Perini's Have Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Domenico Perini of Divide celebrated their golden wedding anniversary December 29. All their children, Lena, Pedro and Bonnie Perini, Mrs. Mary Dalgard and Mrs. Della Burkett, with families of the married children, were present for the anniversary. There are 10 grandchildren, all of whom live close enough to be frequent visitors at the home of the grandparents. Refreshments were served and the couple received many presents. The afternoon was spent with music and conversation. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lancaster of Walden and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McReynolds of Divide.

Mr. and Mrs. Perini were married in Italy December 29, 1879. In 1881, when their first son was a month old, Mr. Perini sailed for America with several friends. He came to the home of a brother John at Drain. He found employment at various occupations in various places until 1887, when he returned to Italy for his family. A brother Angelo accompanied the family on the return trip to America. They settled at Anlauf, Douglas county, and in 1894 Mr. Perini became a citizen. In 1898 they moved to Divide, Douglas county, and remained there until 1908, when the family returned to Italy for the benefit of Mr. Perini's health. The children soon returned to this country and Mr. and Mrs. Perini returned in 1910. Mr. and Mrs. Perini are both 75 years of age.

The women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. J. Leonard. Mrs. Charles P. Johnson led devotionals. Mrs. E. E. Cone was program leader, the program being based on the subject, "The Glorious Company," taken from the book, "Jerusalem to Jerusalem," which the society is studying. Plans were made for a food sale to be held Saturday, January 18, at Humphrey & Mackay's. The proceeds will be used for the support of Mary Elizabeth Young, formerly of Ashland, who is now teaching in the missionary schools in Korea. A social time followed the program.

Mrs. H. B. Griggs, Mrs. James P. Graham, Mrs. C. A. Bartell and Mrs. L. W. Colner were hostesses Thursday last week at Masonic hall for the Conestoga club. Additional guests were Mrs. W. J. Moyer, Mrs. H. C. Wells and Mrs. W. M. MacGibbon. At a business meeting tentative plans were made to hold a benefit card party soon. A report showed that the club recently purchased a new stove for the dining room. Refreshments of cake, ice cream and coffee were served. The dining table was attractive with baskets of greenery, holly and chrysanthemums and with lighted red tapers.

The Mothers' club was entertained Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. W. L. Hatch. The following officers were elected: Mrs. F. C. Houser, president; Mrs. C. M. Land, vice president; Mrs. W. L. Hatch, secretary; Mrs. Rosa Currin, chairman of welfare committee. The time was spent quilting and Mrs. Currin gave a report of garments distributed during December.

Mrs. George Jacobson was hostess Tuesday afternoon for the O. L. H. club. At a business meeting the following officers were elected: Mrs. C. E. Frost, president; Mrs. W. W. McFarland, vice president; Mrs. Inez Meeks, secretary-treasurer. The afternoon was spent playing bridge and Mrs. McFarland held high score. A dainty luncheon was served.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Helen M. Bosley.

A society note in the Aberdeen (Wash.) World, telling of the marriage of Harold R. Anderson, former manager here for Anderson & Middleton, is of interest to a number here. The bride was Miss Juva Marconi of New York city. Word has been received here that Reg. Anderson, brother of Harold and a former resident, was married to a sister of Harold Anderson's bride three days after the first ceremony.

Carroll O. Groshong, principal of Walker union high school, and Miss Edith M. Ellis were married at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in Eugene at the home of the groom's father, Rev. Duncan P. Ancients Used Bells for Various Purposes

The use of small bells to summon attendants goes back over 3,000 years. Assyrian tombs, uncovered from the ruins and dust of ages, show that hand bells not unlike our conventional shapes, were used in comfort, and sought to gratify them in much the same manner that we do. We find bells mentioned very early in the history of Israel. The high priest was directed to wear them on the fringes of his official vestments, alternating them with purple, blue and scarlet artificial pomegranates, so that he might be heard when he went in and out of the holy place to sacrifice, as the Book of Exodus has it, "that he be not dead." Then, as now, all the accessories of divine worship were symbolical, the tinkling golden bells probably typifying the lips that ought ever to be open for prayer, and the tongue that ought ever to be crying mercy when concerned about the sacrifices and other services of the sanctuary.

"Ten Thousand Dollar" Kelly was the first baseball player to be paid such a high salary. He went from the Chicago team to the Boston team at this then unheard of figure in 1887.

Lucky Discoveries of Vast Mineral Wealth

Tin is worth about $1,470 a ton. At North Dundas, in Tasmania, a nugget of the metal has been found which weighed 5,400 pounds, and was almost pure metallic tin.

Copper often occurs in nature in a pure state. A solid block of this metal weighing more than a ton and a half has just been found in South Africa.

The most wonderful discovery of the kind was made in the Andes, at the back of Peru, where, at a height of 14,000 feet, there has been found a mountain of copper ore a mile long and half a mile wide.

Silver is sometimes found in great masses. Most of us have heard of Cobalt, the miracle silver city of northern Ontario. One day, in the spring of 1903, two workmen quarreled while at work on a rough railway track made for hauling lumber.

High words led to blows, and one man swung an ax at the other. It missed him but struck a boulder, splitting it in two and showing up in its heart a mass of glittering whiteness. It was a lump of almost pure silver.

That spring Cobalt had four small shacks, but six months later there were more than 5,000 inhabitants.

Trying Hard to Please
Louis, the colored kitchen maid, was from the country, but she was energetic and learned fast. Part of her duties was to water the fern and change the water in the goldfish bowl. Her mistress asked her on the second day: "Did you remember to empty the water under the refrigerator?" "Yes, ma'am," replied it and put in fresh water.
