Vacancies in U. S. Army.

Vacancies exist in the field artillery for able bodied ambitious young men between the ages of 18 and 35 who can furnish creditable character references. Applications should be made to recruiting offices in the court house, Eugene.

Largest Indian Mound

Cahokia, or Monks Mound, in southwestern Illinois is the largest prehistoric artificial earth work in the United States. It is estimated it would take 1,000 men five years to build it. It is evident that the earth obtained to build the mound was taken from that immediate neighborhood.

Thinking

In the degree that man thinks perfect, is he perfect. Good thoughts make good men; healthy thoughts, healthy men; loving thoughts, loving and courageous men. When your mind is well, your body is well. Think good, shut out bad thoughts and you will be rich in happiness.—Henry N. Kost.

"Sherlock Holmes"

Admiration

If one admires the patience, gentleness, sweetness and unflinching energy of another; if he finds himself renewed and invigorated and inspired by such contact—why does he not bring the same renewal and inspiration to others?—Lillian Whiting.

Sequoias

The sequoia trees of California are of two species, Sequoia Gigantea and Sequoia Sempervirens. The first is known as the Big Tree and the other as the California redwood. These trees are found outside of California, and in a limited area within that state.

Doses

The annual bill for medicine in this country is approximately $715,000,000. But Americans aren't as ill as those figures would indicate. Many of the items consumed as medicine are used by persons far from the bedridden stage.—Stout Falls Argus-Leader.

Indian Summer

Indian summer comes in October or November, occasionally extending into December in some localities. The season is rather brief, usually a couple of weeks, but in some years there are more than one of these periods of hazy, tranquil days.

Portland, Ore., furnishes white canes for its blind so afflicted may be seen at night.

Concert Is Presented By Glee Clubs of Schools

The high school girls' and boys' glee clubs and the orchestra presented a concert Wednesday evening in the gymnasium. The girls' chorus of 40 voices and the boys' chorus of 18 voices were under the direction of Miss Myrtle Kem. The orchestra of 18 pieces was directed by Buford Roach of Eugene. Miss Sara-Louise Shields and Georgetta Knowles accompanied the glee clubs and Betty Jacobson accompanied the orchestra. This program was the first of its kind to be given by high school students here and no admission was charged.

The program was as follows:

"Gypsies Chorus"—Girls' glee club.

"Juanita," "Old Black Joe"—Boys' glee club.

"In Our Boat," "Gleam, Gleam, O Silver Stream"—Girls' sextet.

Reading—Lorraine Colner.

"Into the Dawn With You"—Sweet Genevieve—Girls' glee club.

"Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "Woodland Echoes"—Boys' triple chorus.

"Turning, Whirling," "A Boating"—Underclass girls' chorus.

"Croon, Croon," "Waitin' in the Shadow"—Girls' glee club.

"A Warrior Bold"—Boys' glee club.

"The Wind at Night," "Down in the Dewey Dell"—Girls' glee club.

"Stony Point March," "Les Adieux Melodies," "Gavotte Souvenir," "Section Carmen," "Intermezzo," "Songs of the Dawn"—Orchestra.

"Silent Night," "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing"—Glee clubs and orchestra.

Unintentional Gift Is Made by Breese

Recorder O. V. Breese, acting as chairman of the relief council, has distributed large quantities of food to the needy, but Wednesday night he made a contribution that he had no intention of making. A thief entered the Breese home on south Sixth street and took a quarter of beef that had been cut into roasts, wrapped in oil paper and was to have been placed the next day in cold storage at the creamery. The house had been left unlocked. The thief left plain footprints and Mr. Breese says he is certain it was he who made the unintentional contribution, but will not prosecute because of the number of children in the family who will enjoy the meat.

Two hundred quarts of canned goods were not distributed.

Floyd Hunter Gets Appointment. Sheriff-Elect C. A. Swarts has announced the appointment of Floyd Hunter of this city as cook and guard at the county jail, to take the place of Bill Kissinger. The appointment was in recognition of the strong support given Mr. Swarts by south Lane.

Wind Blows Out Window.

The large side window of the Safeway store was blown out Thursday afternoon by the strong force of the wind. The glass broke into a thousand pieces.
