last week from the John Overholser ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley E. Duncan and family of Central Point, who bought the John Overholser ranch, expect to move onto the place this week.

Mr. Gysse and Alvin Allen are now employed by J. H. Chambers. Ernest Darnell returned from Eugene Monday after a week's visit with Mr. Darnell and children.

During the past week creek creek experienced to which each member of snow for the time of year. The snowfall varied from eight inches in the lowlands to a foot or more in the hills.

A cougar has been heard several nights recently in this vicinity.

Mrs. Mary Burcham plans to leave shortly for the Canby district, where she will visit relatives and friends.

The Neighbors' Friendship club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Burcham Thursday, January 28, for an all-day session. Despite bad roads and deep snow a large number of members and friends were present to greet Miss Gertrude L. Skow, home demonstration agent, who started the economical meals project. An interesting talk was given in both the forenoon and afternoon by Miss Skow. A delicious meal was served which each member had contributed something, was served at noon. Mrs. Rosenwald, who had accompanied Miss Skow and who also gave some advice on "resting" left after the lunch for Hebron to give a talk on a home schedules project. Miss Skow before starting on her subject for the afternoon introduced several songs with exercises. Mrs. Lorenz and Mrs. Bolton of the Cedar district were welcomed by new members. Mrs. Elizabeth Fahrenwald of Cottage Grove, who came with a daughter, Mrs. Henry Rohde, was a guest. Among members present were:

High School Notes

D. P. Cameron, minister of the Presbyterian church, addressed last Thursday's assembly on the life of Robby Burns. Mr. Cameron said that Robby Burns has grown to be a love of all mankind as few men have and outside of Christmas there is no day so universally observed as his birthday. Critics say there is only one other poet who surpasses Robby Burns in keenness of perception and that is Shakespeare.

Mrs. J. A. Wiseman sang, "Red, Red, Rose" and "Coming Through the Rye," accompanied by Frances Mackin at the piano.

Miss Thelma Kem, gymnasium instructor, presented a letter to Delia Dutton and one to Anna Carter, each of whom has earned the necessary 500 points. Erna Bennett, who has earned 1200 points, received the chevron.

Father Asks Aid in Finding Son

Elbert Smith, postmaster, has received a request from D. O. Hull, Fairlawn, N. J., asking for help in locating a missing son, John S. Hull, who was last heard from early last summer in Roseburg.

The son is a veteran of the World war and served overseas with company "C," 364th Infantry. He was inducted into the service from Eugene and returned there when discharged from the army. His former home was in Napoleon, O. He was for a time employed by the Southern Pacific on trains running through Cottage Grove. Since that time the father has received no word of him except late last summer when the son applied from Roseburg to the war department for his adjusted compensation. However, when the papers were returned to Roseburg the son did not call for them and they were returned to Washington.

Anyone having information in regard to John S. Hull has been asked to inform D. O. Hull, 352 N. Plaza Road, Fairlawn, N. J.
