

When Prosperity Becomes Rampant

It is just as important to have satisfactory banking connections as during duller times.

Establish yourself with your banker early in your business career. This is as important as a stock of goods. Let him learn to know you before the emergency arrives when banking credit may save you or help you to bigger things.

The biggest and most reliable is none too good for your banking connection.

The First National Bank

Of Cottage Grove

Capital $50,000

Surplus, $25,000

City Briefs

The J. A. Wiseman family spent the week end at Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garoutte and son Alden, and Mrs. Garoutte's mother, Mrs. H. J. Jorgensen, returned Sunday from a motor trip to Raymond, Wash., where they visited at the home of Mrs. Jorgensen's other daughter, Mrs. Minard Weeks. On the return trip they visited in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. John Finnegan and in Dallas with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kem.

Guessing for hose contest ends Saturday night, 8 p. m. The Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. William Funk and Mrs. O. W. Blackmore and sons spent Sunday in the Bohemia district at the Fairview lookout.

Eight Campfire girls with their guardian, Miss Lois Godard, and Alma Lindamood are camping on Shasta creek. They expect to return Friday or Saturday.

Marshall's Cash Grocery.

Phone 222

Friday and Saturday SPECIALS

Hills Brothers Blue Can Brand Coffee, 3 lbs. $1.00

Oxyd Soap Powder, two packages .45c

Miss Dorothea Anderson of Heppner visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Ira Ison and with an uncle, M. H. Anderson. She has been attending summer school at University of Oregon and will leave this week on the University summer school cruise to Alaska.

Special price on McCormick's Deering Cream Separators at Knowles & Graber's.

Mr. Jennie Hayes, Miss Gold Hayes, Gayle Tennis and Cliff Hinder returned Sunday from spending a week at the Hiner cottage on Winchester bay. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jensen of Eugene spent Sunday there with them.

Superintendent and Mrs. D. A. Emerson returned Sunday from Spokane, where Mrs. Emerson and two small sons spent the summer with Mrs. Emerson's parents. Mr. Emerson drove up for them last week. Miss Isabel Safley, who had been visiting in the Dalles with a sister, Mrs. Cecil Caton, and in Spokane with Mrs. Emerson, returned home with them.

Pine-o-Phine relieves Hay Fever, Asthma, Summer Colds, Catarrh, etc. at Owl Drug Store.

Orin Hankins of Delight valley, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hankins, suffered a painfully cut leg Monday morning when he was kicked by a horse as he was doing the morning chores. He was treated by a local physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkinson of Portland spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen, parents of Mrs. Wilkinson.

Miss Dolly McLeod, who had spent three weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McLeod, returned Sunday to Oregon City.

Be at the Fair Saturday night 8 p. m. you may be the winner.

Nyval Mitchell, while on his way from Grants Pass to his home in Chehalis, was a guest briefly Monday of his brother, H. C. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hanson and family returned Wednesday from a short vacation spent at Winchester bay.

The Shivers family, who lived on North tenth street, moved last week to Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Eperson of Medford arrived this week to remain with her daughter, Mrs. P. B. Siscl, who is ill at the home of a sister, Mrs. H. A. Hagen.

Have you seen Nelson Motor company's list of used car bargains? It will pay you to do so.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neet left Sunday to spend a few days in Chico, Cal., with a brother of Mr. Neet.

Mrs. Ivan Barker is suffering with a badly infected left foot. She cut the foot recently while swimming and the wound became infected.

Mrs. Carrie Mannell and daughter Vera and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mannell, all of Eugene, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Lucy Lea and daughter, Miss Elsie Lea. In the evening the Lea and their guests were dinner guests at the W. C. Conner home.

Five pairs have given away at The Fair—Saturday night—8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith and family returned Monday evening from Bandon, where they spent a week's vacation.

Albert Helliwell, W. A. Garoutte and C. C. Cruseon spent the week end fishing near Gardiner.

Mrs. Frank Dickson of Vernonia visited briefly Tuesday with Mrs. C. C. Cruseon and other friends in Cottage Grove. She was returning home from a week spent with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka at their summer camp on the Metolius river.

Dillard Melons and Fruits

We are now receiving daily supply of these famous melons and fruit.

