Says WILL ROGERS

BEVERLY HILLS.—Well all I know is just what I read in the papers, or what I happen to run onto. Run onto a queer mess out here in California the other day. You know California is made up of every ingredient in the world but Californians. Well these various emigrants from their various sections of the country have a habit of holding a picnic. The State of Iowa started it, and theirs got so big they had to hold it in Arizona, then the other States got to holding what they called State Picnics, and then the Counties, and then the various towns, all over the U. S. their Rufugees that were here would hold a Rogers, Ark. Picnic. My Wife would be up at daylight so she wouldn't miss that old home town one.

Well the other day Oklahoma had one, and I am sorry to say that it was a success. I had no idea there was that many Refugees had left, but from the looks of things half of Los Angeles come from Oklahoma. Our Governor, "Alfalfa Bill" Murray came all the way out here to speak to us at this gathering, and they asked me to introduce him. Well it's kinder of a tough job introducing an Oklahoma Governor. You never know before you get through speaking but what he has been impeached while you were singing his praises.

So I think I will just jot down a lot of junk that I used at Camp Meeting, held in Sycamore Grove. As well as I can remember it it run not to wit, but to length, something like this. This is Memorial day established for two reasons, one to commemorate the passing of our loved ones who have gone before, and the other reason, to try and cheer up in some small way, the misguided Oklahomans, who were misled by a California Chamber of Commerce.

Our Governor, or that is he was our Governor when he left, has come to bring us solace from the homeland. He has come to pray with us, not for divine guidance, but to find in some way means to getting us back home. Here today are twenty-five thousand souls, who thought that Climate was digestable, and not a Real Estate Add. are here doing Penance today. 25 thousand is a lot of folks to escape the insane Asylum of their native State and reach one place. But forgive em Governor, for they know not what they were doing, and they have found nothing to do since they come.

Now Governor I wouldn't have taken the job of introducing you here today, for it really should be done by some Scholar, some learned person, but I got to thinking over the occasion, and the audience, and I figured that it wouldn't take a very bright man to talk to a bunch of people who had left a State like Oklahoma, (with all its natural resources, and opportunities) and come clear out here to see a Lemon grow, and get in the Movies. Bill Murray threw down a chance to go to Claremore this same week, they were having their annual, "Take a Bath Week," and he was invited, and come clear to California to keep from going. He wired em, "Will come and speak, but will take no part." I wired em, "Will come as a Spectator only."

Murray sympathizes with you exiles, he knows what it is, he started one time to California, took the wrong road at Woodward, and landed in Bolivia. He knew what it is to be out of touch with Civilization, even before he got into the Oklahoma State Capitol. He has been in a Spanish Country, he knows what it is to live on Frejolles, like you all do. I am sorry our Mayor of Los Angeles is not here to welcome you Governor, but he is making friends with France. Nothing worth while has passed into his lips since he got there and nothing worth while has passed out of his lips.

But you would like our Governor, he is a regular Guy, but he is from Frisco. Frisco is the place that keeps this end of the State in the Union. Its to California what the Cherokee Nations is to Oklahoma, its the Aristocracy of the commonwealth. Its the Tulsa of the works. So I take great pleasure, and pain, (for I had a broken leg at the time), I take great pleasure and pain, in introducing the only man in this entire twenty-five thousand who is fortunate enough to have a Ticket back to Oklahoma.

SALAD DRESSINGS TO SUIT THE SALADS

"THERE is a right kind of salad for each occasion, and a right kind of dressing for each different kind of salad."

That is nothing new! It is simply that some things go together and some do not. It is as old as flowers in spring, overcoats in winter, going to bed at night and getting up in the morning.

So mix a dressing appropriate to the salad. For the right dressing, mixed to suit the particular flavors of the salad, really decides the success of the salad.

Each different kind of salad has a different flavor. That is why we like them. Then why smother all their flavors under a blanket of thick dressing like mayonnaise? Mix a dressing appropriate to the salad.

In my little booklet I suggest a few salads appropriate for each occasion and the dressings that go best with them. I feel sure you will enjoy it because I have written it just for you. I hope it will help you make all your dinners and parties the charming successful occasions you want them to be. I will send you the booklet with my compliments if you will write me in care of the Wesson Oil People, 210 Baronne St., New Orleans, La.

MARY B. MURRAY.

Good Luck is treacherous!

Bad Luck is expensive!

"balance" is better than any kind of luck!

Millions of women have learned that "balance" is the one thing that eliminates luck from baking. "Balance" in a recipe means every ingredient in just the right amount. "Balance" in flour means an exclusive Pillsbury blend of the finest wheats, which produces a flour containing just the right quantities of protein, moisture and mineral, just the right color and absorption qualities, to work perfectly for all your baking. There is no other flour like Pillsbury's Best, perfectly "balanced" for unfailing success in everything you bake. It's worth asking for!
