corpse, and death witchery was accepted without question. Some primitive peoples destroyed everything associated with a funeral, even going so far as to tear down the house in which the death occurred. Some of these customs have survived as marks of respect for the departed, as has the practice of removing all ornaments and ceasing all activities marking the ordinary pursuits of life. In some churches altars are stripped on good Friday in observance of the anniversary of the crucifixion of Christ. There is a tradition in some communities that the clock stops when there is a death in the household. Mirrors are usually associated with vanity and other light attributes regarded as not in keeping with the mourning spirit in the presence of death, hence they are covered to contribute to the gloom and hush of mourning.

Jackson Earned Place Among America's Great

In all American history, says a writer in Thrift Magazine, there never lived a more interesting character than Andrew Jackson. He possessed a fierce temper and loved a fight. But he took up his cudgels always in defense of what seemed to him a just cause. He fought the battles of the weak and the poor and was relentless in opposing those who sought to take unfair advantage of others. Notwithstanding his tumultuous life, Jackson early became imbued with the principles of thrift. Beginning life in poverty, he began saving money as soon as he had an income. In the rugged districts where his young manhood was spent, money was a scarce object and incomes were exceedingly small, but Jackson, realizing ever the great value of thrift, managed to save modest sums. He proved to be successful in business and by the time he had reached middle age had acquired what was considered in his day a very comfortable fortune.

Restless Eyes According to a Russian scientist, there is a certain rhythm to the movement of the human eye as well as to those of the heart. It roves back and forth at the rate of about 100 movements a minute.

Under normal conditions—that is, in quiet, familiar surroundings—the eyes remain at rest for a few seconds. But soon they resume their usual movements, sometimes from one side to another, sometimes up and down. It is believed by scientists that the characteristic restlessness of the eye is a throwback to primitive times when man's ancestors had to be constantly on the watch for danger.—Washington Star.

World Flood The ancient tradition common among all primitive peoples of a world-wide flood is now thought by scientists to have been sound. The quiet, familiar surroundings—the eyes remain at rest for a few seconds. But soon they resume their usual movements, sometimes from one side to another, sometimes up and down. It is believed by scientists that the characteristic restlessness of the eye is a throwback to primitive times when man's ancestors had to be constantly on the watch for danger.—Washington Star.

Whistler Didn't Hold Job James McNeill Whistler, famous artist, once was a draftsman in the United States coast and geodetic survey, but he could not hold a job. The painter and etcher insisted on decorating the maps and charts assigned to him to make, with pretty little drawings scattered along the margins. Because of this and the fact that he insisted on doing all his drawing in his own way, Whistler did not remain long in the service of the United States government.

Many Books on Weather The weather bureau at Washington has in the course of its existence accumulated a library of more than 47,000 books all relating to the weather. This library is frequently resorted to for the purpose of answering the thousands of questions which are constantly being received. The department endeavors to answer all such inquiries but sometimes finds itself stumped, for it appears that there is a great deal that is not known about the weather.

How Perfectly Awful "The average blue law," says a writer in the Vancouver Province, "is usually the result of the impact upon a minority mass psychology of an urge to sacrifice inherent in a truly vivid and full nature that has been warped by centuries of damnable teachings originally induced by material poverty."

Smartest Class According to Dr. Edward E. Free, New York scientist, mechanics constitute the most intelligent class of the nation. Next come engineers and technical men, with business men third. Actors, physicians, ministers and professors rank lowest, excluding the large class of morons. He based this rating on the hypothesis that intelligence is the ability to reach a correct conclusion from discoverable facts.—New York World Magazine.

Standard Time in America Standard time is a civil time established by law. In the United States there are four standard time zones adopted by the railroads, corresponding severally to mean local time of the seventy-fifth, nineteenth, one hundred and fifth, and one hundred and twentieth meridians west of Greenwich. It is computed from the sun, not from the stars.

Cause for Tardiness Robert, aged six, was late for school one day, and the teacher was annoyed. "My new sister came last night, and she was the cause of it," said the excited boy. "You see, she is just borned, and I had to show her all my toys."

FREIGHT RECEIPTS ARE 21,413,152 POUNDS

Cottage Grove Imports Quantity of Things Which It Also Exports.

Table listing freight receipts and exports for Cottage Grove. Receipts include items like Gas and oil, Flour and feed, Automobiles, Brick, Cement, Coal, Lime, Explosives, Hardware, Hay, Oats, Pipe and tile, Sand and gravel, Lumber, Machinery, Shingles, Emigrant goods, Salt, Sugar, and Wheat. Exports include Lumber, Hay, Oats, Pipe and tile, Sand and gravel, Lumber, Machinery, Shingles, Emigrant goods, Salt, Sugar, and Wheat.

Less than carload shipments were 2,699,625 pounds, bringing the total to 24,112,777 pounds. A curious fact shown by the figures is that while we exported hundreds of cars of lumber we imported 8 carloads, sheep, feed and hay, of which we imported a quantity, are also a local product. The figures for gas and oil indicate that residents of Cottage Grove do a lot of traveling by automobile. There is no record of freight that came by motor truck during the year that would add materially to the total.

HARVEY BICE GETS LIFE TERM ON PAST RECORD

Life term in the state penitentiary was the sentence given Harvey Bice by Judge G. E. Skippworth in circuit court after a jury had brought in a conviction on a habitual criminal charge. This is the first conviction in Lane county under this law. Proceedings to invoke this law have been started by the state in various cases but were never brought to an issue. Bice was convicted recently here on charges of burglary of Matman's Cabin, resort on the highway between Eugene and Springfield, and the Price store at Marcola several months ago. Sentence was held up while the district attorney's office brought charges that Bice had been convicted of previous felonies, three in Lane county, one in Douglas county, one in Malheur county and others in Washington and Montana.

Presbyterian Church Picnics

A large number attended the annual Presbyterian church and Sunday school picnic held Tuesday at the Horn picnic ground near Saguaw. Women of the church and children went to the grounds in the afternoon and the men joined them at the supper hour. Sports and games were the diversions of the afternoon.

LAND GRANT COUNTIES TO PAY COSTS OF SUIT

This figure was agreed upon by a board composed of Judge G. E. Skippworth, Judge Percy E. Kelley and Judge J. T. Brand. John Carson, district attorney of Marion, and Guy Gordon, district attorney of Douglas, were attorneys for the counties. Lane county's share of the cost which is apportioned on amount of O. & C. funds received will be $1,620.50. The report of the board of circuit judges has been accepted by the executive committee representing the 18 land grant counties. Additional expenses of the counties in the case amounted to $148.38. The association formed by the 18 counties to combat the state suit has disbanded. Duplicating Supplies, Sentinal, Duplicating Supplies, Sentinal.
