

High School Notes

Rev. W. W. Simpson, a missionary to China, told students at the assembly Thursday morning something of his 40 years' experience in the northern part of China.

Mr. Simpson said that it will be almost impossible to prevent war between the Chinese and the Japanese because they hate each other so.

Rev. Simpson has seen much excitement during his life in China. He was there during the Boxer rebellion and at one time was captured by bandits. During a Mohammedan uprising a commander of 300,000 men used the mission buildings as his headquarters.

The following books have been received by the high school library since the opening of school: "A Boy Scout With Byrd" by Paul Blype; "Trader Horn" by Horn and Lewis; "Mysterious Island" by Jules Verne; "Opening Davy Jones' Locker" by Thomas Williamson; "My Garden of Memory" by Kate Wiggin; "Boots and Saddles" by Harper Brothers.

The following committees were appointed during the week to care for senior class projects: Committee to plan assemblies, to serve for six weeks, Rita Bales and Bernice Mosby; flag committee, to serve for two weeks, Amy Johnson and Mildred Chapman; flower committee, to serve six weeks, Dorothy Stewart and Madeline Beldier; committee to sell tickets at games, to serve until changed, Lawrence Kent, chairman, Frances Mackin, Anna Carter, Gladys Sprouls, Dorothy Humphrey, Verne Lewis; typing committee, to serve all year, Evelyn Smith, chairman, Ruth Olson, Mildred Chapman, Frances Mackin, Kathleen Beldier, Florene Strausen.

The juniors decided at class meeting Wednesday morning to have one business man present at each meeting to discuss his business and tell why he likes it.

Class Dad Harvey gave a talk on class cooperation at junior class meeting Wednesday morning.

The sophomores decided at class meeting Wednesday morning to take the project of keeping behind the lines of the football field.

The dramatics club held a meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Dorothy Stewart. A program was given and refreshments were served.

The Lions club entertained the football squad with a luncheon Thursday noon at the high school. The luncheon was prepared and served by the girls of the cooking class.

Florence Allen, assisted by Eileen Town, entertained Esther Allen and Eileen Town Monday evening at the practice house.

Zina Easley Funk, a former student, visited school Monday.

"Just imagine! Gas cooks 4 healthy breakfasts for a few pennies—and I'm sleeping later every morning!"

"Talk about speed—my gas range has coffee boiling in 6 minutes instead of 15. And now just 15 minutes is all it takes for coffee, hot biscuits and bacon put together."

"I know why four out of five city families cook with Gas. It saves me an hour a day in the kitchen. It's so easy to use—I just turn a valve for as little or as much heat as I need. I don't waste a bit of fuel—that's why I can cook for a few cents a meal—and so can you!"

"Yes, and a gas water heater will give you steaming baths 4 times faster than ever before. Start living with gas—nearly half the people in the whole United States can't be wrong!"
