

PAGE FOUR

THORNTON CORNERS.

April 19—Mrs. J. H. Foster and Mr. R. H. Field of Cottage Grove visited Thursday of last week with Mrs. T. C. Shaw.

Joe Tonole returned Saturday from the veterinary hospital in Portland, where he had been taking treatments.

Willis Beldier of Cottage Grove was an overnight guest Friday of Philip Lake and on Saturday accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lake and Philip to Coos Bay.

Wayne Eiler of Cottage Grove visited Sunday afternoon at the R. B. Dixon home.

Mrs. George Gutekunst of Salem, Mrs. Jean Long of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bush of Mount View were dinner guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Trent.

Mrs. Addison Heath and sons of Hebron visited Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher.

Shirley LaBlue of Hebron visited overnight Saturday with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Smith, and accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaBlue, home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Shaw and family of Roseburg were supper guests Friday evening of Mr. Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Shaw, honoring Mrs. Shaw on her birthday anniversary. They returned to their home that evening.

Mrs. W. C. McLagen of Springfield visited Sunday at the home of a brother, L. H. Smith.

Miss Ethel Chestnut returned Monday from spending the week in Eugene with an aunt, Mrs. S. A. Walkinshaw.

B. P. Shortridge went to Eugene Tuesday to take his grandson and granddaughter, Junior and Wanda Berry, to an ear specialist. Both children have been very ill with gatherings in their ears.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lockwood of Gresham visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lake.

Mrs. J. W. Fisher was a dinner guest Sunday of Mrs. Jean Long in Cottage Grove.

Mrs. R. B. Dixon accompanied Mrs. Willbur Black and Martin Black to Eugene Monday afternoon.

Pete Tonole made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mrs. T. C. Shaw was honor guest at a surprise party at her home Friday evening, given by her husband, on her birthday anniversary. It was also the birthday anniversary of W. A. Keene, who with Mrs. Keene was a guest. Others invited were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cooley of the Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pitcher and daughter June of Walden.

The Joe Tonole children are ill with the measles.

A neighborhood birthday party was held Saturday evening at the Willbur Black home honoring five of the neighbors whose birthdays occurred recently. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keene and son of Saginaw visited several days of last week at the home of Mr. Keene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keene.

Pastor and Mrs. Atwood Foster of Tenino, Wash., who arrived Tuesday to take over the work at the Pentecostal church, visited Tuesday evening at the J. W. Fisher home.

Mrs. Lowell Benston and Mrs. Claude Willey of Saginaw were dinner guests Friday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keene.

WANTADS

FOR SALE OR TRADE.

CABINET MAKING — FURNITURE made, repaired and upholstered. Wood turning and carving. Work guaranteed. Woodcraft and Cabinet Shop, Fifth and Main street. a221t

BABY CHICKS EVERY TUESDAY, 10 cents each; hatching eggs reasonable. Turkey and hen eggs custom hatched. Bert V. Hands, north Pacific highway. m25-a29p

FOR SALE—CHOICE VARIETIES of chrysanthemum plants, 5 cents each or 50 cents a dozen. Mrs. C. R. Dear, phone 33F3, Dimston route, Cottage Grove, Ore. a5-22p

SPINELLA, THE WORLD'S BEST corset, combines style, comfort and durability. Made to measure, satisfaction guaranteed. New line of hostery, including new Bemberg mesh in all shades. Greatly reduced in price. Mrs. E. C. Shay, phone 187R. a5-22p

FOR SALE—BLOOMING SIZE perennial plants, price reasonable. Mrs. Charles Gettys, 708 Washington street. a5-22p

FOR SALE—6-WEEK-OLD LEG-horn broilers. Price reasonable. Also 27 cords good second growth body fir wood. Close to highway, $1.50 per cord. A. Teal, Dimston route, phone 40F11. a5-22p

FOR SALE—COAL BROODER, 500-chick capacity, used one season, good condition, $5. Also four open self cleaning rabbit hutches, $4. Maille Miller, 1059 Madison Ave. a5-22p

BARRED ROCK HATCHING eggs, 40c setting of 15 eggs. R. C. Lowrance, 2 1/2 miles out on Lorane road. a5-22p

FOR SALE—CEDAR FARM posts. A. L. Lawrence. a5-22p

JUST THE TIME WHEN EVERY housewife needs a broom. We make them at prices to suit every purse. Ask for Cottage Grove made brooms. Factory and salesroom corner Sixth and Jefferson. E. C. Shay, phone 187-R. a5-22p

FOR SALE—ROAN DURHAM bull calf, nine months old. Can be registered. C. H. Haight, phone 38F12. a5-22p

WE HAVE EVERYTHING YOU need in household furnishings. Why not spend your money at home? Compare our prices. We also need good used ranges. Short's Second Hand store. a5-22p

FOR SALE—OLD GROWTH 16 inch. Knots, 2-cord loads, $5, dry wood, $4 per cord, green wood, $3.50 per cord. O. E. Conrad, Lorane route. a5-22p

DAY-OLD RHODE ISLAND RED and White Rock baby chicks ready for delivery April 27. Roy Stewart, Saginaw, Ore. a22p

