

Presbyterian Church Sunday, August 18

11 A. M.—Pastor Duncan P. Cameron will preach on "The Tragedy of Misused Power." He will show how too often intellectual, moral and spiritual power is wasted and misused.

Come—A Welcome for All.

City Council

Mrs. George Mote was critically ill the first part of last week, having been poisoned from eating meat. Mr. Mote also suffered a touch of poison.

FOR SALE—Steel range in good condition, a bargain if taken at once. Call at 225 north Lane St. Mrs. Clara Burkholder. a15p

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Medley of Corvallis are visiting at the William Medley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Sims have moved into their new home on north River road.

Miss Forrest Schneider is visiting in Medford.

For bridge prizes try Mendenhall's. a15-2p

Harry Mosby of Klamath Falls and Clay Mosby of San Francisco, Cal., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mosby.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilgough of Astoria were weekend guests at the home of Mrs. Gilgough's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Nancy Oglesby and Mrs. J. P. Graham. Mrs. Oglesby returned with them for an extended visit in Astoria and Portland.

Miss Virginia Metcalf is visiting in Salem at the home of her grandmother.

Loose Leaf Forms and Binders The Sentinel

Frank Turner, who recently underwent an operation for gall stones at a Eugene hospital, has returned home and is convalescing satisfactorily.

Mrs. H. L. Spankie and Mary and Ruth Cameron have returned to their home in High River, Alberta, Canada, after spending a month visiting with Rev. Duncan P. Cameron, father of the two little girls. They accompanied Mr. Cameron to Salem last Wednesday for the American Legion convention and on Saturday he took them as far north as Spokane.

For the convenience of their customers Mendenhall's have a film drop in their store door, so films can be left when the store is closed. a15-2p

Zelma M. Tomsett has filed suit for divorce from John H. Tomsett Jr., asking the return of her maiden name, Zelma Matthews. The couple were married March 12, 1927, and have no children.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Goff and son Victor have returned from a week's visit in Portland and Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Emerson left Wednesday for Bend, where they will visit several days. Mr. Emerson expects to fish some of the central Oregon lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neet of this city and Mrs. Mary Dorell Wilkerson of Eugene left Sunday morning by automobile for a trip through Yellowstone park. They will cross the mountains by way of McKenzie pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heck have returned to their home in Aberdeen, Wash., after spending their vacation with Mr. Heck's father and sister, William Heck and Mrs. Robert Shields.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Howe have returned to their home in San Jose, Cal., after a visit at the home of Mr. Howe's sister, Mrs. K. K. Mills.

Have you seen the new china and glassware at Mendenhall's store. a15-2p

The J. L. McCoy family have moved into the Charles Burkholder home on Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davis were called to Tacoma the latter part of the week when a small niece, Mrs. Davis was drowned. They were attending the American Legion convention at Salem when they received the message. Mrs. Davis

Mr. and Mrs. John Boldon, former residents of this city, left last week for their home in Cleveland, O., going by way of Portland, where they will stop for a time before continuing east. The Boldons had been in California before coming to Cottage Grove. While here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McGuire.

A daughter, Marjorie Jane, was born last Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boldon at a Eugene hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quigley and three little daughters spent a few days last week at Newport and are now camped out on Sharps creek for the remainder of their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morris have returned to Klamath Falls, after a visit at the home of Mr. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hemenway are making extensive repairs to their farm home west of the city.

Brick for Sale. Inquire Goff's Shoe Hospital, across from city hall. a15-

Mrs. Emily Fischer returned to her home in Eugene Tuesday after spending two weeks at the home of her daughters, Mrs. Leon Morton and Mrs. Walter A. Woodward. Mrs. Morton drove to Eugene to take her mother home and to take the exhibit of the Coast Fork 4-H club for the county fair. She is leader of the 4-H club group.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Ryan and children, Miss Zella and Weston, of Dundee are visiting this week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kolliva and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hays of Kansas are visitors at the home of Mr. Hays' brother, Mr. Hays on Bow river, and at the W. E. Nixon home in Delight valley.

Arnest writes in, any kind. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway have returned from spending a few days at Bandon, Marshfield, Reedsport and other coast cities.

E. W. Franks returned last week from a trip to Turlock, Cal. He was accompanied home by his mother, who will remain for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mercer were in Eugene Wednesday evening of last week to attend the wedding of Miss Berenice Neher and Forrest Finley.

