

SOCIETY

The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Watkins entertained Monday night with a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Watkins' father, W. P. Moore, and her sister, Hazel Moore, both of Iowa, who have been visiting here.

In honor of her sister, Mrs. J. K. Herman of Santa Ana, Cal., and of her daughter, Mrs. John Skilling of Oakland, Cal., Mrs. William Thum entertained Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Lee Dugan and Mrs. Walter Pitcher entertained the ladies' auxiliary of the Eagles Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dugan.

The Presbyterian missionary society will hold its annual summer meeting Wednesday afternoon on the lawn at the home of Mrs. W. V. McGee, with Mrs. Hatch, Miss Haney and Mrs. Charles Biedler as joint hostesses.

A family picnic was held Sunday at Swimmers Delight at which the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Richmond and family, Cottage Grove; Miss Alice Southwick, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arnes and family, Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Griswold, Mrs. Alice Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Arnes, Mr. and Mrs. Norval Arnes, Eugene; Miss Eva Richmond, Wooster, O.

Mrs. C. A. Biedler entertained Tuesday night with a dinner party honoring her niece, Olivia and Julian Ann Smith of Portland. Covers were laid for the two honor guests, Louise Wynne, Madeline Biedler, Frances Mackin, Kathleen Biedler, Beth Bede of this city and Adeline Adams of Eugene.

Mrs. Elbert Smith entertained Saturday with a swimming party at Swimmers Delight, honoring her daughter, Evelyn, on her sixteenth birthday anniversary.

Members of the Royal Neighbors and their families held a picnic Wednesday evening in the city park. A social time followed the picnic supper.

Women Golfers Have Meeting. Members of the women's golf club met Wednesday, which is ladies' day on the local golf course, for a morning of golf. Luncheon was served at the club house and the afternoon was spent painting chairs and tables for the club house. In the evening husbands were entertained at a picnic supper at Woodson's auto camp. Club members will meet again next Wednesday.

Little Jimmy Smith Injured. Jimmy Smith, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith, suffered a painfully cut wrist Monday when the ax with which he was cutting wood slipped from his hand. He was taken to a Eugene hospital Monday evening and it was found that his injury, although extremely painful, was not serious. He was able to return to his home Tuesday afternoon.

Codling Moth Spray Due. Now is the time to spray for codling moth on apples and fall pears, according to C. E. Stewart, county fruit inspector.

The formula is as follows: Lead arsenate 4 pounds to 200 gallons of water. If anthracnose is spreading in the orchard, use 4-4-50 bordeaux mixture, in combination with the lead arsenate as proportioned above. Apply at once.

Hosiery Guessing Contest Closes. The hosiery guessing contest at The Fair store closed Saturday night, Mrs. W. B. Johnston winning first prize, three pairs of silk stockings. Mrs. Walter Kilbridge won second prize, one pair of $1.50 hose, and Mrs. Myrtle Saltman won third prize, a pair of $1.50 hose.

Left over roast meat, finely ground and mixed with a little horse radish or chopped pickles and mayonnaise, makes a good sandwich filling.

Oddities for Traveler to Observe in Hawaii. "Believe it or not," but it will grow a variety of bananas whose fruit ripens within the trunk of the plant.

This was one of the verified assertions submitted in a "believe it or not" contest conducted by a Honolulu newspaper.

Other "believe it or not" were: Every word in the Hawaiian language ends with a vowel.

The smallest kingdom in the world once existed in the Hawaiian Islands. The kingdom of Miiou, on the Napali coast of Kauai, a few hundred yards wide and a few miles long, was formerly inhabited by about 200 Hawaiians under their own king.

The water from a waterfall in Nuuanu valley never reaches the ground direct.

In Honolulu you can stand on dry pavement on one side of the street and see it rain on the other side.

The island of Mooliki, a little south of Maui, was lost by Hawaiian royalty in a poker game.

The nightingale of Kona is not a bird; it is a jackass.

The old Kaunani church in Honolulu was built with two steeples to carry out the wish of King Kalakaua.

Institute That Houses Millions of Microbes. The Lister Institute of Preventive Medicine, Chelsea, England, contains the largest collection of microbes in the world. They number some 1,500 different varieties growing in little glass tubes about five inches long, and though they look harmless enough, some amongst them would, if let loose and distributed, probably start an epidemic which might easily vie in deadliness with those recorded in the Middle Ages.

Part of Lost Atlantis? The five inhabited Scilly islands are St. Mary's, Treves, St. Martin's, St. Agnes and Bryher. The capital is Hugh Town in St. Mary's. This, together with Star castle, dating back to the time of Queen Elizabeth, is situated on a sandy peninsula known as the Garrison. The town has a harbor, used by the Penzance steamers, and a roadstead where large vessels may lie at anchor.

The main industry of the islands is flower growing. The islands have figured in history at various times. Supposedly, they are all that is left of the lost continent Atlantis. Then some suppose they were the Cassiterides, or "Tin Islands" of the ancients. They are now part of the Duchy of Cornwall, thus belonging to the prince of Wales.

