

SOCIETY

The Tuesday Evening club met Tuesday evening and continued its study of biographies. The "Life of St. Francis of Assisi" by Salvatorelli was studied as the second in the series. Mrs. Elbert Smith opened the program with an interesting description of central Italy, the early home territory of St. Francis. She continued with the boyhood of the great man up to the period when he became an influential religious leader. Mrs. R. A. Trask, as a conclusion, told of the result of his teachings and related other facts up to the date of his death. For the next meeting Mrs. S. L. Macdon, program leader, assigned each member an election measure to report on. At a business meeting during the evening Mrs. J. H. Chambers was elected a delegate to the first annual meeting of district 2 in the State Federation of Women's clubs to be held in Eugene October 29. Mrs. Omer Moore was elected alternate and Mrs. George Matthews was appointed by the president, Miss Mariette Hamant, to represent her at the session.

Mrs. Glen Haney was hostess Friday afternoon for the Needlecraft club. At the close of a social afternoon with needlework a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Snapdragons and rosebuds were arranged in an attractive centerpiece for the table and asters were colorful room decorations.

Mrs. A. W. Kime was hostess Friday afternoon for the O. L. H. club. Mrs. James P. Graham received high score prize for club members and for the guests. Mrs. Claude Kime received first prize and Mrs. C. J. Kem the prize for second high score. Miss Geneva Kime entertained with vocal selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Kem. At the close of the afternoon a dainty two-course luncheon was served. Guests included members of the O. L. H. club, Mrs. Elmer Franks, Mrs. William Thum, Mrs. George Morgan, Mrs. Claude Kime, Mrs. C. J. Kem, Miss Esther Silaby, Miss Geneva Kime and Miss Gladys Hugli, who was visiting Miss Kime from Portland.

The M. E. ad society will meet Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors with Mrs. E. E. Cone, Mrs. William Hogate, Mrs. Albert Wooley, Mrs. A. G. Sprinkle and Mrs. F. L. Grannis as hostesses. The meeting will be in nature of a "rally" session and all women members of the congregation and their friends have been invited to be present. A special program is being planned as entertainment and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Claude Kime entertained the Tuesday Bridge club at her home Tuesday afternoon, including as additional guests Mrs. A. W. Kime and Miss Geneva Kime. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and the following hours were spent playing bridge. Mrs. A. W. Kime held high score for the afternoon. Quantities of autumn flowers and foliage made the rooms especially attractive.

Mrs. Ralph Saltzman and Mrs. Merville Veatch entertained at bridge Monday night at the home of the former, honoring Mrs. P. B. Sisco, house guest of her sister, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, and Mrs. Charles Brace, who has recently come to the city to reside. Three tables were in play and Mrs. Earl Garoute held high score. Mrs. Sisco and Mrs. Brace received guest prizes. At a late hour refreshments were served. Guests for the evening included Mrs. Sisco, Mrs. Brace, Mrs. Hagen, Mrs. Garoute, Mrs. O. E. Woodson, Mrs. Cecil Caldwell, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. W. E. Johnston, Mrs. Ren Sanford, Mrs. A. W. Swanson, Mrs. N. J. Nelson and Mrs. H. C. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Emerson entertained the married teachers of both the high school and grade school faculties and their husbands and wives with a card party Friday night at their home on West Main street. Both bridge and rummy were played. Mrs. William Thum received a prize for medium score. At the close of the evening a tempting two-course supper was served. Guests for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. William Thum, Mr. and Mrs. George Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Isom, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis and Herman Lafky.

The Jolly Bunch dancing club gave its opening dance of the season Saturday night at Phillips hall. A number of Eugene couples were guests of the club. Following the dance refreshments were served.

Rev. L. H. Randle was pleasantly surprised at his home Monday night when a group of his church members called to help him celebrate his birthday anniversary. More than 40 persons gathered at the A. O. Barker home and later went to the Randle home, where the evening was spent with games and a series of bridge parties. At the close of the evening refreshments were served. A large birthday cake decorated with the proper number of candles was presented to the honor guest by Mrs. K. K. Mills. Rev. Randle was also presented with a beautiful gift from the group.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin and Mrs. K. K. Mills were hostesses Monday for the Past Masters' club, entertaining at the Eakin home. A short business meeting was held and names were drawn for the annual Christmas gift exchange. The remaining hours were spent with needlework and at the close of the afternoon a two-course luncheon was served. The guests were served at small tables. Bud vases of rosebuds were attractive centerpieces. The club will meet in November at the home of Mrs. George Matthews with Mrs. H. A. Miller as assistant hostess.

Mrs. Clarence Cone entertained the Ad Libitum club Thursday of last week, inviting as a special guest Mrs. Horace Hartzel. The afternoon was spent with handwork and Mrs. G. B. Arnest and Mrs. Albert Wooley received gifts from the club in honor of their birthday anniversaries. At the tea hour dainty refreshments were served. Daisies and chrysanthemums in colorful hula were attractive decorations for the luncheon table and rooms. Next Thursday the club will observe their fifth anniversary and will be the guests of Mrs. Ransom Cone.

Miss Merle Bowen entertained a group of friends Friday night at the Colonial, honoring Miss Hannah Lewis, who was Miss Bowen's guest over the week-end. Miss Lewis is a former member of the high school faculty and at present is teaching at Elmira. Bridge was the diversion of the evening and prizes were won by Miss Sarah Shields for high score and Mrs. L. W. Colner for low score. Miss Bernice Lamb of Eugene, former music supervisor of city schools, was an out-of-town guest. Following cards dainty refreshments were served.