LARAWAY MUSIC HOUSE, EUGENE—Kimball and Gulbransen pianos $255 to $440 now—good used pianos always in stock. Chestnut Transfer, Cottage Grove, local agents. See us for terms and prices. jyl8te

Mr. and Mrs. O. Knight of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Randall left last week for a six weeks' trip east. They will visit in Iowa, Illinois and will see Niagara Falls, going on to Toronto, Canada, where Randall will attend a convention of life insurance salesmen from August 21 to 24.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Guss E. Berglund and Mary A. Tomole, both of Cottage Grove.

Dale Wyatt spent a few days at Grants Pass on business the first part of the week.

The weekend son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarr died Thursday last week and was buried on Saturday.

Oregon Fire Relief—Arnest Agency. Mrs. J. H. Kirk and grandson, John Holstrom, are at Sunnyside, Cal., visiting at the home of Mrs. Kirk's sister, Mrs. W. B. McNeal.

Mrs. Etta Casard and Miss Ada Hartley of Ashland visited recently at the home of their sister, Mrs. C. E. Stewart.

Mrs. Nellie Blackmore has recovered from a sick spell and was able to be out yesterday.

TRUCK INS. BONDS, FRANCHISES, CONSULT ARNEST INS. AGENCY.

James C. Porter is ill at his home on Sixth street. His condition has been about the same for two weeks.

The C. E. Umphrey, A. A. Richmond and Nelson Durham families went to Winchester Bay Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sagarberg have gone to Canada on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray and Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Howard of Eugene, drove over the pass to Bend last Sunday.

New Victor Radio! The sensation of the radio world for 1929. Remarkable for its wonderful tone, selectivity and balance. Hear it at Laraway's, Eugene, Ore. jyl8te

Mrs. Etta Oglesby Gunster of Portland was a guest yesterday and today at the home of a cousin, Mrs. J. P. Graham, on her way home from southern Oregon on her trip. Mrs. Gunster is a golf enthusiast and visited the local course while here.

Mrs. J. F. Meek arrived recently from Portland to join Mr. Meek, pharmacist at the Cottage Grove pharmacy. They are living in Villard court apartments.

J. E. Tate, father of Mrs. James Town, who is visiting at his old home in Canada, is not letting age keep him from being active. He is the father of 80 years, is driving a race horse at the fair at Regina, Sask.

Prof. R. C. Burrell, an instructor at Columbia university, Columbus, O., is a guest at the home of a cousin, Max Bird.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cochran of Dayton, Wash., have been visiting with Mr. Cochran's mother, Mrs. Sarah Cochran.

A 9-pound son, Roy, was born Thursday last week to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duert.

John Wilson, who passed the civil service examinations last May, has received an appointment to the postoffice at Bandon. He left the latter part of the week to take up his new work.

Mrs. Lillie Kendall of Lakeview has returned home, spending the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Williams, who is on her vacation.

Mrs. Laura Williams of Ashland and Mrs. Hattie Hays and daughter, Lucile of Portland were visitors during the week and at the home of J. J. Williams, cousin of the two women.

Miss Esther Van Ouden, who is taking a two months' vacation from her work in the office of Herbert W. Lombard, is in Los Angeles, having gone down from Bandon with friends on a freighter. The trip took eight days. Miss Van Ouden spent the first five weeks of her vacation at Bandon. She will return to work September 1.

Mrs. M. H. Willing and Miss Della Weed of Madison, Wis., visited Friday with the S. L. Mackin family on their way to Seattle, where Mrs. Willing will join her husband, an instructor in the University of Washington summer session.

Miss Dorris Carter returned to her home in Portland last Friday after a visit at the home of a sister, Mrs. William Bader.

Mrs. Leon Morton and daughter Jacqueline and Mrs. Morton's mother, Mrs. Emily Fischer, who was visiting here from Eugene, drove to Portland last week for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quigley and three little daughters spent a few days last week at Newport and are now camped out on Sharps creek for the remainder of their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morris have returned to Klamath Falls, after a visit at the home of Mr. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hemenway are making extensive repairs to their farm home west of the city.

Brick for Sale. Inquire Goff's Shoe Hospital, across from city hall. a15-

Mrs. Emily Fischer returned to her home in Eugene Tuesday after spending two weeks at the home of her daughters, Mrs. Leon Morton and Mrs. Walter A. Woodward. Mrs. Morton drove to Eugene to take her mother home and to take the exhibit of the Coast Fork 4-H club for the county fair. She is leader of the 4-H club group.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Ryan and children, Miss Zella and Weston, of Dundee are visiting this week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kolliva and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hays of Kansas are visitors at the home of Mr. Hays' brother, Mr. Hays on Bow river, and at the W. E. Nixon home in Delight valley.

