John Burroughs, great naturalist, said that Nature abhors a vacuum and therefore does her level best to cover the bare earth with something.

A vigorous growth of weeds indicates good soil and the very fact that we have to control them gives garden plants the proper cultivation. At least this much must be said for weeds—they are not easily discouraged, they never lose heart entirely and they die game.

A gardener with the courage and persistence of a weed is a success.

Third DAY "Continental Culinary Touring."

- A Continental Dinner France—Onion Soup Hungary—Gulyas of Beef Spain—String Beans, Espagnole Apricot-Pineapple Jam Russia—Russian Salad Holland—Sweet Macaroni Italy—Cheese and Fruit France and Germany—Coffee

Onion Soup Brown many strips of thinly sliced onion in a skillet with butter—about one half pound (for four persons). The onions should be well done, limp, browned and almost transparent. When they are cooked, heat strong beef broth—one quart (may use canned consommé)—add to the onions, along with salt (go easy), pepper, black and red, one-half teaspoon sugar. Pour just before serving over rounds of toast—covered with melted cheese—Parmesan if possible.

Gulyas of Beef Cut up fine three or four medium onions, place in skillet with shortening or drippings, color lightly with paprika, add lean beef in small pieces. This may come from the neck or shoulder, salt, marjoram and chopped garlic. Let brown to a tempting hue. Stir it frequently and sift in flour, about three tablespoons. Add one cup water or stock. Simmer slowly. About 45 minutes before serving place on top raw potatoes very thinly sliced—and about ten minutes before dish is up—about one cup sour cream. This dish may be made with veal or pork. Cook covered. The longer cooked the better—at least two hours. A slow oven may be used.

String Beans, Spanish If fresh string beans are used choose very tender ones, about one quart. Wash the beans, splitting them lengthwise. Fry gently in three tablespoons fat, stirring occasionally. Add to two tablespoons fat in another pan one onion, sliced or more, two green peppers chopped, fry until yellow and then add six medium sized tomatoes or one pint canned tomatoes. Add beans and a little water if mixture seems too thick. Season with salt and pepper. Simmer one hour or bake in slow oven one and one-half hours. Thicken with flour mixed with a little cold water. If served with plenty of grated cheese it may act as a main dish. In using canned beans they may be added directly to the tomato mixture.

Russian Salad Arrange on a low bowl or a large salad plate. Peel, dice and cook one cup carrots, one of white turnips, one of beets, one cauliflower, one of peas or use leftover vegetables. Drain, cool and arrange in contrasting colors, separating the vegetables by a tracery of finely chopped chives or parsley. Garnish further with lettuce. Pour French dressing over it and serve at once.

Dutch Macaroni Cook about three-fourths of an 8 oz package of macaroni in rapidly boiling salted water about twenty minutes. Drain. Mix together one egg, two cups milk, one fourth teaspoon salt, four tablespoons sugar, add macaroni, one-half cup raisins, nut if desired. Pour in casserole. Dot with butter and sprinkle with bread crumbs and cinnamon. Bake at 325 degrees about 35 minutes.

Afternoon Tea, Continental Fashion

- Tea—Method: 1. Have the water mad boiling hot. 2. Draw the tea five minutes. 3. Then separate from the leaves and serve at once.

- Tea—Accompaniments: 1. Colored sugar lumps with orange, lemon, mint flavors. 2. Slices of lemon with mint or clove. 3. Orange slices, ginger, candied cherries, pineapple. 4. Cream and sugar.

- Tea—Accessories: 1. English—toast, toasted muffins, crumpets, jam. 2. French—cakes, pastries. 3. German—fancy breads and buns, cookies. 4. Swedish—tiny wafers. 5. Sandwiches, open face and closed.

Gingerbread With Tutti Frutti Frosting

- Cream together: 1/2 cup shortening 1/2 cup sugar Sift together: 2 1/2 cups sifted flour 1 teaspoon soda 1 teaspoon baking powder 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon 1 teaspoon ginger 1 teaspoon salt 1 cup boiling water

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 45 minutes. Serve with Tutti Frutti Frosting Cook to soft ball stage 1 1/2 cups sugar 2 tablespoons ground chocolate 1 tablespoon butter 1/2 cup milk Then add: 1/4 cup each raisins and nuts 1/2 teaspoon vanilla Beat until fairly thick. Pour on warm gingerbread.

Apricot-Pineapple Jam (From canned fruits)

Measure two cups crushed drained pineapple, two cups ground canned apricots, and two cups water into six quart kettle. Add one package powdered pectin while stirring. Place on fire, bring to boil. (If fruit is hard, cover kettle and simmer for few minutes until soft.) Then add six heaping cups sugar, continue boiling without cover until sufficiently thick. Try spoonful on cold dish. Remove from fire, let stand three minutes, stir, pour and paraffin.

ROW RIVER RUMBLES. (By JACK HOWARD.) Nov. 16.—Henry Cooper and Charles Teeters were Eugene visitors Saturday. While in the big city Mr. Cooper was an eye witness to a crash involving a Dodge and a Ford car. The only financial mistake Henry made was his oversight in not calling his Dorena audience into his shop at 10 cents the head. His version of the crash was worth the money.

Wayne Kirk and John Holstrom left for Oregon City late last week. Mr. Kirk will take charge of a service garage recently acquired by his mother, Mrs. J. H. Kirk. As soon as she can arrange her business affairs Mrs. Kirk will join her son, at least for a time, and give the newly acquired business her personal attention. Notwithstanding that she has disposed of her ranch here, she still owns a very substantial residence property, formerly the Allen Kirk old age home.

Joe Smith and Bob Owen of Culp Creek, identified with the forest service in the Bohemia mining district, came out upon the close of their season's work late last week. Before coming out they salvaged Louie Dodge's car, which had been left where it slipped over a grade three weeks before, and brought it out on its own power. Siam has an up-to-date airmail service.