Come Into the Kitchen

Culinary Hints from the Canny Cook. While the strains of the famous old wedding march still echo down the corridors and before the honeymoon sinks down into the horizon of oft times prosaic married life—it's just as well to remind the culinary young brides that feminine frills and fripperies do not suffice, that a well-cooked meal remains the open but none too heavily trafficked road to a man's affections, and that both money and marital happiness can run down the sink and into the garbage can unless the culinary queen wields a Scotch mixing spoon and has more than a flirting acquaintance with cooking for two.

Confronted by rows of gaily labeled fruit and vegetable cans on her newly stocked shelves—the bride little realizes the importance of planning on how best to use the half can of peaches left from yesterday's breakfasting, until all the refrigerator dishes and half the breakfast china house the remains of these opened and half used canned supplies. And what a marked effect such knowledge has on that blushing domestic felicity—the family budget!

A prosaic can of tomatoes holds all the lure of a travel chart, the adventure of a new road. Canned tomatoes, valuable not only from a standpoint of flavor but brimful of vim, vigor and vitamins, may tour through the daily three with a flare.

The juice strained off becomes a gay good morning system eye-opener, gives backbone to the luncheon soup or adds a distinctive flare to the dinner party in the form of tomato aspic, leaving the solid portions for use in any dish demanding cooked tomatoes. Or with equal success it may disguise the Sunday roast of veal in the form of a tomato sauce, which may also be used for cauliflower, string beans, fish and such. It may be used instead of other liquid in preparing pot roast or beef or lamb, used as an extender for eggs in scrambling or in omelette making, or lend the subtle touch of distinction—flavor.

Canned corn may be combined with canned beans as succotash; used in fritters, chowder, corn pudding, soup; heated with minced green peppers or pimientos; escalloped with an equal portion of highly seasoned tomatoes.

Canned peas, beyond their ability to be used in any way, the fresh peas served may be used in soup, in cream sauce, with fish loaf or new potatoes, in vegetable salad, heated in the gravy remaining from broiled lamb chops; as a garnish to meats and fish, or heated with shredded lettuce or a bit of mint.

Spinach canned is a most versatile creature—the liquor drained off and used with a little of the spinach for a cream of spinach soup is a delightful form of economizing. While the spinach, seasoned well (did you know a sly dash of nutmeg adds taste appeal) may be shaped in timbale molds, used as a garnish for planked fish or meat, added to lemon gelatine and used as a salad, escalloped or made into a soufflé, or shaped into nests and filled with tiny molded cheese eggs or a poached egg. The canny cook uses half of the opened can in a little individual one piece meal—half filling baked tart shells with spinach, breaking into it one egg, adding leftover canned tomato sauce or tomato juice, and a sprinkle of cheese. Then these are baked in a moderate oven until the egg is set! And Friend Husband doesn't realize he's been inveigled into eating spinach. And so it goes on through the long list of canned vegetables—apart from string beans, carrots—and so on—the liquor is always saved—serving as a butter sauce for the heated vegetable; reposing in the soup kettle along with sister juices from other vegetables and meats; used in place of milk in cream sauces or instead of water in the making of gelatine base vegetable salads.

Mine Road Work Rushed. Work on the Frank Brice creek road is continuing and work was started Monday on the connecting link route between the Champion and Musick mines, according to Tom Parker, employed in the work, who was here Tuesday. A large crew of men is working on the link road under the direction of Loren Hunt, road supervisor. County road machinery was taken to Champion Monday by Mr. Parker. Headquarters of the road crew is at the Champion mine office building.

The county bridge crew under Joe Damewood was called Monday to repair the second approach of the bridge through which a truck loaded with dynamite went last week. The first approach, through which the truck went, had been repaired only a day or two before.

Why Fat Men Stay Fat

"The trouble with me, and I guess this applies to 99% of the men who are putting on weight, I didn't have the energy or 'pep' to keep it off. Lost all interest in any healthy activity and just lazed around accumulating the old pounds until I got that 'Kruschen feeling.'"

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common-sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves. This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

As a result instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every free moment and letting flabby fat accumulate you feel an urge for activity that keeps you moving around doing the things you've always wanted to do and need to do to keep you in good condition.

Then watch the pounds slide off! Kruschen Salts are the up-to-date Fountain of Youth. Take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot or cold water tomorrow morning every morning—and if they don't change your whole idea about reducing, go back and get the small price you paid for them. Get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts—lasts 4 weeks, at Cottage Grove Pharmacy.

Announcing a new production record 2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road. Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time. These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder engine—the comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher. Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And any model can be bought for a small down payment and easy monthly terms! Come in today. Learn for yourself why two million buyers have agreed—"It's wise to choose a Six." Some Distinguishing Features 50-horsepower six-cylinder motor... 48-pound crankshaft... full-length frame... four semi-elliptic springs... fully-enclosed four-wheel brakes... dash gasoline gauge...