Arnest writes in, any kind. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway have returned from spending a few days at Bandon, Marshfield, Reedsport and other coast cities.

E. W. Franks returned last week from a trip to Turlock, Cal. He was accompanied home by his mother, who will remain for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mercer were in Eugene Wednesday evening of last week to attend the wedding of Miss Berenice Neher and Forrest Finley.

LARAWAY MUSIC HOUSE, EUGENE—Kimball and Gulbransen pianos $255 to $440 now—good used pianos always in stock. Chestnut Transfer, Cottage Grove, local agents. See us for terms and prices. jyl8te

Mr. and Mrs. O. Knight of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Randall left last week for a six weeks' trip east. They will visit in Iowa, Illinois and will see Niagara Falls, going on to Toronto, Canada, where Randall will attend a convention of life insurance salesmen from August 21 to 24.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Guss E. Berglund and Mary A. Tomole, both of Cottage Grove.

Dale Wyatt spent a few days at Grants Pass on business the first part of the week.

The weekend son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarr died Thursday last week and was buried on Saturday.

Oregon Fire Relief—Arnest Agency. Mrs. J. H. Kirk and grandson, John Holstrom, are at Sunnyside, Cal., visiting at the home of Mrs. Kirk's sister, Mrs. W. B. McNeal.

Mrs. Etta Casard and Miss Ada Hartley of Ashland visited recently at the home of their sister, Mrs. C. E. Stewart.

Mrs. Nellie Blackmore has recovered from a sick spell and was able to be out yesterday.

TRUCK INS. BONDS, FRANCHISES, CONSULT ARNEST INS. AGENCY.

James C. Porter is ill at his home on Sixth street. His condition has been about the same for two weeks.

The C. E. Umphrey, A. A. Richmond and Nelson Durham families went to Winchester Bay Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sagarberg have gone to Canada on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray and Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Howard of Eugene, drove over the pass to Bend last Sunday.

New Victor Radio! The sensation of the radio world for 1929. Remarkable for its wonderful tone, selectivity and balance. Hear it at Laraway's, Eugene, Ore. jyl8te

Mrs. Etta Oglesby Gunster of Portland was a guest yesterday and today at the home of a cousin, Mrs. J. P. Graham, on her way home from southern Oregon on her trip. Mrs. Gunster is a golf enthusiast and visited the local course while here.

Mrs. J. F. Meek arrived recently from Portland to join Mr. Meek, pharmacist at the Cottage Grove pharmacy. They are living in Villard court apartments.

J. E. Tate, father of Mrs. James Town, who is visiting at his old home in Canada, is not letting age keep him from being active. He is the father of 80 years, is driving a race horse at the fair at Regina, Sask.

Prof. R. C. Burrell, an instructor at Columbia university, Columbus, O., is a guest at the home of a cousin, Max Bird.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cochran of Dayton, Wash., have been visiting with Mr. Cochran's mother, Mrs. Sarah Cochran.

A 9-pound son, Roy, was born Thursday last week to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duert.

John Wilson, who passed the civil service examinations last May, has received an appointment to the postoffice at Bandon. He left the latter part of the week to take up his new work.

Mrs. Lillie Kendall of Lakeview has returned home, spending the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Williams, who is on her vacation.

Mrs. Laura Williams of Ashland and Mrs. Hattie Hays and daughter, Lucile of Portland were visitors during the week and at the home of J. J. Williams, cousin of the two women.

Miss Esther Van Ouden, who is taking a two months' vacation from her work in the office of Herbert W. Lombard, is in Los Angeles, having gone down from Bandon with friends on a freighter. The trip took eight days. Miss Van Ouden spent the first five weeks of her vacation at Bandon. She will return to work September 1.

Mrs. M. H. Willing and Miss Della Weed of Madison, Wis., visited Friday with the S. L. Mackin family on their way to Seattle, where Mrs. Willing will join her husband, an instructor in the University of Washington summer session.

Miss Dorris Carter returned to her home in Portland last Friday after a visit at the home of a sister, Mrs. William Bader.

Mrs. Leon Morton and daughter Jacqueline and Mrs. Morton's mother, Mrs. Emily Fischer, who was visiting here from Eugene, drove to Portland last week for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quigley and three little daughters spent a few days last week at Newport and are now camped out on Sharps creek for the remainder of their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morris have returned to Klamath Falls, after a visit at the home of Mr. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hemenway are making extensive repairs to their farm home west of the city.

