SOCIETY

An interesting session of Rebekah lodge No. 24 was held last Friday evening when a special meeting was called for the official visit of Mrs. Ethel Meldrum of Milwaukee, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon. Mrs. Esther Bond of Halsey, warden of the assembly, and Mrs. C. Christensen of Portland, marshal of the assembly, the district deputy president of the Eugene lodge and the district deputy president of the local lodge were introduced with the assembly president and given the honors of the degree. Mrs. Hallie Hawkins became a member by initiation. The degree staff, with Mrs. Clara Stevens as captain, was highly complimented on its beautiful work. Sixty members of the local lodge were in attendance and other lodges were represented as follows: Eugene, 13; Croswell, 13; Halsey, 5; Oakland, 4; Roseburg, 1; Oregon City, 1. Refreshments were served by a committee with Mrs. Elsie Currin as chairman. Mrs. Meldrum and Mrs. Christensen were entertained during their stay at the C. A. Stevens and W. L. Hatch homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper B. Hills of Oakridge celebrated their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary Wednesday, November 11. A family dinner was held at the home of Mrs. S. E. Walker. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hills' eight children and families, J. Roy Hills, Jasper; Mrs. Elsie McKenzie, Eugene; Charles J. Hills, Oakridge; Mrs. LaSells Stewart, Cottage Grove; Fred A. Hills, Jasper; Mrs. S. E. Walker, Oakridge; Mrs. C. A. Huntington, Eugene; L. D. Hills, Oakridge. Mr. and Mrs. Hills were married at Fall Creek November 11, 1877. As a contrast to modern traveling the couple rode horseback to the minister's for the ceremony. Mr. Hills is a native of Lane county and was born April 19, 1859, at Jasper, which was named for him. He was the first white boy born in that section. Mrs. Hills, who was Flora Neet before her marriage, was born December 9, 1859, in Kansas and came to Oregon with her parents when she was a small child.

The American Legion auxiliary, at its Monday night meeting, discussed plans for a benefit card party to be held Monday night, December 7, at the C. E. Frost and C. C. Cruson homes. Proceeds will be given to the state department's Christmas cheer fund for use in child welfare and hospitalization work. Arrangements are in charge of the hospitalization and child welfare committees of the unit, with Mrs. C. E. Frost as general chairman. Mrs. Fred Bennett, membership chairman, reported that 1932 memberships now total 40. Miss Eleanor Cobb, guardian of the Camp Fire Girls group, which is sponsored by the auxiliary, outlined the purpose of the Camp Fire and discussed plans for the year's work. The unit voted to hold a Christmas party for children of veterans on Monday, December 21.

The Social Twelve club was entertained Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. H. A. Miller. Mrs. James P. Graham, Mrs. N. E. Glass and Mrs. M. C. Bressler were additional guests. At a brief business session which was presided over by Mrs. C. F. Hoskins plans were made for the Christmas meeting of the group and members responded to roll call with current events. Needlework and a social hour followed. An exhibit of quilts which she had pieced was shown by Mrs. Miller. A delicious two course luncheon was served. The dining table was centered with an attractive bowl of marigolds.

A group of local Rebekahs attended a district Rebekah convention held Saturday at Elmira. The local degree staff exemplified the chaplain's and P. N. G.'s work. An instructive session was enjoyed. Those who made the trip were Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Hazen, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, J. H. Bennett, Bert Hatch, Miss Jessie Sanborn, and Mesdames Clara Stevens, Vina Smith, Eva Aubrey, Mearl McKibben, Susie Garoutte, Elsie Currin, Alice Conner, Minnie Willis, Eva Hatch, Anna Newcomb, Mina Clark, Kattie Grubb, Emaline Wilson, Linnie Violette, Sarah Tennis, Rosa Currin and Lena Hamloth.

The Presbyterian missionary society was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Fields. Mrs. A. W. Shofstall was in charge of the lesson on Siam. Mrs. W. V. McGee and Mrs. George Matthews also gave articles on Siam. Mrs. Mary Smith led devotionals and Mrs. Charles Beidler was in charge of the query corner. A thank offering and a mite box offering were taken. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Ad Libitum club was entertained Thursday afternoon of last week by Mrs. Armorer. Christmas gift plans were discussed and a pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed. Chrysanthemums and potted plants were colorful room decorations and delicious refreshments were served. The club will meet December 4 at the home of Mrs. E. E. Cone.