Peaches

Southern Oregon Crawford peaches are now on for canning priced at$1.15 a bushel and up

Friday and Saturday Grocery Specials

Brooms, made in Cottage Grove, 79c

Jar rings, double lip, 4 dozen 25c

Toilet paper (Silk Floss) 5 for25c

Sugar Special

13 lbs. best cane, 3 lbs. golden C, and 1 lb. powdered sugar

All for $1.00

Smith-Short Grocery

The Store That Appreciates Your Trade

LOW FARES EAST

EFFECTIVE MAY 23 TO SEPT. 30 RETURN LIMIT OCT. 31, 1936

Reduced fares all parts of east liberal stopovers. Fine trains; modern equipment; splendid service; scenic route. Short side trips enable you to visit—

ZION NATIONAL PARK

GRAND CANYON NATIONAL PARK

BRUCE CANYON NATIONAL PARK

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK

ROCKY MOUNTAIN NAT'L PARK

Information and Booklets on request

General Passenger Dept.

637 Pittcock Block, Portland, Ore.

ROUND TRIP TO

OMAHA$8.25

KANSAS CITY78.50

CHICAGO81.25

DETROIT110.67

CINCINNATI111.46

NEW ORLEANS112.40

ATLANTA122.79

PITTSBURGH122.11

WASHINGTON146.81

PHILADELPHIA152.57

NEW YORK152.79

BOSTON158.81

B-E Corn and Wart Remover

Painless—50c at Owl Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Scott and daughter of Ashland spent the week end at Dorena with Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Christian.

John Wilson, who was employed in the Bandon postoffice, is now employed in the local postoffice.

Mike Beach is working in the Imperial barber shop while P. R. Bukowski is on his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Willard of Livingston, Tex., were guests Tuesday and Wednesday of Elbert Bode.

Several buyers of used cars have taken advantage of the Nelson Motor company's used car sale which ends September 1. You'd better look them over.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. White left this week to spend two or three weeks at Newport.

The Clara Burkholder family motored to Newport for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bode and daughter Elsie accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Schofield Stewart motored to Portland last week to meet Mrs. Minnie Johnson and daughter Betty of Los Angeles, who visited here for several days with the Stewarts. Mrs. Johnson is an aunt of Mrs. Stewart.

Children's box 25c value at 10c Saturday only. The Fair.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles, where Dr. Hagen will take a three-week advanced course at the Los Angeles Chiropractic college.

The Nelson Motor company has sold the following cars in the past week: Ford truck to Fred Sturdevant; Jewett touring to Charles Gordinier; Buick touring to John Clark of Roseburg; Ford touring to George E. Nichols.

Dr. B. R. Job, accompanied by two friends, left Wednesday morning for southern Oregon to visit Dr. Job's mining claims.

The Pastime for pastime. Cards, pool, snooker, fountain, tobacco.

Mrs. Emmil Tiller is attending the state American Legion auxiliary convention in Baker this week as delegate of the local American Legion auxiliary unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Milligan and Mrs. Inez Meeks of Portland spent the week end with relatives here. Mrs. Meeks visited her daughter, Mrs. Sam Veatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Cook of Salem visited one day last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baker.

William Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vincent of Bridge visited Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. O. Groat and William Vincent's daughter Phyllis.

Hear latest old time records at Owl Drug Store.

Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Orr and daughter left today for Marshfield, where Rev. Orr will undergo a medical examination. Rev. Orr was injured several months ago in a logging accident near Coquille. They plan to return Friday.

Mrs. Esther Shields and father, Mr. Wilson, visited briefly Friday with Mrs. M. E. Adams.

They were on their way home to Portland from Crescent City, Cal., where they had visited Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Adams and Mrs. Eliza Atkinson.

Repair work has been started on the job building on Main street which was damaged by fire recently. A fence at the rear of the building has been removed.

Big shipment of pillow cases, wonderful patterns—80c. The Fair.

Six different designs pillow cases. The Fair—Genuine Pepperell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shields and children and William Heck of this city, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heck of Aberdeen, Wash., left last week for Rifle, Colo., where they will visit at the home of William Heck's son, Roy Heck, who is manager of the J. C. Penney Co. store there.

Orton England of Los Angeles, a former resident, arrived last week to visit friends.

Mrs. N. J. Nelson and children Maxine and Bobby returned Sunday from Coburg, where they visited several days with Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. E. J. Deffenbacher.

Miss Ruth Traylor returned last week from a week's visit in Washington, Wash.

P. J. Jennings of the Lead Crystal Mining company, accompanied by J. Abbott, a prominent Idaho mining man, went into the Bohemia district last week.

C. Van Scholack, road patrolman in the Dorena district, was in Eugene last week to talk over road work with members of the county court.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Johnson and children of Seattle, former Cottage Grove residents, visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Baker. The Johnsons with Mrs. Baker and daughter Melissa spent a few days the latter part of the week at Winchester bay. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who formerly operated the City

Bakery here, left here several months ago. Mr. Johnson's health had failed. They are now looking for a bakery location in Oregon.

Mrs. J. Brace of Vancouver, Wash., is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Job.