Brick for Sale. Inquire Goff's Shoe Hospital, across from city hall. a15-

Mrs. Emily Fischer returned to her home in Eugene Tuesday after spending two weeks at the home of her daughters, Mrs. Leon Morton and Mrs. Walter A. Woodward. Mrs. Morton drove to Eugene to take her mother home and to take the exhibit of the Coast Fork 4-H club for the county fair. She is leader of the 4-H club group.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Ryan and children, Miss Zella and Weston, of Dundee are visiting this week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kolliva and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hays of Kansas are visitors at the home of Mr. Hays' brother, Mr. Hays on Bow river, and at the W. E. Nixon home in Delight valley.

Arnest writes in, any kind. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway have returned from spending a few days at Bandon, Marshfield, Reedsport and other coast cities.

E. W. Franks returned last week from a trip to Turlock, Cal. He was accompanied home by his mother, who will remain for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mercer were in Eugene Wednesday evening of last week to attend the wedding of Miss Berenice Neher and Forrest Finley.

LARAWAY MUSIC HOUSE, EUGENE—Kimball and Gulbransen pianos $255 to $440 now—good used pianos always in stock. Chestnut Transfer, Cottage Grove, local agents. See us for terms and prices. jyl8te

Mr. and Mrs. O. Knight of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Randall left last week for a six weeks' trip east. They will visit in Iowa, Illinois and will see Niagara Falls, going on to Toronto, Canada, where Randall will attend a convention of life insurance salesmen from August 21 to 24.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Guss E. Berglund and Mary A. Tomole, both of Cottage Grove.

Dale Wyatt spent a few days at Grants Pass on business the first part of the week.

The weekend son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarr died Thursday last week and was buried on Saturday.

Oregon Fire Relief—Arnest Agency. Mrs. J. H. Kirk and grandson, John Holstrom, are at Sunnyside, Cal., visiting at the home of Mrs. Kirk's sister, Mrs. W. B. McNeal.

Mrs. Etta Casard and Miss Ada Hartley of Ashland visited recently at the home of their sister, Mrs. C. E. Stewart.

Mrs. Nellie Blackmore has recovered from a sick spell and was able to be out yesterday.

TRUCK INS. BONDS, FRANCHISES, CONSULT ARNEST INS. AGENCY.

James C. Porter is ill at his home on Sixth street. His condition has been about the same for two weeks.

The C. E. Umphrey, A. A. Richmond and Nelson Durham families went to Winchester Bay Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sagarberg have gone to Canada on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray and Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Howard of Eugene, drove over the pass to Bend last Sunday.

New Victor Radio! The sensation of the radio world for 1929. Remarkable for its wonderful tone, selectivity and balance. Hear it at Laraway's, Eugene, Ore. jyl8te

Mrs. Etta Oglesby Gunster of Portland was a guest yesterday and today at the home of a cousin, Mrs. J. P. Graham, on her way home from southern Oregon on her trip. Mrs. Gunster is a golf enthusiast and visited the local course while here.

Mrs. J. F. Meek arrived recently from Portland to join Mr. Meek, pharmacist at the Cottage Grove pharmacy. They are living in Villard court apartments.

J. E. Tate, father of Mrs. James Town, who is visiting at his old home in Canada, is not letting age keep him from being active. He is the father of 80 years, is driving a race horse at the fair at Regina, Sask.

Prof. R. C. Burrell, an instructor at Columbia university, Columbus, O., is a guest at the home of a cousin, Max Bird.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cochran of Dayton, Wash., have been visiting with Mr. Cochran's mother, Mrs. Sarah Cochran.

A 9-pound son, Roy, was born Thursday last week to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duert.

John Wilson, who passed the civil service examinations last May, has received an appointment to the postoffice at Bandon. He left the latter part of the week to take up his new work.

Mrs. Lillie Kendall of Lakeview has returned home, spending the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Williams, who is on her vacation.

Mrs. Laura Williams of Ashland and Mrs. Hattie Hays and daughter, Lucile of Portland were visitors during the week and at the home of J. J. Williams, cousin of the two women.

Miss Esther Van Ouden, who is taking a two months' vacation from her work in the office of Herbert W. Lombard, is in Los Angeles, having gone down from Bandon with friends on a freighter. The trip took eight days. Miss Van Ouden spent the first five weeks of her vacation at Bandon. She will return to work September 1.