The Tanglefoot dancing club held its opening dance of the season at the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night of last week. Members and their guests came attired in "hard times" costumes. The hall was decorated to resemble an old time barn, with lanterns and kerosene lamps for lighting effects. Autumn leaves and corn stalks completed the decorations. Cider was served. The hostesses consisted of Mrs. Claude Kime, Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, Mrs. Elbert Bede, Mrs. C. C. Cruson, Mrs. W. M. MacGibbon and Mrs. H. C. Wells.

The C. C. club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft circle was entertained by Mrs. J. H. Bartels and Mrs. William Bartels Monday night at the home of the former. Four tables were arranged for bridge and prizes were awarded Mrs. C. A. Stevens for high score and Mrs. Fred Bennett for low score. An interesting game, "spiderweb," was an additional feature. Combined fall flowers were artistic room decorations. Following the entertainment delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. L. Grannis entertained Utopia club Thursday, including Mrs. Ira Aldrich as an additional guest. The afternoon was spent in a social manner after which a two-course luncheon was served. The motif of decoration for the luncheon table was in keeping with Halloween. Combined fall flowers were room decorations. Mrs. J. A. Wiseman was welcomed as a new member.

Plans for a masquerade dance, to be given October 30, were made by the Order of Rainbow for girls at their regular session Monday night. The dance will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall and will be private, each girl being privileged to invite a guest. An initiation and social evening is being arranged for the next regular meeting of the order on October 27.

Billie Bartels entertained a group of boy friends Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bartels. The occasion was his tenth birthday anniversary. The guests were entertained with a variety of games. Refreshments were served. Billie received a number of gifts.

The Delphian chapter will meet Monday afternoon instead of Monday night to enable members to attend the lecture to be given by Rev. D. P. Cameron at the high school gymnasium that evening. The meeting will be held from 2:30 to 4:30 at the home of the club president, Mrs. Schofield Stewart.

The M. P. G. club met Tuesday with Mrs. Harold Axley for a social afternoon. At the tea hour a dainty luncheon was served. The luncheon table was attractive with a centerpiece of pink cosmos and white anemones. Asters were room decorations.

Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. Herbert Lombard, Mrs. C. A. Bartell and Mrs. Victor Chambers attended the regular meeting of the Daughters of the Nile Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Monroe in Eugene.

Mrs. Charles Bouslaugh entertained Wednesday afternoon with a 1 o'clock luncheon for a group of friends. Covers were laid for eight. The table was centered with dahlias. A social afternoon of needlework followed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wiseman were hosts Wednesday night for the Tillicum club, bidding Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith and Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills as additional guests. The evening was spent playing bridge. A one-course luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cone entertained as dinner guests Friday night Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Arnest. The evening was spent with games.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede entertained as dinner guests Friday night Mr. and Mrs. William MacGibbon, Robert Z. Drake and Miss Green, secretary for Mr. Drake.

The Joker club will be entertained Friday night at the home of Miss Esther Silaby.

Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. Sam Veatch and Mrs. Fred Anderson entertained with a series of bridge parties Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week at the home of Mrs. Veatch. Guests for seven tables of bridge were bidden Wednesday night and six tables were formed Thursday night. Mrs. J. Brighton Leonard held high score and Mrs. Merville Veatch second high on Wednesday night and Mrs. W. E. Lebow was high and Mrs. W. McFarland second high Thursday night. Dainty refreshments were served. Fall flowers were colorful decorations.

A. G. Sprinkle, who left Sunday for Portland, where he will be employed near Linnton, was pleasantly surprised Friday evening by a group of friends who gathered to give him a farewell party. Sixteen were present. The group gathered at the N. E. Compton home, going from there to the Sprinkle home. The evening was spent with games and music. Light refreshments were served.

The Toujours Prete club was entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Stacey, with Mrs. Stacey, Mrs. Clyde Roberts, Mrs. Sam Veatch and Mrs. Fred Bennett as hostesses. Mrs. Gavin C. Dyott of Eugene, a former member, was an additional guest. A social evening was enjoyed. Light refreshments were served.

A number of Eastern Star members went to Creswell last night to meet with the Eastern Star chapter there. Cottage Grove chapter of the Eastern Star will entertain the Creswell and Springfield chapters Friday night, October 24. The refreshment committee will be Mrs. Clara Burkholder, chairman, Mrs. T. C. Wheeler, Mrs. J. H. Chambers, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mrs. T. H. Moody, Mrs. Clyde Roberts, Mrs. Vinal Randall and Mrs. Roy Leonard. (Continued on page 5.)

Gone Are the Days

... when wasp waistlines and leg-o'-mutton sleeves were fashionable ... when daughter played the harp ... when baby almost smothered in his "swaddling" clothes ... when the laundry was dark and gloomy as a ship's hatch:

The garments of this stuffy age were washed by a process old as civilization. Women stooped and tugged. Women stretched and toiled. Dainty hands were chapped and coarsened—nails torn and cracked—rubbing, rubbing, rubbing on a corrugated board.

Fortunately, such drudgery has become a needless waste of time and effort, the ELECTRIC WASHER now churns clothing into snowy cleanliness—for a few cents an hour! You simply snap a switch and leave the rest to a tireless little motor. Costs less than 5 cents an hour to operate.