Mrs. T. M. Hunt, who had been staying in the local postoffice, left this week for her home in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Love of Bakerfield, Cal., left Sunday after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. Van Proyen. They are old time friends of Mrs. Van Proyen. The Loves also visited in Eugene with Mr. Love's brother.

J. C. Klopstein filed for record Monday at the county clerk's office notice of location of a quartz claim in the Bohemia mining district.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway left Sunday for Moscow, Idaho, where they will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price and family of Rev. Duncan P. Cameron and LaSells Stewart, delegates to the American Legion department convention, here Robert Fromm, re-elected commander of Calvin Funk post, left Wednesday for Baker to attend the annual convention. They were accompanied by Peter Nelson.

Ivan Barker and Loren Harvey spent the week end at Kroll lake fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKnight of Eugene spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Caldwell.

M. F. Wyatt accompanied his son Dale into the Bohemia mining district Sunday to spend several days.

Alta King of Eugene, district attorney, was in Cottage Grove and vicinity Friday looking after his ranch property which was threatened by fires set in the district last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin were dinner guests one day last week of Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Hadleyville.

Mary and Ruth Cameron, daughters of Rev. Duncan P. Cameron, are visiting this week with friends in Seaside.

George Bjorset and F. L. Grannis returned Friday afternoon from a fishing trip on the upper Umpqua river. They brought back three large steelheads.

Mrs. E. Doolittle returned Monday after a six months' absence during which she visited a son in eastern Oregon and relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Howe left Tuesday night for their home in Gresham, after visiting since Saturday at the home of Mrs. Howe's aunt, Mrs. Rosa Curran.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ries have moved into the J. A. Powell house on Sunday street.

The Powells recently moved to Prineville.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen and Dr. and Mrs. Claude Kime were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Romaine of Portland at their summer camp at Mount Hood. Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen of Portland, former Cottage Grove residents, also were guests.

Miss Esther Slaby returned Monday from Portland, where she spent the week end at the home of a brother and with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Graham left Sunday for a week at their mining claim up Shasta creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short and children returned Friday from a vacation spent at Rockaway and other beach resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey and children Doreen and Dorothy returned Thursday evening from six weeks' visit in the middle west with relatives and friends. They encountered extremely hot, dry weather on their trip.

Miss Susan Simpson has returned from Aberdeen, Wash., where she spent a year working for the Michigan Lumber company, and has accepted a position with the W. A. Woodard Lumber company. She formerly was employed in the local office of the Anderson & Middleton Lumber company. She is making her home in the Omar apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell spent Sunday at their cabin at Lundpark.

Mr. Bartell came down from Corvallis that morning.

The J. H. Iversen family of Silverton arrived Sunday to visit a few days at the home of Mr. Iversen's half brother, N. J. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Dungan will move soon from their home on First street to the W. A. Garoutte house at Fifth and Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright left Saturday for Newport to spend several weeks. They visited in Corvallis with Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. L. M. Harding, who accompanied them to Newport.

Miss Jane Gavin, nurse of the Lane county hospital, was in Cottage Grove and Loranese Thursday of last week in connection with health work.

County bridge crews have started work on a new 40-foot span on south Loranese highway across Pucker creek.

Deed for a piece of land for right of way for the Mt. Hood creek bridge was filed for record Thursday at the county clerk's office. The land was conveyed to the county by C. E. Stewart.

The Henry Bennett family left Sunday for California to visit Mr. Bennett's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heck of Aberdeen, Wash., left last week for Rifle, Colo., where they will visit at the home of William Heck's son, Roy Heck, who is manager of the J. C. Penney Co. store there.

Orton England of Los Angeles, a former resident, arrived last week to visit friends.

Mrs. N. J. Nelson and children Maxine and Bobby returned Sunday from Coburg, where they visited several days with Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. E. J. Deffenbacher.

Miss Ruth Traylor returned last week from a week's visit in Washington, Wash.

P. J. Jennings of the Lead Crystal Mining company, accompanied by J. Abbott, a prominent Idaho mining man, went into the Bohemia district last week.

C. Van Scholack, road patrolman in the Dorena district, was in Eugene last week to talk over road work with members of the county court.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Johnson and children of Seattle, former Cottage Grove residents, visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Baker. The Johnsons with Mrs. Baker and daughter Melissa spent a few days the latter part of the week at Winchester bay. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who formerly operated the City

Bakery here, left here several months ago. Mr. Johnson's health had failed. They are now looking for a bakery location in Oregon.

Mrs. J. Brace of Vancouver, Wash., is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Job.