Mrs. M. H. Willing and Miss Della Weed of Madison, Wis., visited Friday with the S. L. Mackin family on their way to Seattle, where Mrs. Willing will join her husband, an instructor in the University of Washington summer session.

Miss Dorris Carter returned to her home in Portland last Friday after a visit at the home of a sister, Mrs. William Bader.

Mrs. Leon Morton and daughter Jacqueline and Mrs. Morton's mother, Mrs. Emily Fischer, who was visiting here from Eugene, drove to Portland last week for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quigley and three little daughters spent a few days last week at Newport and are now camped out on Sharps creek for the remainder of their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morris have returned to Klamath Falls, after a visit at the home of Mr. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hemenway are making extensive repairs to their farm home west of the city.

Brick for Sale. Inquire Goff's Shoe Hospital, across from city hall. a15-

Mrs. Emily Fischer returned to her home in Eugene Tuesday after spending two weeks at the home of her daughters, Mrs. Leon Morton and Mrs. Walter A. Woodward. Mrs. Morton drove to Eugene to take her mother home and to take the exhibit of the Coast Fork 4-H club for the county fair. She is leader of the 4-H club group.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Ryan and children, Miss Zella and Weston, of Dundee are visiting this week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kolliva and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hays of Kansas are visitors at the home of Mr. Hays' brother, Mr. Hays on Bow river, and at the W. E. Nixon home in Delight valley.

Arnest writes in, any kind. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway have returned from spending a few days at Bandon, Marshfield, Reedsport and other coast cities.

E. W. Franks returned last week from a trip to Turlock, Cal. He was accompanied home by his mother, who will remain for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mercer were in Eugene Wednesday evening of last week to attend the wedding of Miss Berenice Neher and Forrest Finley.

LARAWAY MUSIC HOUSE, EUGENE—Kimball and Gulbransen pianos $255 to $440 now—good used pianos always in stock. Chestnut Transfer, Cottage Grove, local agents. See us for terms and prices. jyl8te

Mr. and Mrs. O. Knight of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Randall left last week for a six weeks' trip east. They will visit in Iowa, Illinois and will see Niagara Falls, going on to Toronto, Canada, where Randall will attend a convention of life insurance salesmen from August 21 to 24.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Guss E. Berglund and Mary A. Tomole, both of Cottage Grove.

Dale Wyatt spent a few days at Grants Pass on business the first part of the week.

The weekend son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarr died Thursday last week and was buried on Saturday.

Oregon Fire Relief—Arnest Agency. Mrs. J. H. Kirk and grandson, John Holstrom, are at Sunnyside, Cal., visiting at the home of Mrs. Kirk's sister, Mrs. W. B. McNeal.

Mrs. Etta Casard and Miss Ada Hartley of Ashland visited recently at the home of their sister, Mrs. C. E. Stewart.

Mrs. Nellie Blackmore has recovered from a sick spell and was able to be out yesterday.

TRUCK INS. BONDS, FRANCHISES, CONSULT ARNEST INS. AGENCY.

James C. Porter is ill at his home on Sixth street. His condition has been about the same for two weeks.

The C. E. Umphrey, A. A. Richmond and Nelson Durham families went to Winchester Bay Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sagarberg have gone to Canada on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray and Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Howard of Eugene, drove over the pass to Bend last Sunday.

New Victor Radio! The sensation of the radio world for 1929. Remarkable for its wonderful tone, selectivity and balance. Hear it at Laraway's, Eugene, Ore. jyl8te

Mrs. Etta Oglesby Gunster of Portland was a guest yesterday and today at the home of a cousin, Mrs. J. P. Graham, on her way home from southern Oregon on her trip. Mrs. Gunster is a golf enthusiast and visited the local course while here.

Mrs. J. F. Meek arrived recently from Portland to join Mr. Meek, pharmacist at the Cottage Grove pharmacy. They are living in Villard court apartments.

J. E. Tate, father of Mrs. James Town, who is visiting at his old home in Canada, is not letting age keep him from being active. He is the father of 80 years, is driving a race horse at the fair at Regina, Sask.

Prof. R. C. Burrell, an instructor at Columbia university, Columbus, O., is a guest at the home of a cousin, Max Bird.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cochran of Dayton, Wash., have been visiting with Mr. Cochran's mother, Mrs. Sarah Cochran.

A 9-pound son, Roy, was born Thursday last week to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duert.