Degree work for Mrs. Frank Galdabini and Miss Elsie Jacobsen was exemplified at the meeting of Cottage Grove chapter No. 4 of the Eastern Star last Friday night. A social hour with refreshments followed. Mrs. J. T. Smith was chairman of the refreshment committee.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Frost entertained last Friday with a luncheon at the Colonial, honoring Mrs. Lydia S. Stouffer, who will celebrate her birthday anniversary this week. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Protzman of Salem, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Miss Belle Burkholder, the guest of honor and the hosts.

The Cottage Grove Garden club will meet at 2:30 this afternoon in the city hall, with Mrs. T. C. Wheeler and Mrs. Mae Irwin as hostesses. A display of chrysanthemums will be held and members of the club and others interested have been invited to display their best specimens.

The Mothers' club will hold an all-day meeting Tuesday at the club rooms on Main street. A fish dinner will be served at noon. Salmon has been donated by Mrs. Schofield Stewart.

The Joker club will be entertained tonight (Friday) at the home of Mrs. Clara Burkholder.

The W. C. T. U. was entertained Friday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. F. C. Houser. Twenty members and two visitors were present. Mrs. J. R. Hendricks had charge of the devotionals. A song, "Bringing in the Sheaves," was sung and was followed by a prayer by Rev. W. V. McGee. The president, Mrs. Lettie Knickerbocker, appointed Rev. McGee to see whether the W. C. T. U. will be permitted to place a blackboard in the public school library. Mrs. Houser, Mrs. N. Land and Mrs. N. E. Compton reported on various phases of the Albany meeting. Mrs. Houser also reported on a visit to the children's farm home near Corvallis and on the needs of that institution. The December meeting of the union will be held at the home of Miss Stella Adams, with Mrs. I. G. Shaw as leader.

The Delphian society at its meeting Monday night discussed a dramatic romance and a modern epic. Mrs. W. M. MacGibbon was leader and gave a preliminary discussion and also a talk on "Characteristics of Browning's Style." Mrs. S. L. Godard discussed the poem, "The Flight of the Duchess," by Robert Browning, dealing with the three headings, the story, character portrayals and the gypsy's spell. She also discussed a modern epic by Noyes. Selections from "Drake" by Noyes were given by Mrs. Alice McC. Miller. A summary was given by Mrs. MacGibbon and a general discussion by the group followed. Mrs. MacGibbon gave a book review of the novel, "Shadows on the Rock," by Willa Cather.

A Royal Neighbors rally will be held in this city Tuesday night, November 24, with the local camp as hosts. Representatives will be present from Eugene, Crow, Marcola and Creswell.

The women's relief corps held its regular meeting Saturday afternoon in the armory. Routine business was transacted and the meeting was adjourned until November 28.

The O. L. H. club will be entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. W. Swanson. (Continued on page 5.)

GAS IS BEST!

ALL WINTER

HOTTER HEAT—at the Turn of a Valve!

On icy mornings—at midnight—anytime—get hot baths four times faster than ever before. Get hot meals in a few minutes instead of an hour!

Hot gas heaters—some instantaneous—give you oceans of steaming water for baths, dishes, laundry, anytime. Let a bright, clean, fast gas range save 1/3 of your cooking time every day. Try it now without obligation to buy!

ALL SPRING

FASTER HEAT—at the Turn of a Valve!

You get broiling heat in just 5 minutes—baking heat in 10 minutes. Hot biscuits and broiled bacon—in about 15 minutes breakfast is done! And your gas water heater is just as fast as your stove. How fast—how clean—how easy is a modern gas range? Try it now without obligation to buy!

ALL SUMMER

COOLER KITCHENS—at the Turn of a Valve!

Bake a cake at 400 degrees without raising your kitchen temperature a bit! Your gas range is insulated to keep intense heat on your food—and off you. No need to heat a big stove for a little cooking—one gas burner will keep three or four pots simmering at once. And you're out of the kitchen sooner than ever before—your gas range outspeeds every other stove. Try it now without obligation to buy!

ALL THE TIME

GAS RANGES are Easier to buy—No Cash Down!

Your old stove makes the down payment on the same kinds of gas ranges 4 out of 5 city families use! You may take from 10 to 30 months to complete easy payments. And the fastest stove made—your gas range—actually costs less than many similar appliances.
