The Lions club entertained the Keepers of the Den Thursday night at a 7 o'clock dinner at Hotel Bartell. Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Honeyman and Mrs. E. B. Miles of Eugene, both enthusiastic workers in the Garden club of that city. Mrs. Honeyman gave an interesting and instructive talk on preserving the natural beauty of the state, especially along the public highways. She urged that all civic clubs put forth efforts to protect the shrubbery along the highways and to use their influence to prevent the erection of so many unsightly sign boards along the highways. Music was furnished by the Card orchestra and group singing proved an enjoyable pastime.

Mrs. T. C. Wheeler was pleasantly surprised at her new home on Ninth street Friday night, at the home of the Joker club, of which she is a member, called to spend the evening. A business session of the club was held and the following were elected to office: Miss Lola Curran, president; Miss Myrtle Kem, vice president; Mrs. S. V. Allison, secretary and treasurer. Bridge was a pleasant entertainment of the evening and at a late hour refreshments were served. Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Eunice Vandenberg, retiring president, were each presented with a beautiful gift. Mrs. E. W. Armes was an additional guest of the club.

The Jolly Workers Handwork and Sewing club, members of the Four-H group, met Friday at the home of Miss Jeanne Martin, leader of the club. It was the first meeting since Christmas and progress reports were read. The following were those present: Wilma Sutherland, Edna Mae and Marjorie Cherry, Winona Abene, Elinor Beth and Viola Rohde, Kate Kahler, Marguerite Brookhart, Lallia Clark, Grace Greer, Jacie Morton, Audrey Cox, Lola Krewson, Vera and Verna Gilham, Olive Doney and Norma Dugan.

Miss Naomi Wynne was hostess Monday night for the Circle Craft club. The principal diversion of the evening was bridge at which Mrs. Sherman Chapman held high score and Miss Jessie Sanborn held low. Special guests were Mrs. J. A. Wiseman and Mrs. Wilbur Watkins. The decorations were of valentine design and valentines were given as favors. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. E. Lebow was hostess Tuesday afternoon for the Tuesday Bridge club, entertaining with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Colonial cafe. Additional guests were Mrs. Charles Hall and Mrs. Victor Chambers. The luncheon table was attractive with sweet peas. Following the luncheon the club went to the home of the hostess for bridge. Mrs. C. J. Kem held high score. The rooms were attractive with daffodils and potted plants.

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school held its regular monthly meeting Monday night at the church. Following a short business session, the making of valentines proved an entertaining feature. Later refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. J. M. Monteth, Mrs. S. L. Godard, Miss Esther Sibley and Mrs. A. W. Shofstall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stevens entertained Wednesday for the Tillamook club. Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Allison were welcomed as new members. The evening was spent playing cards and refreshments were served at a late hour. Valentine decorations added to the attractiveness of the rooms.

FORESTVILLE, Cal., Jan. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elder gave a surprise party at their home Saturday in honor of Mrs. Elder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris, who celebrated their fifty-third wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Morris were Forestville residents for many years. They now reside in Cottage Grove, Ore.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft have changed the meeting dates of their order from the first and third Mondays of the month to the second and fourth Fridays. Their next meeting will be February 14 and the meeting place will be in I. O. O. F. hall instead of W. O. W. hall where meetings had been held.

The Constellation club is meeting this afternoon in Masonic hall with Mrs. Vinal Randall, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. L. L. Harrel and Mrs. N. E. Glass as hostesses.

Mrs. T. C. Wheeler and Mrs. W. B. Johnston will entertain the Past Matrons club Monday afternoon at the Wheeler home.

Lundy Woodson entertained last Thursday evening in Phillips hall for a group of friends, honoring Miss Vadalbelle Brown of Eugene. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Melford Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gowdy, George Rollins and Esther Thiens, Arsal Eugene, Miss Virginia Seymour, Miss Viola Strong, Mrs. Florence Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meeka, Miss Lytha Meeka, P. S. Bukowski, Vern and Eugene Cord, Richard Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sutherland, Earl Houston and H. W. Howard. The evening was spent with bridge and dancing, the party ending with a supper dance. A turkey dinner being served.

Mrs. George Matthews and Mrs. J. H. Chambers were program leaders for the Tuesday night meeting of the Tuesday Evening club. Mrs. Matthews spoke on "Great Statesmen of the United States," briefly outlining the lives of George Washington, Benjamin Franklin and Abraham Lincoln. She also spoke on Herbert Hoover and William Howard Taft. Mrs. Chambers spoke on "Great Inventors of the United States," dealing mainly with Thomas A. Edison and Charles Goodrich. Plans were made for the annual guest night, which will be held Tuesday evening, February 18, at the home of Mrs. William Thum.