Mrs. T. M. Hunt, who had been staying in the local postoffice, left this week for her home in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Love of Bakerfield, Cal., left Sunday after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. Van Proyen. They are old time friends of Mrs. Van Proyen. The Loves also visited in Eugene with Mr. Love's brother.

J. C. Klopstein filed for record Monday at the county clerk's office notice of location of a quartz claim in the Bohemia mining district.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway left Sunday for Moscow, Idaho, where they will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price and family of Rev. Duncan P. Cameron and LaSells Stewart, delegates to the American Legion department convention, here Robert Fromm, re-elected commander of Calvin Funk post, left Wednesday for Baker to attend the annual convention. They were accompanied by Peter Nelson.

Ivan Barker and Loren Harvey spent the week end at Kroll lake fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKnight of Eugene spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Caldwell.

M. F. Wyatt accompanied his son Dale into the Bohemia mining district Sunday to spend several days.

Alta King of Eugene, district attorney, was in Cottage Grove and vicinity Friday looking after his ranch property which was threatened by fires set in the district last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin were dinner guests one day last week of Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Hadleyville.

Mary and Ruth Cameron, daughters of Rev. Duncan P. Cameron, are visiting this week with friends in Seaside.

George Bjorset and F. L. Grannis returned Friday afternoon from a fishing trip on the upper Umpqua river. They brought back three large steelheads.

Mrs. E. Doolittle returned Monday after a six months' absence during which she visited a son in eastern Oregon and relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Howe left Tuesday night for their home in Gresham, after visiting since Saturday at the home of Mrs. Howe's aunt, Mrs. Rosa Curran.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ries have moved into the J. A. Powell house on Sunday street.

The Powells recently moved to Prineville.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen and Dr. and Mrs. Claude Kime were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Romaine of Portland at their summer camp at Mount Hood. Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen of Portland, former Cottage Grove residents, also were guests.

Miss Esther Slaby returned Monday from Portland, where she spent the week end at the home of a brother and with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Graham left Sunday for a week at their mining claim up Shasta creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short and children returned Friday from a vacation spent at Rockaway and other beach resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey and children Doreen and Dorothy returned Thursday evening from six weeks' visit in the middle west with relatives and friends. They encountered extremely hot, dry weather on their trip.

Miss Susan Simpson has returned from Aberdeen, Wash., where she spent a year working for the Michigan Lumber company, and has accepted a position with the W. A. Woodard Lumber company. She formerly was employed in the local office of the Anderson & Middleton Lumber company. She is making her home in the Omar apartments.

Bakery here, left here several months ago.

Mr. Johnson's health had failed. They are now looking for a bakery location in Oregon.

Mrs. J. Brace of Vancouver, Wash., is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Job.

Mrs. T. M. Hunt, who had been staying in the local postoffice, left this week for her home in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Love of Bakerfield, Cal., left Sunday after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. Van Proyen. They are old time friends of Mrs. Van Proyen. The Loves also visited in Eugene with Mr. Love's brother.

J. C. Klopstein filed for record Monday at the county clerk's office notice of location of a quartz claim in the Bohemia mining district.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway left Sunday for Moscow, Idaho, where they will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price and family of Rev. Duncan P. Cameron and LaSells Stewart, delegates to the American Legion department convention, here Robert Fromm, re-elected commander of Calvin Funk post, left Wednesday for Baker to attend the annual convention. They were accompanied by Peter Nelson.

Ivan Barker and Loren Harvey spent the week end at Kroll lake fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKnight of Eugene spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Caldwell.

M. F. Wyatt accompanied his son Dale into the Bohemia mining district Sunday to spend several days.

Alta King of Eugene, district attorney, was in Cottage Grove and vicinity Friday looking after his ranch property which was threatened by fires set in the district last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin were dinner guests one day last week of Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Hadleyville.

Mary and Ruth Cameron, daughters of Rev. Duncan P. Cameron, are visiting this week with friends in Seaside.

George Bjorset and F. L. Grannis returned Friday afternoon from a fishing trip on the upper Umpqua river. They brought back three large steelheads.

Mrs. E. Doolittle returned Monday after a six months' absence during which she visited a son in eastern Oregon and relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Howe left Tuesday night for their home in Gresham, after visiting since Saturday at the home of Mrs. Howe's aunt, Mrs. Rosa Curran.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ries have moved into the J. A. Powell house on Sunday street.

The Powells recently moved to Prineville.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen and Dr. and Mrs. Claude Kime were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Romaine of Portland at their summer camp at Mount Hood. Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen of Portland, former Cottage Grove residents, also were guests.

Miss Esther Slaby returned Monday from Portland, where she spent the week end at the home of a brother and with friends.

Mr. and Mrs.