FOR SALE—THREE-YEAR-OLD purebred Jersey bull. Williams Brothers, Elm Butte route. a22p

WILL TRADE COUPE FOR 5 cords wood. 308 South 8th, phone 187R. a22c

FOR SALE—GARDEN FLOW with 3 blades, grinding stone, man's saddle, 2 axes, crowbar, hand corn planter, shovels, pick, grubbing hoe, 150 lb. scales, cream can, wagon jack, tire pump, rope and pulley, pitch fork, binder chain, 4 halters, wire stretcher, cow bells and several other things. Springs blacksmith shop. a22-m2p

WANT TO EAT. WANTED, BANTAM HENS, ANY variety, for setting purposes, only State Game Farms, Corvallis, Ore. a15-m2c

CASH BUYERS FOR OREGON farms. — Want good farms for cash. If your farm or business is for sale, write Frank Kinney, Eugene, Oregon. m25-a28c

Keene, in honor of Mr. Keene's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Keene and family of Creswell and Miss Mary Alma Benston and Delmar Benston of Saginaw were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keene.

LATHAM.

April 19—Visitors Friday at the John Trunnell home were: Mrs. B. Blake, Mrs. Everett Powell, Mrs. F. B. Van Norwick and Mrs. D. V. Donovan, all of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. D. L. Ljams and daughter Mary Lee of Eugene visited with Mrs. L. W. McKibben Wednesday.

Mrs. Dolph Dowdy of Lorane is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Mollie Gordiner of Latham.

Mrs. Alfred White and daughter Eleanor, accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Powell of Cottage Grove, motored to Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. John Trunnell and children visited friends in Eugene Saturday.

Hill Moore was a visitor at the C. S. Montgomery home several days last week.

Mrs. Albert Hull visited Sunday evening with her mother, Mrs. Ella J. Woodard of Cottage Grove.

William C. Hurn and son William Jr. of Portland were guests Friday night at the J. B. Grubb home.

William Jr. remained at the Grubb home, while his father motored to Roseburg. Mr. Hurn is a nephew of Mr. Grubb.

The L. W. McKibben family visited Sunday at the Clifford Leabo home on Rose river.

Visitors Saturday evening at the Ora Powell home were: Miss Margaret Doyle, Mrs. George B. Lyle, Mr. Hubert Alfred of Drain, Mr. Orval Lyle of Spokane and Mrs. Elsie Irwin of Astoria.

The B. H. Denham family visited with the D. H. Wilson family of Creswell Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. White and children of Eugene visited Sunday evening at the N. W. White home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Grubb and daughters Edna and Jessie and Lewis Strobeck of this district were dinner guests at the B. A. Pruett home in Cottage Grove Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Montgomery and daughter Neida of Eugene visited Sunday at the John Trunnell home.

Jeanette and Ella May Trunnell attended a Sunday school party at the Christian church in Cottage Grove Tuesday afternoon after school.

Mr. John Woodard, Mrs. Fred Stewart and daughter Bunny and Mrs. Vivian Williams visited with the John Trunnell family Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCall and children Wayne and Ruth visited Tuesday of last week in Eugene at the James Hayes home.

The pupils of the Latham school who are on the honor roll for the last six weeks are: Lester room, Benny McCall, Lee Kruse, Jeanette Trunnell, Darrell McKibben, Dora Johnson, Jean Yearous, Milo McCall, Howard Dickens, Ella May Trunnell, Alice Pitzer and Robert Dugan; upper room, Norma Dugan, Helen Johnson, Mike McKibben, Vivian White, Jessie Grubb, Albert McCall, Wayne Walker, Harry McCall.

The Better Homes committee, with Mrs. Hugh Trunnell as chairman, exhibited home made quilts and rugs and several other articles at the last P. T. A. meeting.

Mrs. S. E. Nichols of Shedd, who has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Nichols for a few days, will leave Wednesday to visit relatives in Grants Pass.

DORENA.

April 18—Roy Land of Seattle visited old friends here one day last week. He is a former resident.

Ruth England and Bernice Mosby motored to Eugene Saturday.

The Happy Circle Sewing club met with Mrs. Greta Estabrook Wednesday of last week. The next meeting will be at the church in DORENA.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREEK.

April 18—Elmer Watson of Texas, a great nephew of Mrs. Martha Bittinger, arrived April 8. His father, Alvy Watson, nephew of Mrs. Bittinger, and his wife arrived on Saturday. They stayed until Friday and left that day for Craigmont, Ida., visiting in Salem and Portland enroute.

Elmer Watson left the fifteenth for Roseburg to visit friends before going on to Idaho to visit his parents. Mrs. Bittinger had not seen her nephews for about 31 years.

Mr. Duncan, who recently purchased the John Overholser ranch, was around several days last week obtaining signatures of residents in the district to a petition to the county court to have improvements made on the Overholser hill road.

Mr. Schofield has been busy plowing and putting out plants for a strawberry acreage during the past week.

James Scott has finished tearing down the old barn on his place and has partly completed a new one on the west of his house.

Herman Rudolph is having a field on the new Silk creek road tiled, ditches being dug in several places to drain off soil water which usually stands in this field.

County exams were taken by the pupils in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Morris and small daughter Dolores of Walterville visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kimball.

SILK CREE