The Delphian society met Monday evening and Mrs. F. E. Mendonhall was program leader. She gave a resume of "The Study of Renaissance Painting." Mrs. Alice Miller reported on "The Scope of Our Year's Study Book." Mrs. Vinal Randall on "Ancient Painting;" Mrs. A. A. Richmond on "Byzantine Paintings;" and Mrs. Schofield Stewart on "The Italian Revival." Mrs. Lester Phelps, a member of the Tillamook Delphian society, was a guest and gave an interesting talk on how that society carries on its work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey were dinner hosts Friday night at their home, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lester Phelps, recent arrivals from Tillamook. Mr. Phelps is a former Cottage Grove resident and with his wife, also formerly of this city, has been visiting at the Vinal Randall home. Additional guests of Mr. and Mrs. Umphrey were Mr. and Mrs. Randall and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Emerson.

The Presbyterian ladies aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors and the hostess committee will be Mrs. Albert Hellwell, chairman, Mrs. M. C. Bressler, Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. Alice Miller, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Miss Lola Curran and Mrs. Amelia Curran.

The M. P. G. club was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Short. A pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed and a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Valentines were given as favors. Pussywillows and Oregon grape were decorations.

The Ad Libitum club was entertained Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Loren Harvey. A pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ethel Applewhite, president.

The Mothers' club is meeting for an all-day session today at the home of Mrs. Carrie Hemenway.

New Bridge to Go, In. County Engineer Morse was here several days ago to view the wreck of the second covered bridge above Dayton, which was crushed by a tree in the recent storm. He laid out a new site which will somewhat straighten out the road at that point and will require an 80-foot span. The old bridge had a 60-foot span.

Legion to Stage Show.
The American Legion, at its meeting Monday night, discussed plans for a show, "Hello Buddy," to be given March 26 and 27. Plans were also made for the drum corps to accompany the community men's bible class caravan to Albany Sunday. A meeting of the Willamette council was announced for February 5 and members were urged to attend.

U. S. Marshal Names Sheriff.
Frank E. Taylor, former Lane county sheriff, has been appointed as deputy United States marshal in the Oregon district. He assumed his duties February 1 and will work out of Portland. The appointment was made by John L. Day, newly appointed marshal, and was urged by prominent Lane county republicans, who had also been active in urging the selection of Day to his post.

New Hydrants Being Installed.
Three new hydrants are being installed this week on Main street by the city water department. The new hydrants are of a late design and the hydrants being removed will be placed elsewhere in the city.

Lorane Woman Breaks Leg.
Miss Sherman Shortridge of Lorane suffered a severe fracture of both bones of her left leg between the knee and ankle Wednesday morning when she slipped and fell on a walk as she was going to feed her turkeys. She was treated by a Cottage Grove physician.

Anyway They Stared
An Emporia school man, says the Gazette, went to California last summer and ate her first meal in a dining car. "Yes, I wore my new kimono in to breakfast," she said, "and the way everyone stared at me, they must have thought it was pretty."—Capper's Weekly.

Name Changes
Many cities have changed their names. Paris was once Lutetia; New York was New Amsterdam; Ottawa was Bytown; and Constantinople, Byzantium, Christiania, now Oslo, had the latter name centuries ago. Leningrad was formerly Petrograd, and before that, St. Petersburg.

Auxiliary Holds Meeting.
Mrs. Emil Tiller was elected treasurer of the American Legion auxiliary to take the place of Mrs. Herbert Whitlock, resigned, and Mrs. A. W. Kime was elected second vice president to take the place of Mrs. A. C. Bagley, who has moved away, at a meeting of the auxiliary held Monday night. Plans for the annual poppy sale to be held the last of May were made and Mrs. C. C. Cruson, chairman, Mrs. Charles Hall and Mrs. W. E. Lebow were named as the committee to have charge. The unit voted to buy 1500 poppies, an increase of 300 over last year. It was decided to secure permission to hold a poppy poster making contest in the city schools and to give prizes to the winners. It was voted to buy a motion picture to help advertise the poppy sale. Plans were made for a sewing circle meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kime, at which time children's garments were to be made. Mrs. W. E. Lebow was presented a past secretary's badge. Plans for an attendance contest, which will close the first of May, were made. Mrs. Charles Bostlaugh and Mrs. W. H. Bachelder were named captains.

Mrs. Emil Tiller gave a brief report of the district conference held in Eugene in January. The hospital committee reported the making of six pneumonia jackets and five sunproof pillows. Mrs. Herbert Riss, chairman, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Mrs. Thomas Funk, Miss Bethel Gowdy and Mrs. Arthur Jones were appointed as the refreshment committee for the auxiliary's February 17 meeting. A rubber thumb used on the right hand thumb when paring vegetables or slicing fruit will save many a small cut from the sharp paring knife.
